+ Actively participated in programs for children in disadvantaged areas, building official housing for teachers in mountainous areas, and the program to ensure students attending school are not lacking textbooks, initiated by the Department of Education and Training, Vietnam Education Publishing House, and the Central Association of Teams, the Ho Chi Minh Communist Youth Union, to help students in mountainous areas and students in difficult circumstances to study and have a better life. Participated in sustainable development programs to build a rich, beautiful, cultural city of Ha Long, and the people of Quang Ninh.

5. Risks:

From all perspectives of asset management and current and long-term business operations of the Company, the risk potential is not significant. Factors that may affect the Company's ability to achieve its goals include:

+ The government's salary increase roadmap, which increases salary costs and consequently increases insurance premiums annually, affecting the Company's after-tax profits.

+ The impact of economic recession on sales revenue and service revenue of Van Lang School, and the Van Lang Travel Center branch.

II. Operational Performance in the Year

1. Production and Business Performance

- Results of production and business operations during the year:

+ Advantages: The Company has many years of experience in business and serving the education sector, and has a good reputation with teachers, students, and people in Quang Ninh province. The collective of employees is united and wholeheartedly overcomes difficulties and challenges. The business is relatively stable.

+ Difficulties: Competition is becoming increasingly intense. Like other businesses in Quang Ninh province, the Company is affected by the post-Covid 19 pandemic, which has reduced revenue, especially in services and retail, impacting business efficiency.

+ In 2024, the Company continues to innovate management by strengthening contract management coupled with granting autonomy to business units. Invest in facilities, renovate Mong Cai Bookstore into Ka Long Commercial Center, increase the size from 10 to 30 rooms, rename it Ka Long Hotel, and expand the sales floor of Mong Cai Bookstore to double its previous size to become a cultural institution of the city.

+ Results of implemented tasks:

Ensuring policies, regimes, and employment for employees: The company has strictly implemented policies and regimes for employees in accordance with State regulations and the signed Collective Labor Agreement. Employees' jobs are stable, with an average income of 13 million VND per person per month. The company also takes care of the material and spiritual well-being of employees on Tet holidays, public holidays, etc. The company pays a 13th-month salary to employees; depending on the business results of each unit, employees may receive more than 1 month's salary.

III. Report and Assessment of the Board of Directors (The Board of Directors reports and assesses the overall situation of the company)

1. Assessment of Production and Business Performance

- In 2024, the Company's operations were stable and developed steadily. Although the income of people in the province did not change significantly, and the budget for education investment was reduced, which had a limited impact on purchasing power, the Company responded to this situation early with appropriate solutions, making good use of sales opportunities. As Van Lang School is increasingly trusted by parents and students, the number of student applications exceeded the school's capacity, contributing to increased revenue and overall profit for the Company.

- Timely innovation of management mechanisms in the direction of delegating authority coupled with responsibility to all levels, creating conditions to maximize the capacity of the entire system and the collective strength within each unit and the entire Company.

2. Financial Situation

a) Asset Status

The Company's fixed assets are mainly construction projects serving business operations, such as: School Buildings, Supermarkets, and Bookstores. The average age of fixed assets is still young (approximately 10 years) and they are always in a state of being fully utilized. In 2024, the Company invested in renovating and upgrading Mong Cai Bookstore and Ka Long Guesthouse into Ka Long Commercial Center, which includes the Ka Long Hotel with 30 rooms meeting 3-star standards and the largest book center in the Mong Cai area.

The company's short-term assets primarily consist of inventory on display shelves in supermarkets and short-term receivables from schools for textbooks delivered in December 2023 for the second semester.

Regarding inventory: The greatest risk to the Company's inventory stems from changes in the textbook curriculum. This year is the final year of textbook replacements under the 2018 general education program, and the Company's effective management of obsolete textbooks from the old program keeps the risk level low.

Regarding short-term receivables: These are primarily debts owed by Departments of Education & Training and schools in the province that received textbooks for the second semester at the end of the year and have not yet made payments within the year. These are typically paid at the beginning of the following year. The Company has virtually no bad debts.

b) Debt Situation In general,

The Company's liabilities for 2024 are not significant.

The Company has no bad debts and is not affected by exchange rate fluctuations.

3. Improvements in organizational structure, policies, and management:

- Innovation in management mechanisms towards linking benefits with responsibilities and granting autonomy to business units.

- Reforming the appointment mechanism for management personnel.

4. Future Development Plans

- Maximize the use of facilities and spaces at the Company's units to develop business plans for new types of services. Initially, complete the procedures to fully utilize all functions of the Ka Long commercial center project; Increase the exploitation of various goods from China through linkages with companies within the same education book publishing system nationwide; Complete the renovation and upgrading of the Cam Pha Education Bookstore Supermarket.

- Continue to improve the quality of education at Van Lang School, thereby increasing revenue and investment efficiency from this service segment of the Company.

- Establish centers for tutoring and supplementary education for students.

5. Management's Explanation Regarding the Audit Opinion

The audit opinion is an unqualified opinion.

6. Report on Evaluation Related to the Company's Environmental and Social Responsibilities

a. Evaluation related to environmental indicators:

With the goal of saving costs and protecting the environment, the Company has included this indicator in contracts with each unit, thereby limiting electricity and water consumption and negative environmental impacts.

b. Evaluation related to labor issues:

Employees are able to develop their abilities, have many learning opportunities, opportunities for advancement, and increased income.

c. Evaluation related to the company's responsibility to the local community:

The Company always values and participates in activities that connect with the local area and community, considering this both an operational goal and a core responsibility of the Company, contributing to improving the quality of education in the locality, which is the main environment for the Company to operate sustainably.

IV. Assessment of the Board of Directors on the Company's Operations (for joint-stock companies)

1. Assessment of the Board of Directors on the Company's operations, including an assessment related to environmental and social responsibilities:

In 2024, although the market still faced many difficulties due to the slow economic recovery and damage from storm No. 3, the Board of Directors paid close attention and issued many closely directed resolutions to the executive board, so all targets assigned by the General Meeting of Shareholders were exceeded: Revenue, after-tax profit, and dividend payment.

2. Board of Directors' Assessment of the Management Board's Performance:

The Management Board has closely adhered to the policies, effectively implemented the Board of Directors' Resolutions, and managed the business operations to achieve the stated results.

3. Plans and Orientations of the Board of Directors:

- Continue to promote, with adjustments, the contracting policy associated with responsibility and delegating authority to business units. Strengthen inspection efforts.

- Consolidate and develop the retail system through the Company's Supermarkets, combined with distribution channels through Departments of Education & Training and high schools to create a closed loop in the supply of educational products in Quang Ninh province.

- Effectively exploit the Ka Long Hotel, seek to develop the Chinese tourist market, and find sources for products suitable for the Company's business lines from manufacturers and suppliers in China.

- Continue to improve the quality of education and the brand of Van Lang School to affirm its leading position among private schools in Quang Ninh province and as a high-quality school.

- Specific Objectives:

- Revenue: VND 210 billion;

- Profit after tax: VND 11 billion;

- Dividend: 18%
