3. Supervisory Activities of the Board of Directors over the General Director:

Pursuant to the Company's Charter, the Board of Directors (BOD) supervises the General Director and other managerial personnel in the day-to-day operations of the company. On a quarterly basis, the BOD requires the General Director to submit reports on business performance, progress in implementing BOD resolutions, and any arising difficulties or advantages in management. Based on these reports and actual developments, the BOD convenes meetings to review and evaluate management results, issue resolutions to address shortcomings, and implement new tasks according to BOD resolutions.

By adhering to the proper procedures and coordination mechanisms between the BOD and the General Director, executive operations were not hindered, and BOD supervision was consistently and effectively maintained. This ensured that the company operated in accordance with the resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the BOD, in line with corporate governance standards, ethical behavior, and professional conduct of BOD members and the General Director, for the benefit of shareholders.

During the reporting period, the BOD fully fulfilled its supervisory role over the executive management through regular meetings, internal reports, and communication channels. The BOD continuously monitored the fulfillment of business targets, progress of key projects, and compliance with legal regulations and internal policies. All directives from the BOD were promptly acknowledged and implemented by the General Director, contributing to effective, transparent operations aligned with the company's strategic direction.

3. Supervisory Activities of the Audit Committee over the Board of Directors, the General Director, and Shareholders:

During the period, the Audit Committee performed its independent and objective supervisory function over the operations of the Board of Directors (BOD), the General Director, and the rights of shareholders. The Committee held periodic meetings to review financial statements, assess the internal control system and risk management, and provide recommendations for improving corporate governance. Internal audit reports and financial statements were thoroughly reviewed before being submitted to the BOD for approval. Additionally, the Audit Committee monitored compliance with legal regulations and the company's charter, ensuring that shareholders' rights were protected in a transparent and fair manner.

4. Coordination between the Audit Committee and the BOD, the General Director, and Other Managers:

During the period, the Audit Committee maintained close and effective coordination with the Board of Directors, the General Director, and relevant management personnel to ensure that inspection and supervision tasks were carried out thoroughly and promptly. The Committee regularly exchanged information, participated in meetings with the BOD and executive team to stay informed about business operations, risk control, and to address any issues arising during operations. Furthermore, the Committee cooperated with functional departments in evaluating the effectiveness of the internal control system, preparing financial statements, and ensuring legal compliance. This coordinated effort contributed to enhanced transparency, improved governance efficiency, and the protection of shareholders' rights.
