c) The number of the members of the Board of Directors or of the Supervisory Board is less than the number of members required by Law;

d) A shareholder or a group of shareholders as stipulated in Article 16.1(k) of this Charter requests to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders in writing. Such request must specify reasons and purposes of the meeting and must be signed by all related shareholders or such request may be made in multiple copies and signatures of all related shareholders then collated;

e) The Supervisory Board requests to convene a meeting in case it has reason to believe that a member of the Board of Directors or key manager commits a serious breach of his or her obligations under Article 160 of the Law on Enterprises or the Board of Directors acts or intends to act out of its authority;

f) Other cases as stipulated in this Charter and by the Laws.

4. The time limit for convening an extraordinary meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be in accordance with the Laws. Where the Board of Directors fails to convene an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, the Supervisory Board shall, in place of the Board of Directors, convene the General Meeting of Shareholders. If the Supervisory Board fails to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with the Laws, the head of the Supervisory Board must be responsible before the Laws and must compensate for any loss caused to the Company, and at the same time a shareholder or group of shareholders as stipulated in Article 16.1(k) of this Charter shall be entitled to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders.

a) The Board of Directors must convene a General Meeting of Shareholders within thirty (30) days from the date on which the number of members of the Board of Directors is as stipulated in clause 3(c) of this Article or from the date of receipt of a request as stipulated in clauses 3(d) and 3(e) of this Article;

b) Where the Board of Directors fails to convene a General Meeting of Shareholders as stipulated in clause 4(a) of this Article, within thirty (30) days thereafter, the Supervisory Board shall, in place of the Board of Directors, convene a General Meeting of Shareholders;

c) Where the Supervisory Board fails to convene a meeting as stipulated in clause 4(b) of this Article, the shareholder or group of shareholders stipulated in clause 3(d) of this Article has the right to, in place of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board, convene a General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with Article 136.6 of the Law on Enterprises.

In this case, the shareholder or group of shareholders convening the General Meeting of Shareholders may request the business registration office to supervise the sequence and procedures for convening, conducting the meeting and issuing the resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders. All expenses for convening and conducting the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be reimbursed by the Company. These expenses shall not include any amounts paid by the shareholders when attending the General Meeting of Shareholders, including accommodation and travel expenses.

Article 27. Program and agenda of a General Meeting of Shareholders

1. An annual General Meeting of Shareholders shall discuss and make decisions on the following issues:

b) At the time of recommendation, the shareholder or group of shareholders is not holding five percent (5%) or more of the total ordinary shares for a period of six (06) consecutive months or more as stipulated in Article 16.1(k) of this Charter;

c) The item recommended does not fall within the decision-making authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders;

d) Other cases as stipulated under the Laws and this Charter.

4. The Board of Directors must prepare a draft resolution for each issue on the agenda.

Article 28. Conditions for conducting a General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall be conducted when the number of attending Shareholders represents at least fifty-one (51) percent of the total number of voting shares.

2. Where the number of attendees required is insufficient within thirty (30) minutes after the stipulated time for opening the meeting, the convener of the meeting shall cancel the meeting. The General Meeting of Shareholders must be reconvened within a period of thirty (30) days from the intended date of holding the first General Meeting of Shareholders. The re-convened General Meeting of Shareholders shall be conducted only when the attending members are shareholders representing at least thirty-three (33) percent of the total voting shares.

3. Where a meeting convened for the second time is not able to be conducted due to an insufficient number of attendees required to be present thirty (30) minutes after the stipulated time for commencement of the meeting, the General Meeting of Shareholders may be convened for a third time within twenty (20) days from the intended date of conducting the second meeting; and in such case, the meeting shall be conducted irrespective of the number of attending shareholders representing total voting shares, and shall be deemed valid and have the right to make decisions on all issues proposed to be passed at the first General Meeting of Shareholders.

4. A shareholder may attend the General Meeting of Shareholders by one of the following ways:

a) attending in person at the meeting;

b) sending its voting card by registered mail to the Board of Directors no later than one (01) day prior to the commencement of the meeting. In this case, head of vote-counting committee of the General Meeting of Shareholders has the right to open the voting card of such shareholder at the General Meeting of Shareholders;

c) authorising other persons to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders. A shareholder being an organization which does not have an authorized representative as stipulated in Article 15.4 of the Law on Enterprises and Article 24 of this Charter is allowed to authorize other persons to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 29. Procedures for conducting a General Meeting of Shareholders

1. On the date of holding the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Company must carry out procedures to register its shareholders and must implement such registration until all shareholders who are entitled to attend the meeting and who are present have been registered.

2. Upon registration of shareholders, the Company shall issue a voting card to each shareholder or authorized representative with voting rights which states registration number, full name of shareholder, full name of authorized representative and number of votes of such shareholder. When conducting voting at the meeting, the voting cards which agree with a resolution shall be collected first, then the voting cards which do not agree, and finally there shall be a count of the overall number of votes which agree or do not agree to make a decision. The total number of votes which agree, which do not agree, and abstentions and invalid votes on each issue shall be announced by the chairman immediately after voting on such issue. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect the persons responsible to check the votes or to supervise the checking of votes at the request of the chairman. The number of members of the vote-counting committee shall be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders on the basis of a request of the chairman.

3. The program and agenda of the meeting must be passed by the General Meeting of Shareholders in the opening session. The program must specify in detail the timeframe applicable to each issue in the agenda for the meeting.

4. Any shareholder or person authorised to attend a meeting who arrives after the commencement of the meeting shall still be registered and has the right to participate in voting immediately after registration. The Chairman is not obliged to stop the meeting so that late arrivals may register. In such case, the effectiveness of any item which was previously voted on shall not be affected.

5. The Chairman, Secretary and Vote-counting committee of a General Meeting of Shareholders shall be stipulated as follows:

a) The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall act as chairman of all meetings which are convened by the Board of Directors. If the Chairman is absent or is temporarily unable to work, the remaining members of the Board of Directors shall select by a majority vote one of them to act as the chairman of the meeting. If they cannot elect a person to act as chairman, the head of the Supervisory Board shall arrange for the General Meeting of Shareholders to elect the chairman of the meeting, and the person with the highest number of votes shall act as the chairman of the meeting.

In other cases, the person signing the documents convening a General Meeting of Shareholders shall arrange for the General Meeting of Shareholders to elect the chairman of the meeting, and the person with the highest number of votes shall act as the chairman of the meeting;

b) The chairman shall elect one or more persons to act as secretary of the meeting to prepare the minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

6. The chairman is the person who has the right to make decisions on the sequence, procedures and events arising outside of the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

7. The chairman and secretary of a General Meeting of Shareholders shall have the right to take necessary measures to direct the conduct of the meeting in a reasonable and orderly manner in accordance with the agenda as passed, and so that it reflects the wishes of the majority of attendees.

8. The convenor of a General Meeting of Shareholders has the following rights:

a) To require all persons attending the meeting to be security-checked or subject to other lawful and reasonable security measures;

b) To request a competent agency to maintain order during the meeting; to expel from a General Meeting of Shareholders any person who fails to comply with the right of the chairman to control the meeting, who disrupts order or intentionally prevents normal progress of the meeting or who fails to comply with a request to undergo a security check.

9. The chairman shall have the right to adjourn a General Meeting of Shareholders for which sufficient attendees have registered as stipulated to another time (maximum time of any adjournment shall not be more than three (03) days from the date of the proposed opening of the meeting) or to change the location of the meeting in the following cases:

a) The location for the meeting does not have sufficient suitable seating for all the attendees;

b) The communication means at the location of the meeting do not ensure the attending Shareholders participate, discuss and vote at the meeting;

c) There is an attendee who obstructs the meeting or disrupts order, and there is a danger that the meeting might not be conducted fairly and lawfully;

d) If the chairman adjourns or suspends a General Meeting of Shareholders contrary to the provisions in items a, b, c of this clause, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect another person from the attendees to replace the chairman in conducting the meeting until its completion. All resolutions passed at such meeting shall be effective.

10. The convenor of the General Meeting of Shareholders, after careful consideration, may take appropriate measures to:

- a) Arrange seating at the venue of the meeting;
- b) Ensure safety for all persons present at the venue of the meeting;
- c) Facilitate the shareholders to attend (or continue to attend) the meeting.

The convenor of the General Meeting of Shareholders has full powers to change the above measures and take all other necessary measures which may include issuance of entry permits or use of other selected forms.

11. If the General Meeting of Shareholders takes any of the above measures, then the convenor of the General Meeting of Shareholders may, when determining the venue of the meeting:

a) Notify that the meeting will be conducted at the venue stated in the notice and the chairman of the meeting shall be present there (“Official Venue of the Meeting”);

b) Arrange and organize matters so that the shareholders or authorized representatives are unable to attend the meeting in accordance with this Article or the persons who wish to attend at a venue different from the Official Venue of the Meeting can attend the meeting at the same time;

A notice of holding a meeting is not required to state the detailed measures for holding it in accordance with this Article.

12. In this Charter (unless the context requires otherwise), all shareholders shall be deemed to attend the meeting at the Official Venue of the Meeting.

Article 30. Cumulative voting

1. Before or during a General Meeting of Shareholders, the shareholders have the right to jointly set up a group to nominate candidates to the Board of Directors.

2. The number of candidates which each group is entitled to nominate shall be in accordance with the number of candidates determined by the General

Meeting of Shareholders and the ratio of ownership of shares of each group, in particular:

a) A shareholder or a group of shareholders holding from five percent (5%) to less than ten percent (10%) of the total shares with voting right is entitled to nominate no more than one (01) candidate to the Board of Directors and one (01) candidate to the Supervisory Board;

b) A shareholder or a group of shareholders holding from ten percent (10%) to less than thirty percent (30%) of the total shares with voting right is entitled to nominate no more than two (02) candidates to the Board of Directors and two (02) candidates to the Supervisory Board;

e) A shareholder or a group of shareholders holding from fifty percent (50%) to less than sixty percent (60%) of the total shares with voting right is entitled to nominate no more than five (05) candidates to the Board of Directors and five (05) candidates to the Supervisory Board;

f) A shareholder or a group of shareholders holding from sixty percent (60%) to less than seventy percent (70%) of the total shares with voting right is entitled to nominate no more than six (06) candidates to the Board of Directors;

g) A shareholder or a group of shareholders holding from seventy percent (70%) to less than eighty percent (80%) of the total shares with voting right is entitled to nominate no more than seven (07) candidates to the Board of Directors;

h) A shareholder or a group of shareholders holding from eighty percent (80%) to less than ninety percent (90%) of the total shares with voting right is entitled to nominate no more than eight (08) candidates to the Board of Directors;

i) A shareholder or a group of shareholders holding from ninety percent (90%) or more of the total shares with voting right is entitled to nominate no more than nine (09) candidates to the Board of Directors.

3. If the number of the candidates nominated by the shareholders or groups of shareholders is lower than the number of candidates which they are entitled to nominate, the remaining candidates shall be nominated by the Board of Directors/ the Supervisory Board or other shareholders. The mechanism for nomination of candidates to the Board of Directors/ Supervisory Board by the incumbent Board of Directors/ Supervisory Board must be clearly announced to and approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

4. Candidates selected to be members of the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board shall be determined on the basis of a descending vote count, starting with the candidate with the highest number of votes until the number of members required by this Charter have been elected. If there are two (02) or more candidates who obtain the same number of votes for being the last member of the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board, such member shall be elected again amongst the number of candidates having an equal number of votes or selected in accordance with the criteria in the regulations on election.

Article 31. Adoption of resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall pass decisions which fall within its authority by way of voting in a meeting or collecting written opinions.

2. A resolution on the following matters shall be passed if it is agreed by a number of shareholders representing at least 65% of the total votes of all attending shareholders:

a) Classes of shares and total number of shares of each class;

b) Amendment of or addition to the Charter;

c) Sale or purchase of assets of the Company or its affiliates valued at at least 35% of the total value of assets recorded in the most recent audited financial statements of the Company;

d) Re-organization or dissolution of the Company.

3. Other resolutions shall be passed if they are agreed by a number of shareholders representing at least 51% of total number of votes of all attending shareholders, except for the cases stipulated in clauses 2 and 4 of this Article.

4. Voting to elect members of the Board of Directors and of the Supervisory Board must be implemented by the method of cumulative voting, whereby each shareholder shall have as its total number of votes the total number of shares it owns multiplied by the number of members to be elected to the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board. The shareholders are entitled to accumulate all or part of their total votes for one or more candidates.

5. Resolutions which are passed at a General Meeting of Shareholders with the number of shareholders or authorised representatives of shareholders representing one-hundred percent (100%) of the total shares with voting rights shall be valid and effective, even when the sequence or procedures of convening the meeting, the agenda of the meeting or the formality of such meeting is not in compliance with the Laws.

6. The Board of Directors may collect written opinions of the shareholders to pass resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders if it is deemed in the best interests of the Company. The content of such written opinion forms, procedures of delivery and receipt of such written opinion forms, and minutes of vote-counting must comply with the Law on Enterprises.

7. The Board of Directors shall prepare written opinion forms, a draft of the resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders, and other documents explaining the draft resolutions. The written opinion forms, the draft of the resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders, and other explanatory documents must be sent to all shareholders by a method guaranteed to reach the registered address of each shareholder. The Board of Directors must ensure that the documents are sent and announced to the shareholders within a reasonable notice period for the shareholders' consideration and voting, and must be sent at least fifteen (15) days prior to the expiry of the time limit for receipt of the written opinion forms.

8. The written opinion form must contain the following basic details:

- d) Total number of votes for, against and abstentions on each issue voted on;
- e) Matters which have been passed;
- f) Full names and signatures of the Chairman of the Board of Directors; the legal representative of the Company; the person who supervised the vote-counting; and the person who counted votes.

The members of the Board of Directors, the person who counted votes and the person who supervised the vote-counting are jointly liable for the truthfulness and accuracy of the minutes of vote-counting, and are jointly liable for any loss arising from a resolution which is passed due to an untruthful or inaccurate counting of votes.

11. The vote counting minutes must be published on the website of the Company no later than twenty four (24) hours after completion of the vote counting and must be sent to the shareholders within fifteen (15) days from the date of completion of the vote counting.

12. Completed written opinion forms, the minutes of vote-counting, the resolutions which were passed and any related documents sent with all of the written opinion forms shall be archived at the head office of the Company.

13. Where a resolution is passed by way of collection of written opinions, a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be passed when it is agreed by a number of shareholders representing at least fifty-one (51) percent of the total votes and shall have the same validity as a resolution passed in a General Meeting of Shareholders.

14. Any resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders must be notified to the shareholders entitled to participating in the General Meeting of Shareholders within fifteen (15) days from the date such resolution is passed. The resolution may be published on the website of the Company instead.

Article 32. Effectiveness of resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. A resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be effective as of the date such resolution is passed or on another date as specified in the resolution.

2. In the event where a shareholder, group of shareholders or member of the Board of Directors requests a claim or directly makes a claim regarding a resolution which has been passed by the General Meeting of Shareholders, such resolution shall remain effective until otherwise resolved by the competent court or arbitrator, unless there are any provisional measures applied to such resolution by the competent authorities.

Article 33. Request for cancellation of resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders Within ninety (90) days from the date of receipt of the minutes of a General Meeting of Shareholders or the minutes of the results of vote-counting by way of written opinions from the General Meeting of Shareholders, a shareholder, member of the Board of Directors, member of the Supervisory Board or the Chief Executive Officer has the right to request a court or an arbitrator to consider and cancel a resolution or part of a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders in the following cases:

- 1) The sequence and procedures for convening a meeting or collecting opinion of the General Meeting of Shareholders and issuing a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders did not comply with the Law on Enterprises and the Charter of the Company, except in the case stipulated in Article 31.5 of this Charter.
- 2) The sequence and procedures of passing the resolutions or the contents of the resolutions violate the Laws or the Charter of the Company.

If any resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders is cancelled in accordance with the decision of a court or an arbitrator, the person who convened the meeting in which such cancelled resolution is adopted may consider re-organizing a General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with the sequence and procedures under the Law on Enterprises and this Charter.

Article 34. Minutes of a General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be minuted and may be sound recorded and archived in other electronic forms with required contents under the Law on Enterprises. The meeting minutes shall be made in writing in Vietnamese and may also be prepared in any other foreign language with the same validity. In case of any consistency between the Vietnamese version and any foreign language version of the meeting minutes, the Vietnamese version shall prevail. The meeting minutes must be signed by the chairman and secretary of such meeting and must be prepared in accordance with the Law on Enterprises and this Charter.

2. Minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders must be completed and approved prior to the closing of the meeting.

3. The chairman and secretary of the meeting shall be jointly liable for the truthfulness and accuracy of the contents of the meeting minutes. The meeting minutes must be published on the website of the Company within twenty four (24) hours or delivered to all the shareholders within fifteen (15) days from the date of closing of the relevant meeting.

4. Minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders are deemed as authentic evidence of the work conducted at the meeting, unless there is an opposition to the contents of the meeting minutes which is raised in accordance with the applicable procedures within ten (10) days of delivery of such meeting minutes.

5. The person who chaired the meeting shall be responsible for arrangement of filing the meeting minutes at the head office of the Company, the annex listing shareholders registered to attend the meeting, all resolutions which have been passed and other documents attached to the invitation of such meeting.

6. On commencement of a term of office, all members of the Board of Directors must meet all requirements under the Laws, governance regulations, Charter and other internal rules of the Company. During their term of office, the members of the Board of Directors must notify the Chairman of the Board of Directors of any change. The criteria and conditions set out under this Article are concurrently applicable to any alternate or additional member of the Board of Directors.

Article 38. Meetings and meeting minutes of the Board of Directors

1. Meetings of the Board of Directors may be held on a regular or extraordinary basis. The Chairman of the Board of Directors may convene a meeting considered necessary, provided that there must be at least one (01) meeting every quarter.

2. In case the Board of Directors elects a new Chairman for a new term of office, the initial meeting of the Board of Directors to elect the new Chairman and decide other issues must be conducted within seven (07) working days from the date of completion of the election of the Board of Directors for that term of office. Such meeting shall be convened and chaired by the member who obtains the highest number of votes or the highest percentage of votes. If more than one member obtains the same highest number of votes or the same highest percentage of votes, the members shall select a person amongst them by a majority vote to convene the meeting.

3. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall convene an extraordinary meeting if he or she deems it is necessary for the interests of the Company. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall convene a meeting of the Board of Directors without delay if there is not a proper reason for such delay, when one of the following persons sends a written request presenting the purpose of the meeting and matters that need to be discussed. The Chairman of the Board of Directors must convene a meeting of the Board of Directors within seven (7) days of receipt of a request in the following cases:

- a) Receiving a request from the Supervisory Board;
- b) Receiving a request from the Chief Executive Officer or from at least five (05) other managerial personnel;
- c) Receiving a request from any independent member of the Board of Directors;
- d) Receiving a request from at least two (02) executive members of the Board of Directors;
- e) The request to convene a meeting must be made in writing and must specify the objectives, matters to be discussed and resolved by the Board of Directors.

4. If the Chairman fails to convene a meeting of the Board of Directors pursuant to a request, the Chairman shall be liable for loss and damage caused to the Company; and the person making the request has the right to convene a meeting of the Board of Directors in place of the Board of Directors.

5. If requested by an independent auditor, the Chairman of the Board of Directors must convene a meeting of the Board of Directors to discuss the audit report and the situation of the Company.

6. The Chairman of the Board of Directors or the person who convenes the meeting of the Board of Directors shall send invitations to such meeting to the members of the Board of Directors, Supervisory Board and Chief Executive Officer no later than five (05) working days prior to the date of the meeting. Any member of the Board of Directors may decline the meeting invitation in writing and such decline may be changed or terminated in writing by such member. The meeting invitation shall be made in Vietnamese and shall include details of time and place of the meeting, agenda, matters to be discussed and resolved, attached with the documents to be used in the meeting, voting cards of the members and voting cards for the members who are unable to attend the meeting. The notification shall be sent in accordance with the Law on Enterprises.

The meeting invitation shall be sent by post, fax, electronic mail or any other methods, but must be sent to the correct address of each member of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board which has been registered with the Company.

7. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be conducted at the registered address of the Company or any other address in Vietnam or in other foreign countries, pursuant to the decision of the Chairman of the Board of Directors as approved by the Board of Directors.

8. A member of the Supervisory Board and the Chief Executive Officer, who is not a member of the Board of Directors, may attend and discuss in the meetings of the Board of Directors but is not entitled to vote in such meetings.

9. Voting

a) Except for clause 9(b) of this Article, each member of the Board of Directors or his or her authorized person who is present in his or her capacity as an individual at a meeting of the Board of Directors shall have one vote;

b) A member of the Board of Directors is not permitted to vote on any contract, transaction or proposal in which such member or any Related Person of such member has an interest which conflicts or possibly conflicts with the interests of the Company. A member of the Board of Directors shall not be included in the quorum required to be present to hold a meeting of the Board of Directors regarding decisions on which such member does not have the right to vote;

c) Subject to Clause 9(d) of this Article, when an issue arises at a meeting of the Board of Directors relating to the interests of a member of the Board of Directors or relating to the voting right of a member which is not resolved by voluntary waiver of the voting right of the relevant member of the Board of Directors, such issue shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting for decision. The decision of the chairman on such issue shall be final, except where the nature or scope of the interest of the relevant member of the Board of Directors has not been fully announced;

d) Any member of the Board of Directors who benefits from any contract stipulated in Articles 56.5(a) and 56.5(b) of this Charter shall be deemed to have a material interest in such contract;

e) Supervisors have the right to attend meetings of the Board of Directors and to take part in discussions but do not have any voting rights.

10. Any member of the Board of Directors who directly or indirectly benefits from a contract or transaction signed or intended to be signed with the Company and is aware that he/she has an interest in such contract or transaction is responsible to disclose the nature and content of such interest at the meeting where the Board of Directors considers the signing of such contract or transaction for the first time. Where a member of the Board of Directors is unaware that such member and his/her related persons have an interest at the time a contract or transaction is signed with the Company, such member must publicly announce his/her related interests at the first meeting of the Board of Directors to be held after such member becomes aware that he/she has or will have an interest in the relevant contract or transaction.

11. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be conducted if at least three-quarters of the number of members of the Board of Directors are present in person or via their representatives (being authorized representatives) if the majority of members of the Board of Directors so agree. If the number of attending members is insufficient as stipulated, the meeting must be re-convened within seven (7) days from the proposed date of the first meeting. The re-convened meeting shall be conducted if more than half of the number of members of the Board of Directors attend.

12. The Board of Directors shall pass decisions and issue resolutions on the basis of the consent of the majority of members of the Board of Directors present. Where the number of votes for and against are equal, then the vote of the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be the deciding vote.

13. All meetings of the Board of Directors must be minuted and may be sound recorded, or recorded and stored in other electronic forms at the head office of the Company. Minutes must be prepared in Vietnamese and may also be prepared in a foreign language. Minutes prepared in Vietnamese and foreign languages shall have equal validity. In the case of any difference in the contents of the minutes between the Vietnamese text and the foreign language text, the contents in the Vietnamese text shall prevail. Minutes must be signed by all members attending the meeting. If a resolution of the Board of Directors has been passed in accordance with the Laws but there is a member who refuses to sign the minutes, his or her signature confirming his or her attendance at the meeting is considered as being included on the minutes. Minutes must have all contents in accordance with the Law on Enterprises. The chairman and the person writing the minutes must be responsible for the accuracy and truthfulness of the minutes of meetings of the Board of Directors.

14. A meeting of the Board of Directors may be held in the form of a conference among the members of the Board of Directors when all or a number of the members are at different locations, provided that each member attending the meeting is possible:

- a) To hear other members of the Board of Directors discuss at the meeting;
- b) To concurrently discuss with all other attending members.

Discussion between the members may be made directly by telephone or by other means of communication or a combination of all these methods. A member of the Board of Directors attending such a meeting shall be considered as "present" at the meeting. The location of the meeting held pursuant to this provision shall be a place where the largest group of members of the Board of Directors gathers or, if there is not such a group, the place where the Chairman of the meeting is present.

Decisions passed at a meeting properly held and processed by telephone shall be effective immediately after the end of the meeting but must be affirmed by the signatures in the minutes of all members of the Board of Directors attending such meeting.

15. A resolution by way of collection of written opinions shall be approved on the basis of the consent of the majority of members of the Board of Directors who have voting rights. Such resolution shall have the same effect and validity as a resolution passed by the members of the Board of Directors at a meeting.

16. The Chairman of the Board of Directors is responsible to deliver the minutes of a meeting of the Board to the members, and such minutes shall be authentic evidence of the work carried out at such meeting unless there is an objection to the contents of the minutes provided within ten (10) days from the date of delivery. The minutes of a meeting of the Board of Directors must be prepared in Vietnamese and must bear the signatures of all members of the Board of Directors attending the meeting. If the minutes are made in multiple copies, each copy must bear the signature of at least one (1) member of the Board of Directors attending the meeting.

17. The Board of Directors may establish subsidiary sub-committees to be responsible for policies on development, personnel, salaries and bonuses, and internal audit. The Board of Directors shall decide the number of members of any sub-committee which should be at least three (3) and must include a member of the Board and an external member. Independent members of the Board of Directors and non-managerial members of the Board of Directors should constitute the majority of members of a sub-committee, and one of such people should be appointed as the head of the sub-committee pursuant to a decision of the Board of Directors. Activities of sub-committees must comply with regulations of the Board of Directors. Resolutions of a sub-committee shall take effect only when the majority of members attending and voting at the meeting of the sub-committee are members of the Board of Directors.

18. Implementation of decisions of the Board of Directors, of sub-committees under the Board of Directors or of a person with the status of member of a sub-committee of the Board of Directors must comply with applicable Law and provisions in this Charter.
