4.8 Principles for Recognizing and Capitalizing Borrowing Costs:

Borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction, or production of qualifying assets are capitalized as part of the asset's cost. These include interest expenses, amortization of discounts or premiums on bond issuance and ancillary costs incurred during the borrowing process.

The capitalization of borrowing costs should be temporarily suspended in periods during which the investment in construction or production of uncompleted assets is interrupted, except for cases where such interruption is necessary.

The capitalization of borrowing should cease when substantially all of the activities necessary to prepare the asset for its intended use or sale are complete. Borrowing costs arising afterward should be recognized as in-period production or business costs.

Income generated from the temporary investment of specific borrowings, pending their utilization for the acquisition of qualifying assets, must be deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalization.

The amount of borrowing costs capitalized during a period must not exceed the amount of borrowing costs incurred during that period. Interest expenses and the amortization of discounts or premiums capitalized during a period must not exceed the actual interest incurred and the amount of discounts or premiums amortized during that period.

4.9 Principles for Recognizing and Capitalizing Other Costs:

The following expenses incurred during the financial year are recorded as long-term prepaid expenses and are gradually allocated to the operating results:

- + Tools and equipment with significant value that have been allocated for use;
- + Extraordinary repair costs for fixed assets that are significant and incurred as a one-time expense.

Other Expenses: Costs incurred during the period that are not related to the core business operations are recognized as other expenses.

Method of Allocating Prepaid Expenses: Short-term prepaid expenses are allocated over a period of one year, while long-term prepaid expenses are allocated over a period from 2 to 3 years.

4.10 Recognition of Accrued Expenses, Provision for Major Repairs and Warranty Costs:

- Actual expenses that have not yet been incurred but are deducted in advance from production and business expenses in the period to ensure that when actual expenses arise, they do not cause sudden changes in production and business expenses on the basis of ensuring the principle of matching between revenue and expenses.

When such costs arise, if there is a difference with the amount deducted, the accountant will record additional or reduce the cost corresponding to the difference.

- For specific fixed assets whose repair is cyclical, the major repair costs for these assets are provided based on estimates or plans and are recorded as production and business expenses.

4.11 Principle of recognition of equity:

Principles for Recognizing Owner's Equity, Capital Surplus, and Other Capital: Owner's equity is stated at actually contributed capital of owners. Shareholders' contributions consist of both the nominal value of the shares and any amount exceeding the nominal value, which is classified as capital surplus (additional paid-in capital).

Principles for Recognizing Retained Earnings:

Recognition of Investment and Development funds, Other Reserves: Recognized based on the resolutions of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders.

- + The amount of the revenue can be measured reliably;
- + The company has gained or will gain economic benefits from the sales of goods;

Corporate income tax expenses for the period comprise current corporate income tax expenses and deferred corporate income tax expenses.
- + Current corporate income tax expenses are determined based on taxable income during the period and current corporate income tax rate. - + Deferred tax is provided using liability method on temporary differences at the balance sheet date between the tax base of assets and liabilities and their carrying amount for financial reporting purposes.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognized for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are recognized only to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which deductible temporary differences.

- + The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each balance sheet date and reduced to the extent that it is probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax assets to be utilised.
- + Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period when the assets is realized or the liabilities is settled based on tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted at the balance sheet date. Deferred tax is recored in the interim consolidated income statement, except when it relates to items recognized directly to equity, in which case the deferred tax is also dealt with in the equity account.
- Deferred tax is classified as a long-term liability.

4.14 Recognition of trade payables and other payables:

- + Payables with a payment term of less than 1 year or within a business cycle are classified as current liabilities.

36 Explanation for the change by more than 10% in the 4th quarter 2024 business results compared to the same period last year:

Business results in the fourth quarter of 2024 decreased by more than 10% compared to the same period in 2023 due to the following main reasons:

- Business operations during the quarter increased profits by more than VND 24 billion compared to the same period in 2023, mainly thanks to a VND 24 billion increase in maritime transport. The company effectively leveraged the slight rise in freight rates and implemented cost-cutting measures, contributing to lower costs of goods sold and improved efficiency.

- Other profits decreased by VND 48 billion, primarily because income from the sale of the Mv. Vien Dong 3 recorded in 2024 was VND 38 billion, significantly lower than the income from the sale of the Mv. VTC Sun in the same period last year (VND 84 billion).
