

HOCHIMINH STOCK EXCHANGE HOSTS 35TH AOSEF GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN HOCHIMINH CITY, VIETNAM

Hochiminh Stock Exchange (HOSE) hosts the 35th General Assembly of the Asian and Oceanian Stock Exchanges Federation (AOSEF) in Hochiminh City, Vietnam from April 13 – 14, 2017. This is also the first time the AOSEF General Assembly is organized in Vietnam. More than 50 top executives from 14 member exchanges and 02 observers from Cambodia Securities Exchange and Lao Securities Exchange join the assembly.

The Asian and Oceanian Stock Exchanges Federation (AOSEF) is founded in 1982 with the objectives to exchange information and to promote mutual assistance among its member with regards to the development of the securities markets within the region. Today, AOSEF consists of 19 member exchanges, including major stock exchanges such as Australia Stock Exchange, Tokyo Stock Exchange, Shanghai Stock Exchange, Korea Exchange,... and other exchanges in the Asian region.

AOSEF meets annually, hosted by each member exchange in rotation. The general assembly is an opportunity for the top executives to share their views on the changes influencing the regional and global securities markets, as well as to promote mutual assistance and cooperation among its member exchanges.

Beside the general agenda topics, this 35th General Assembly also focus on considerable topics such as the change in global financial market, the enhancement of corporate governance and transparency practice in the securities market, as well as the development of the market for Startup.

www.hsx.vn