- c. Share premium;
- d. Funds: Capital reserve fund, development investment fund, financial reserve fund;
- e. Undistributed accumulated profits and unhandled accumulated losses;
- f. Other capital owned by the Bank.

2. Capital raised through the forms stipulated in this Charter.

3. Other types of capital as prescribed by law.

CHAPTER V

SHAREHOLDERS, SHARES, AND COLLECTORS

Article 18. Shares and Shareholders

1. The Bank must have a number and structure of shareholders, and the shareholding ratio of shareholders must comply with legal regulations. Foreign organizations and individuals may purchase shares of the Bank in accordance with the laws on banking, securities, the securities market, and other legal regulations.
2. Types of shares and shareholders: The Bank has common shares; those who own common shares are called common shareholders.
3. Shares of the Bank may be purchased with Vietnamese Dong, freely convertible foreign currency, gold, the value of land use rights, and other assets as stipulated in this Charter and according to legal regulations.
4. In the case of capital contribution in the form of land use rights and other assets other than Vietnamese currency, freely convertible foreign currency, or gold, these assets must be necessary to directly serve the Bank's operations and must be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders. The valuation and transfer of land use rights and ownership of these assets shall be carried out in accordance with the provisions of Articles 35 and 36 of the Enterprise Law and other relevant legal provisions.
5. The Board of Directors shall decide the offering price of shares. The offering price of shares shall not be lower than the market price at the time of offering or the book value of the shares at the most recent time, except in the following cases:
 - a. Shares offered for the first time to persons who are not founding shareholders;
 - b. Shares offered to all shareholders in proportion to their existing shareholdings in the Bank;
 - c. Shares offered to brokers or underwriters. In this case, the specific discount amount or discount rate must be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders, unless otherwise stipulated in the Bank's Charter;
 - d. Other cases and the discount rate in those cases are stipulated in the Bank's Charter or resolutions and decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders.
6. Any new common shares planned for issuance will be offered first to existing shareholders in proportion to their existing common shareholding in the Bank. The offering will be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered and the deadline (not less than 20 days) for subscription. If the subscription form is not sent to the Bank within the deadline as stated in the notice, the relevant shareholder will be considered to have forfeited their pre-emptive rights. If the number of shares intended to be issued is not fully subscribed by shareholders and those receiving the pre-emptive rights, the remaining shares intended to be issued will be managed by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may distribute such shares to shareholders of the Bank or other parties under conditions and in a manner that the Board of Directors deems appropriate, provided that such shares are not offered under more favorable terms than those offered to existing shareholders, unless otherwise approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders or the shares are sold through a stock exchange by auction.

7. The Bank may repurchase shares issued by itself in the manner prescribed in this Charter and applicable law. Shares repurchased by the Bank are treasury shares, and the Board of Directors may offer them for sale in manner consistent with the provisions of this Charter, the Securities Law, relevant laws and guiding documents.

8. The Bank may issue other types of securities when approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders and in accordance with the provisions of law.

Article 19. Share Ownership Limits

1. An individual shareholder may not own more than 5% (five percent) of the Bank's charter capital.

2. An institutional shareholder may not own more than 10% (ten percent) of the Bank's charter capital.

3. Shareholders and their related parties may not own more than 15% (fifteen percent) of the Bank's charter capital. 3. Major shareholders of the Bank and their related parties are not allowed to own 5% (five percent) or more of the charter capital of another credit institution.

4. The provisions in Clauses 2 and 3 of this Article do not apply to the following cases:

a. Owning shares in subsidiaries and affiliated companies that are credit institutions as stipulated in Clauses 2 and 3 of Article 111 of the Law on Credit Institutions;

b. Owning state-owned shares in privatized credit institutions;

c. Owning shares by foreign investors as stipulated in Clause 6 of this Article.

5. The shareholding ratios stipulated in Clauses 1 and 2 of this Article include indirectly owned shares. The shareholding ratio stipulated in Clause 3 of this Article includes shares entrusted by shareholders to other organizations or individuals for purchase, and excludes shareholding by related parties that are subsidiaries of that shareholder as stipulated in Point a, Clause 9, Article 4 of the Law on Credit Institutions.

6. Foreign investors may purchase shares of the Bank in accordance with the law.

7. In the case of organizations or individuals holding convertible bonds, after converting the bonds into shares, they must comply with the shareholding limit in this Article.

Article 20. Shares

1. Shares of the Bank must contain the following essential information:

a. Name, business registration number, and head office address of the Bank;

b. Number of shares and type of shares;

c. Par value of each share and total par value of shares recorded on the share certificate;

d. Full name, contact address, nationality, and legal document number of the individual shareholder; name, business registration number or legal document number of the organization, and head office address of the organization shareholder;

e. Signature of the legal representative and signature of the Chairman of the Board of Directors;

f. Registration number in the Bank's shareholder register and date of share issuance.

2. In case of errors in the content and form of shares issued by the Bank, the rights and interests of the shareholder shall not be affected. The Bank's legal representative is responsible for damages caused by such errors.

3. In the event that a share certificate is lost, destroyed, or otherwise damaged, the shareholder will be reissued a share certificate by the Bank upon the shareholder's request. The shareholder's request must include the following:

a. The share certificate has been lost, destroyed, or otherwise damaged; in case of loss, the shareholder must certify that they have made every effort to find it and, if found, will return it to the Bank for destruction;

b. Responsibility for any disputes arising from the reissue of the new share certificate.

4. Each shareholder will be issued a share certificate by the Bank corresponding to the number and type of shares they own.

5. In accordance with the provisions of these Charters, any person whose name is listed in the Shareholder Register relating to any type of share shall be issued a certificate free of charge upon purchase or receipt of transferred shares within 30 (thirty) days (or a longer period as stipulated in the terms of issuance or by the Board of Directors regarding the transfer).

6. In the case of transferring only a number of shares in the stock, the old stock shall be canceled and the Bank shall issue new stock recording the number of transferred shares and the remaining shares.

7. The Bank may manage shares on behalf of shareholders or issue shares upon the request of shareholders. For shares with a nominal value exceeding 100 (one hundred) million Vietnamese Dong, before accepting a request for new shares, the Bank's legal representative may request the shareholder to publish a notice regarding the loss, burning, or destruction of the shares in any other form, and after 15 (fifteen) days from the date of publication of the notice, request the Bank to issue new shares.

8. Bank shares may not be used as collateral for credit facilities at the Bank itself.

9. In the case of shares issued in certificate form, the Bank must issue the shares to shareholders within 30 (thirty) days from the date the shareholder pays the full amount of shares committed to purchase for the Bank's capital increase.

Article 21. Offering and Transfer of Shares

1. Offering shares:

a. A share offering is when a bank increases the number of shares it is authorized to offer and sells those shares during its operations to increase its charter capital. A share offering can be carried out in one of the following forms:

- i. Offering shares to existing shareholders;
- ii. Public offering of shares;
- iii. Private placement of shares.

b. The offering of shares shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the law on securities.

c. The Bank shall register the change in charter capital within 10 (ten) days from the date of completion of the share sale.

2. Shares held by shareholders shall be considered transferred when the information stipulated in Article 24 of these Charters is fully recorded in the Shareholder Register.

3. The time when the rights and obligations of shareholders arise is the time when the shareholder's securities custody account opened at a custodian member has a balance of Bank shares. For uncustodian shares, the time when the rights and obligations of shareholders arise is the time when the shareholder's name and information are recorded in the Bank's Shareholder Register.

4. The Bank's shareholder register and the list of shareholders provided to the Bank by the Securities Depository Center are the sole basis for determining the rights and obligations of shareholders.

5. Unless otherwise stipulated by law, the transfer of shares resulting in becoming a major shareholder must be approved in writing by the State Bank of Vietnam before implementation.

6. The transfer of shares is carried out in accordance with the provisions of the Law on Credit Institutions, the Law on Enterprises, the Law on Securities, and their implementing regulations. The transfer is carried out by contract or transaction on the securities market. In the case of a contract transfer, the form of transfer is established in writing as specifically stipulated by the Board of Directors; the transfer document is signed by the transferor, the transferee, or their legally authorized representatives. In the case of a transaction on the securities market, the procedures for transfer are carried out in accordance with the provisions of the law on securities. Shares are considered transferred when the information specified in point d, clause 1, Article 24 of these Charters is correctly and fully recorded in the Shareholder Register for shares that are not yet deposited or have a deposit balance at a depository member; from that time, the transferee is recognized as a shareholder of the Bank. The transferor remains the owner of the relevant shares until the name of the transferee is registered in the shareholder register. The Bank must register the change of shareholder in the shareholder register at the request of the relevant shareholder within 24 (twenty-four) hours from the time of receiving the request as stipulated in the Bank's Charter.

7. In the event of the death of an individual shareholder, the settlement of the shareholder's rights and responsibilities shall be carried out in accordance with the provisions of the law on inheritance. 7. In the event that a shareholder is an individual who dies without heirs, or the heirs refuse to accept the inheritance, or are disinherited, the shares of that shareholder shall be settled according to the provisions of civil law.

8. The procedure for transferring shares of foreign shareholders shall be carried out in accordance with the provisions of law.

9. Individual shareholders and institutional shareholders whose representatives holding capital contributions in the Bank are members of the Board of Directors, members of the Supervisory Board, or the General Director of the Bank are not allowed to transfer their shares during their tenure in office.

10. During the period of handling the consequences of personal responsibility according to resolutions and decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders or decisions of the State Bank of Vietnam, members of the Board of Directors, members of the Supervisory Board, and the General Director are not allowed to transfer shares, except in one of the following cases:

a. Members of the Board of Directors, members of the Supervisory Board, and the General Director are authorized representatives of shareholders that are organizations being merged, consolidated, divided, separated, dissolved, or declared bankrupt according to the provisions of law;

b. Members of the Board of Directors, members of the Supervisory Board, and the General Director are compelled to transfer shares according to a legally effective judgment or decision of the Court;

c. Members of the Board of Directors, members of the Supervisory Board, and the General Director transfer shares to other investors to implement a recovery plan, a plan for transferring the entire capital contribution, or a mandatory transfer plan that has been approved.

Article 22. Share Repurchase

1. In the event that a shareholder fails to pay the full amount due for the purchase of shares on time, the Board of Directors shall notify and has the right to demand that the shareholder pay the remaining amount along with interest on that amount and any costs incurred by the Bank due to the failure to pay in full.

2. The aforementioned payment notice must clearly state the new payment deadline (at least 07 (seven) days from the date of sending the notice), the payment location, and the notice must clearly state that in case of failure to pay as required, the unpaid shares will be repurchased.

3. The Board of Directors has the right to repurchase shares that have not been paid in full and on time if the requirements in the aforementioned notice are not met.

4. Repurchased shares shall be considered as shares entitled to be offered for sale. The Board of Directors may directly or authorize the sale, redistribution, or settlement of the repossessed shares to the current owners or other parties under conditions and in a manner deemed appropriate by the Board of Directors.

5. Shareholders holding repossessed shares must relinquish their shareholder status with respect to those shares, but must still pay all related amounts plus interest at a rate determined by the Board of Directors from the date of repossession until the date of payment at the time of repossession. The Board of Directors has the full right to enforce payment of the full value of the shares at the time of repossession.

6. The repossession notice shall be sent to the holders of the repossessed shares before the date of repossession. The repossession remains valid even in the event of errors or negligence in sending the notice.

CHAPTER VI

ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

Article 23. Organizational Structure

The organizational structure of the Bank includes:

1. General Meeting of Shareholders;
2. Board of Directors;
3. Supervisory Board;
4. General Director.

SECTION I

SHAREHOLDERS AND SHAREHOLDER MEETING

Article 24. Shareholder Register

1. The Bank must establish and maintain a Shareholder Register from the date of issuance of its Establishment and Operation License. The Shareholder Register may be in written form, an electronic data set, or both. The Shareholder Register must contain the following main contents:

- a. Name and head office address of the Bank;
- b. Total number of shares authorized for sale, types of shares authorized for sale, and the number of shares authorized for sale of each type;
- c. The total number of shares sold of each type and the value of contributed capital;
- d. Full name, contact address, nationality, and legal document number of individual shareholders; name, business registration number or legal document number of organizations, and head office address of organizations;
- e. The shareholder register must include the number of shares of each type held by each shareholder, the total number of shares held by each shareholder, and the share registration date.

2. The shareholder register must be kept at the Bank's head office or other organizations authorized to maintain shareholder registers. Shareholders have the right to check, search, extract, and copy the names and contact addresses of Bank shareholders in the shareholder register.

3. If a shareholder changes their contact address, they must promptly notify the Bank to update the shareholder register. The Bank is not responsible for the inability to contact a shareholder due to failure to notify them of the change in contact address.
4. The Bank will promptly update changes to shareholders in the shareholder register upon the request of the relevant shareholder as stipulated in the Articles of Association.

Article 25. Rights of Shareholders

1. Shareholders are the owners of the Bank and have corresponding rights and obligations according to the number and type of shares they own.
2. Shareholders owning common shares have the following rights:
 - a. To attend and speak at General Meetings of Shareholders and exercise their voting rights directly or through authorized representatives. Each common share has one voting right;
 - b. To receive dividends at the rate stipulated in the resolutions and decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - c. To have priority in purchasing newly offered shares in proportion to the percentage of common shares each shareholder owns in the Bank; to transfer the priority right to purchase shares to others;
 - d. To transfer shares and share purchase rights to other shareholders of the Bank or other organizations or individuals as stipulated in this Charter, in accordance with the provisions of the Law on Credit Institutions, the Law on Enterprises, the Law on Securities and other relevant laws;
 - e. To receive information on the Bank's operations as stipulated in this Charter; to view, search and extract information on names and contact addresses in the List of Shareholders with Voting Rights and request correction of inaccurate information; to view, search, extract or copy the Bank's Charter, the minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the resolutions and decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - f. To authorize another person in writing to exercise their rights and obligations (including authorizing another person in writing to directly attend the General Meeting of Shareholders) in accordance with these Charters; the authorized person may not re-authorize and may not run for election in their own capacity;
 - g. When the Bank is dissolved or goes bankrupt, to receive a portion of the remaining assets corresponding to the number of shares contributed to the Bank in accordance with the law on dissolution and bankruptcy;
 - h. To nominate and propose candidates for the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board in accordance with the Bank's Charters or in accordance with the law if the Charters do not specify. The list of candidates must be submitted to the Board of Directors within the time limit stipulated by the Board of Directors;

i. The right to equal treatment. Each share of the same class gives the shareholder equal rights, obligations, and benefits. In the case of preferred shares, the rights and obligations associated with these preferred shares shall be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders and fully disclosed to shareholders;

j. The right to full access to periodic and extraordinary information published by the Bank in accordance with the law;

k. Shareholders have the right to protect their legitimate interests. In the event that a Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders violates the law or the Bank's Charter, or a decision of the Board of Directors is contrary to the law or the Bank's Charter and causes damage to the Bank, shareholders have the right to request the annulment or suspension of that Resolution or decision in accordance with the Law on Enterprises;

l. Other rights as prescribed by law and this Charter.

3. Shareholders or groups of shareholders owning 05% (five percent) or more of the total number of common shares, in addition to the rights stipulated in Clause 2 of this Article, also have the following rights:

a. Review, search, and extract minutes and resolutions, decisions of the Board of Directors, interim and annual financial reports, reports of the Supervisory Board, contracts, transactions requiring approval from the Board of Directors, and other documents, except for documents related to the Bank's trade secrets and business secrets.

b. Request the Supervisory Board to examine specific issues related to the management and operation of the Bank when deemed necessary. The request must be in writing and must include the following information: Full name, contact address, nationality, and legal document number of individual shareholders; name, business registration number or legal document number of organizations, and head office address of organizations; number of shares and registration date of each shareholder, total number of shares of the entire group of shareholders, and ownership percentage in the total number of shares of the Bank; the issue to be examined, and the purpose of the examination.

c. Nomination of candidates for the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board. The nomination process is as follows:

i. Ordinary shareholders forming a group to nominate candidates for the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board must notify the attending shareholders of the group meeting before the opening of the General Meeting of Shareholders;

ii. Based on the number of members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board, the shareholder or group of shareholders specified in this clause has the right to nominate one or more individuals as decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders as candidates for the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board. If the number of candidates nominated by the shareholder or group of shareholders is less than the number of candidates they are entitled to nominate according to the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the remaining candidates shall be nominated by the Board of Directors, the Supervisory Board, and other shareholders.

d. Other rights as prescribed by law and this Charter.

Article 26. Obligations of Shareholders

1. Shareholders have the following obligations:

a. a. Pay the full amount of shares committed to purchase within the timeframe stipulated by the Bank and be legally responsible for the legality of the capital contributed, purchased, or transferred in the Bank; do not use capital provided by credit institutions, branches of foreign banks, or capital from corporate bond issuance to purchase or transfer shares of the Bank; do not contribute capital or purchase shares of the Bank under the name of another individual or legal entity in any form, except in cases of entrustment as prescribed by law.

b. Comply with the Bank's Charter and internal regulations on corporate governance.

c. Abide by the resolutions and decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Board of Directors.

d. Be responsible for the Bank's debts and other financial obligations to the extent of the contributed capital.

e. Do not withdraw contributed capital from the Bank in any form that would reduce the Bank's charter capital, except in cases where the Bank or another party repurchases the shares. In the event that a shareholder withdraws part or all of their contributed capital in violation of this clause, that shareholder and any related parties with an interest in the Bank shall be jointly and severally liable for the Bank's debts and other financial obligations to the extent of the value of the withdrawn shares and any resulting damages.

f. Ordinary shareholders shall be held personally liable when acting on behalf of the Bank in any form to perform any of the following acts:

i. Violating the law;

ii. Conducting business and other transactions for personal gain or to serve the interests of other organizations or individuals;

iii. Paying debts before they are due in anticipation of potential financial risks to the Bank.

g. Major shareholders shall not abuse their advantage to influence the rights and interests of the Bank and other shareholders as stipulated by law and the Bank's Charter.

h. Major shareholders have the obligation to disclose information as required by law.

i. Shareholders who receive investment mandates from other organizations or individuals must provide the Bank with information about the true owners of the shares they are entrusting to the Bank. The Bank has the right to suspend the shareholder rights of shareholders who receive investment mandates if they fail to provide information or provide incomplete or inaccurate information about the true owners of the shares.

j. Maintain the confidentiality of information provided by the Bank in accordance with the Charter and laws; only use the provided information to exercise and protect their legitimate rights and interests; strictly prohibit the dissemination, copying, or sending of information provided by the Bank to other organizations or individuals.

k. Fulfill other obligations as prescribed by law and this Charter.

2. Shareholders owning 1% (one percent) or more of the Bank's charter capital must provide the Bank with the following information:

a. Full name; personal identification number; nationality, passport number, date of issue, and place of issue of foreign shareholders; business registration certificate number or equivalent legal document of organizational shareholders; date of issue and place of issue of this document;

b. Information about related persons as stipulated in points c and d of Clause 1, Article 44 of this Charter;

c. The number and percentage of shares they own in the Bank;

d. The number and percentage of shares owned by their related parties in the Bank.

The information in this clause must be provided to the Bank in writing within 07 (seven) working days from the date of occurrence or change of information. For the information in points c and d of this clause, shareholders are only required to provide information to the Bank when there is a change in their shareholding percentage, or the shareholding percentage of themselves and their related parties, of 01% (one percent) or more of the Bank's charter capital compared to the previous provision.

The Bank must post and maintain the information stipulated in this clause at its head office and submit a written report to the State Bank of Vietnam within 07 (seven) working days from the date the Bank receives the provided information. Annually, the Bank shall disclose the information stipulated in points a, c, and d of this clause to the General Meeting of Shareholders.

The Bank must publicly disclose information about the full names of individuals and organizations that are shareholders owning 1% (one percent) or more of the Bank's charter capital, and the information specified in points c and d of this clause, on the Bank's website within 7 (seven) working days from the date the Bank receives the information.

Shareholders must ensure that the information provided is truthful, accurate, complete, and timely, and are responsible for the information provided.

Article 27. General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders, comprising all shareholders with voting rights, is the highest authority of the Bank. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall hold its annual meeting within 4 (four) months from the end of the financial year. The Board of Directors has the right to decide to extend the annual General Meeting of Shareholders if necessary, but not exceeding 6 months from the end of the financial year. 1. The Annual General Meeting of Shareholders shall not be held in the form of obtaining shareholder opinions in writing. In addition to the annual meeting, the General Meeting of Shareholders may hold extraordinary meetings.

2. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall be convened by the Board of Directors, with the specific location decided by the Board of Directors based on the actual situation. The location of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be determined by where the chairperson attends the meeting and must be within the territory of Vietnam. The Annual General Meeting of Shareholders shall decide on matters within its duties and powers as stipulated by law and this Charter.

Article 28. Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The Board of Directors must convene an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders in the following cases:

- a. The Board of Directors deems it necessary for the benefit of the Bank;
- b. When the remaining number of Board of Directors members is less than the minimum number stipulated in this Charter;
- c. When the remaining number of Supervisory Board members is less than the minimum number stipulated in this Charter;
- d. At the request of a shareholder or group of shareholders owning more than 10% (ten percent) of the common shares when the cases specified in Clause 2 of this Article occur;
- e. At the request of the Supervisory Board;
- f. To decide on matters as requested by the State Bank of Vietnam when an event occurs that affects the safety of the Bank's operations;
- g. Other cases as stipulated in this Charter and the provisions of law.

2. Shareholders or groups of shareholders specified in point d, Clause 1 of this Article have the right to request the convening of a General Meeting of Shareholders in the following cases:

- a. The Board of Directors seriously violates the rights of shareholders, the obligations of managers, or makes decisions exceeding the authority granted;
- b. Other cases as stipulated in this Charter.

The request to convene a General Meeting of Shareholders as stipulated in this clause must be made in writing and must include the following information: Full name, contact address, nationality, and legal document number of the individual shareholder; name, business registration number or legal document number of the organization, and head office address of the organization shareholder; the number of shares and the registration date of each shareholder, the total number of shares of the entire group of shareholders, and the ownership percentage in the total shares of the Bank; the basis and reason for requesting the convening of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The request must be accompanied by documents and evidence regarding violations by the Board of Directors, the extent of the violations, or decisions exceeding their authority. Shareholders or groups of shareholders are fully responsible before the law for the accuracy and truthfulness of the documents and evidence provided to the competent authority when requesting the convening of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

3. The Board of Directors must convene a meeting of shareholders within 30 (thirty) days from the date of receiving one of the requests or the date of occurrence of one of the events mentioned in Clause 1 of this Article.

4. If the Board of Directors fails to convene a General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed, the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the members of the Board of Directors shall be liable before the law and shall compensate for any damages incurred by the Bank. Within the next 30 (thirty) days, the Supervisory Board shall replace the Board of Directors in convening the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed by law.

5. If the Supervisory Board fails to convene a General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed, the Supervisory Board shall be liable before the law and shall compensate for any damages incurred by the Bank; and shareholders or groups of shareholders as stipulated in Clause 3, Article 25 of this Charter have the right to replace the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board in convening the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with the law. In this case, the shareholder or group of shareholders convening the General Meeting of Shareholders may request the business registration authority to supervise the convening and conduct of the meeting if deemed necessary.

6. All necessary expenses for convening and conducting a meeting of shareholders will be paid by the Bank. For the sake of clarity, these expenses will not include expenses incurred by shareholders to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders, such as accommodation, travel, and other related expenses.

Article 29. Powers and duties of the General Meeting of Shareholders

5. Bank managers must promptly provide information from the shareholder register, correct or supplement inaccurate information as requested by shareholders; and are responsible for compensating damages arising from the failure to provide or the untimely or inaccurate provision of information from the shareholder register as requested.

Article 31. Authorization to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Shareholders who are individuals, or authorized representatives of shareholders who are organizations, may directly or authorize one or more other individuals or organizations in writing to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders. 1. An authorized representative attending the General Meeting of Shareholders may not re-authorize another person to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders and may not run for election in their personal capacity. If more than one authorized representative is appointed, the number of shares and votes of each representative must be specifically determined.

2. The authorization for a representative to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders must be in writing. The authorization document must be prepared in accordance with the provisions of civil law and must clearly state the name of the authorizing shareholder, the name of the authorized representative, the number of shares authorized, the content, scope of authorization, and the duration of authorization. If the authorizing shareholder is an organization, the authorization document must be signed by the authorized representative, the legal representative of the organization or individual shareholder, and the legal representative of the organization authorized to attend the meeting. In other cases, the authorization document must be signed by the legal representative of the shareholder and the authorized representative. Authorized representatives attending the General Shareholders' Meeting must submit the authorization document when registering to attend the meeting before entering the meeting room.

3. The voting ballot of an authorized representative attending the meeting within the scope of their authorization remains valid in the following cases:

- a. The authorizing person has died, is restricted in civil capacity, or has lost civil capacity;
- b. The authorizing person has revoked the authorization;
- c. The authorizing person has revoked the authority of the person performing the authorization.

This clause shall not apply if the Bank receives notification of one of the above events 24 (twenty-four) hours before the opening of the General Meeting of Shareholders or before the meeting is reconvened.

Article 32. Convening the General Meeting of Shareholders, meeting agenda and notification

1. The person convening the General Meeting of Shareholders must perform the following tasks:

- a. 1. Prepare a list of shareholders entitled to attend and vote as stipulated in Article 30 of these Charters, prepare the agenda, content of the meeting, documents in accordance with the law and the Bank's regulations, and draft resolutions for each item on the agenda;
- b. Determine the time and place of the General Meeting;
- c. Send notices inviting shareholders to the General Meeting to all shareholders on the list of shareholders entitled to attend the General Meeting. The notices and documents must be sent no later than 21 (twenty-one) days before the opening date of the General Meeting. The notices must include the name, address, head office, business registration number; the name and contact address of the shareholder, the time and place of the meeting, and other requirements for attendees.

2. The notices inviting shareholders to the General Meeting must be accompanied by the meeting agenda and relevant documents and information on the issues to be discussed and voted on at the General Meeting. 3. Notices of meetings and documents for the General Meeting of Shareholders may be sent to shareholders by hand delivery or by registered mail to the registered address of the shareholder, or to an address provided by the shareholder. In the case of Bank employees, the notice may be sent to each individual in sealed envelopes to be kept at their workplace.

3. Notices of meetings for the General Meeting of Shareholders will be posted on the Bank's website simultaneously with the notices sent to shareholders. The agenda for the General Meeting of Shareholders and documents related to the issues to be voted on at the meeting will be sent to shareholders and/or posted on the Bank's website. In cases where the agenda for the General Meeting of Shareholders and related documents are not included with the meeting invitation, the meeting invitation must clearly state the website address and how to download the documents for shareholders to access.

4. Shareholders or groups of shareholders as stipulated in Clause 3, Article 25 of these Charters have the right to propose matters to be included in the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders. Proposals must be in writing and sent to the Bank no later than 03 (three) working days before the opening date. The proposal must clearly state the shareholder's name, the number of each type of share held by the shareholder, the shareholder's registration number and date at the Bank, and the proposed issue to be included in the agenda.

The person convening the General Meeting of Shareholders must approve and include the proposal in the proposed agenda and content of the meeting, except as stipulated in Clause 5 of this Article; the proposal will be officially added to the agenda and content of the meeting if approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

5. If the person convening the General Meeting of Shareholders refuses a proposal, they must respond in writing and state the reasons no later than 2 (two) working days before the opening date of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The person convening the General Meeting of Shareholders only has the right to refuse a proposal as stipulated in Clause 4 of this Article in the following cases:

- a. The proposal is submitted incorrectly according to Clause 4 of this Article;
- b. The issue in the proposal does not fall within the decision-making authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
- c. Issues that are inconsistent with the provisions of this Charter and inconsistent with the provisions of the law.

6. Only the General Meeting of Shareholders has the right to change the meeting agenda attached to the notice convening the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 33. Conditions, procedures for conducting meetings, voting at the meeting, and minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. A General Meeting of Shareholders shall be conducted when the number of shareholders attending represents at least 65% (sixty-five percent) of the voting shares. If the required percentage of voting shares is not present within 60 (sixty) minutes from the scheduled meeting time, a second meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be convened within 30 (thirty) days from the date the first meeting was scheduled to commence. The second meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be conducted when the number of shareholders attending represents at least 51% (fifty-one percent) of the voting shares. If the second General Meeting of Shareholders does not meet the required quorum of shareholders with voting rights present within 60 (sixty) minutes from the scheduled meeting time, then the third General Meeting of Shareholders shall be convened within 20 (twenty) days from the scheduled opening date of the second meeting. The third General Meeting of Shareholders shall proceed regardless of the number of shareholders present, the quorum of shareholders with voting rights, and shall have the right to decide on all matters that the first General Meeting of Shareholders could have validly decided.

2. Before the opening of the meeting, the Bank must carry out the shareholder registration procedure and must continue registration until all shareholders entitled to attend the meeting have registered in the following order:

a. When registering shareholders, the Bank issues each shareholder or authorized representative a voting card, which includes the registration number, the shareholder's full name, the authorized representative's full name, and the number of votes cast. Voting is conducted by vote in favor, against, or abstention. At the General Meeting, the cards for favoring the resolution are collected first, followed by those for opposing the resolution. Finally, the total number of votes in favor or against is counted to make a decision.

b. Shareholders or authorized representatives who arrive after the meeting has commenced have the right to register immediately and subsequently participate in and vote at the General Meeting. However, the chairperson is not obligated to stop the meeting to allow these shareholders to register, and the validity of any voting already conducted will not be affected.

3. The election of the chairman, secretary, and vote counting committee for the General Meeting of Shareholders is regulated as follows:

a. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall preside over or authorize another member of the Board of Directors to preside over the General Meeting of Shareholders convened by the Board of Directors. In the event that the Chairman is absent or temporarily incapacitated, the remaining members of the Board of Directors shall elect one of them to preside over the meeting by majority vote. If no chairman can be elected, the Head of the Supervisory Board shall conduct the General Meeting of Shareholders to elect a chairman from among those present, and the person with the highest number of votes shall preside over the meeting;

b. Except as stipulated in point a of this clause, the person who signed the summons to the General Meeting of Shareholders shall preside over the General Meeting of Shareholders to elect a chairman, and the person with the highest number of votes shall preside over the meeting;

c. The chairman shall appoint one or more secretaries to prepare the minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders;

d. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect the vote counting committee upon the proposal of the meeting chairman.

4. The agenda and content of the meeting must be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders at the opening session. The agenda must specify the time allocated for each item on the agenda.

5. The person convening the meeting or the chairman of the General Meeting of Shareholders has the right to:

a. Require all attendees to undergo security checks or other lawful and reasonable security measures;

b. Request the competent authority to maintain order at the meeting; expel those who do not comply with the chairman's authority, intentionally disrupt order, hinder the normal progress of the meeting, or fail to comply with security checks from the General Meeting of Shareholders.

6. The chairperson has the right to postpone a General Meeting of Shareholders with a maximum registered attendance of no more than 3 (three) working days from the date the meeting was scheduled to commence, and may only postpone or change the meeting location in the following cases:

a. The meeting location does not have enough convenient seating for all attendees;

b. The communication facilities at the meeting location do not ensure that shareholders can participate, discuss, and vote;

c. An attendee engages in obstructive or disruptive behavior that threatens to prevent the meeting from being conducted fairly and legally.

7. If the chairperson postpones or suspends the General Meeting of Shareholders contrary to the provisions of Clause 6 of this Article, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect another person from among the attendees to replace the chairperson in conducting the meeting until its conclusion, and all resolutions passed at that meeting shall be effective and enforceable.

8. The General Meeting of Shareholders adopts decisions within its authority by voting at the meeting. The General Meeting of Shareholders discusses and votes on each item on the agenda. Issues stipulated in points a, d, f, and s of Clause 1, Article 29 of these Charters must be adopted by voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders. A decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders is adopted when:

- a. Except as stipulated in point b of this Clause, a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders is adopted at the meeting when it is approved by shareholders representing more than 50% (fifty percent) of the total voting rights of all shareholders present at the meeting;
 - b. For decisions to approve the plan to change the charter capital; to approve the plan to offer shares, including the type of shares and the number of new shares to be offered; Decisions on investing in, buying, or selling fixed assets of the Bank where the investment level, expected purchase price, or original cost in the case of selling fixed assets has a value of 20% (twenty percent) or more of the Bank's charter capital as recorded in the most recent audited financial statement; decisions on the division, separation, merger, acquisition, conversion of legal form, dissolution, or request for bankruptcy proceedings of the Bank must be approved by shareholders representing more than 65% (sixty-five percent) of the total voting shares of all shareholders present at the meeting.
 - c. Voting for members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board must be conducted using cumulative voting, whereby each shareholder has a total number of votes corresponding to the total number of shares owned multiplied by the number of members to be elected to the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board. Shareholders have the right to allocate all or part of their total votes to one or more candidates. The elected members of the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board are determined by the number of votes received, from highest to lowest, starting with the candidate with the highest number of votes until the required number of members is reached. In the event that two or more candidates receive the same number of votes for the last member of the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board, a re-election will be held among the candidates with the equal number of votes, or a selection will be made according to the criteria stipulated in the election regulations.
 - d. Resolutions and decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders take effect from the date of their adoption or from the effective date stated in the resolution or decision.
 - e. Resolutions and decisions adopted at the General Meeting of Shareholders with shareholders attending in person and by proxy representing 100% (one hundred percent) of the total voting shares are legal and effective even if the procedures for convening the meeting and adopting the resolution or decision are not carried out in accordance with the Bank's Charter and legal regulations.
9. The General Meeting of Shareholders must be recorded in minutes and may be audio-recorded or recorded and stored in other electronic forms. The minutes must be prepared in Vietnamese; the addition of a foreign language version is also legally valid. In case of discrepancies between the Vietnamese and foreign language versions of the minutes, the Vietnamese version shall prevail. The minutes shall include the following main contents:

- a. Name, address of the head office, enterprise code;
 - b. Time and place of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - c. Agenda and content of the meeting;
 - d. Full names of the chairperson and secretary;
 - e. Summary of the meeting proceedings and opinions expressed at the General Meeting of Shareholders on each item on the agenda;
 - f. Number of shareholders and total number of votes cast by shareholders attending the meeting, appendix listing registered shareholders, shareholder representatives attending the meeting with their respective shareholdings and votes;
 - g. Total number of votes cast for each voting item, specifying the voting method, total number of valid, invalid, affirmative, disapproving, and abstention votes; corresponding percentage of the total number of votes cast by shareholders attending the meeting;
 - h. Issues discussed and decisions approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders, the corresponding percentage of votes in favor, and outstanding issues;
 - i. Names and signatures of the chairperson and secretary. In the event that the chairperson or secretary refuses to sign the meeting minutes, these minutes shall be valid if signed by all other members of the Board of Directors present at the meeting and contain all the content as stipulated in this clause. The meeting minutes shall clearly state the refusal of the chairperson or secretary to sign the minutes.
10. The minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders must be completed and approved before the end of the meeting and must be sent to all shareholders within 15 (fifteen) days from the end of the meeting; sending the vote counting minutes may be replaced by posting them on the Bank's website. The minutes will serve as evidence of the work performed at the General Meeting of Shareholders.
11. Resolutions, minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders, appendices listing registered shareholders with their signatures, proxies, all documents attached to the minutes (if any), and related documents accompanying the meeting invitation notice must be kept at the Bank's head office. Within 15 (fifteen) days from the date of the conclusion of the General Meeting of Shareholders or from the date of the conclusion of the vote counting in the case of written consultation, the Bank must send to the State Bank of Vietnam all resolutions and decisions approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 34. Adoption of Shareholders' General Meeting Decisions by Written Opinion

1. Except for matters stipulated in points a, d, f, and s of Clause 1, Article 29 of this Charter, which must be adopted by voting at the Shareholders' General Meeting, decisions of the Shareholders' General Meeting may be adopted by written opinion provided that they receive the written consent of shareholders representing more than 50% (fifty percent) of the Bank's voting shares.

2. To ensure that decisions are unanimously adopted by shareholders by written opinion, the Board of Directors is responsible for:
- a. Deciding on the issues to be submitted for shareholder consultation, the method and content of the voting in accordance with this Charter and the law;
 - b. Prepare opinion ballots and related documents concerning the issue requiring a vote, specifying the date by which these documents must be returned ("Return Date"), along with a written statement of the shareholders' voting opinions to the Bank, and send them to all shareholders entitled to vote no later than 10 (ten) days before the Return Date. The list of shareholders to whom opinion ballots are sent shall be compiled in accordance with Clauses 1 and 2 of Article 30 of these Charters. The requirements and methods for sending opinion ballots and accompanying documents shall comply with Article 32 of these Charters. The opinion ballot must contain the main contents as prescribed by law;
 - c. Summarize the voting opinions to determine the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders, and within 15 (fifteen) days from the Return Date, the Board of Directors shall send a written notification of the voting results and the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders to the Provincial/City Branch of the State Bank of Vietnam where the Bank is headquartered.
3. Shareholders may submit their completed opinion ballots to the Bank in one of the following ways:
- a. By mail. Completed opinion ballots must be signed by the individual shareholder, the authorized representative, or the legal representative of the corporate shareholder. Opinion ballots sent to the Bank must be enclosed in a sealed envelope, and no one is allowed to open them before the vote count;
 - b. By fax or email. Opinion ballots sent to the Bank via fax or email must be kept confidential until the vote count.
- Opinion ballots sent to the Bank after the deadline specified in the ballot content, or that have been opened in the case of mail or disclosed in the case of fax or email, are invalid. Unsubmitted ballots will be considered as not participating in the vote.
- c. In the event that a shareholder simultaneously submits the Opinion Poll Form by mail and by fax/email, if there is a difference between the voting results on these forms, the result on the paper Opinion Poll Form submitted by mail will take precedence.
4. The Board of Directors shall organize the vote counting and prepare a vote counting report in the presence of the Supervisory Board or a shareholder who does not hold a management position in the Bank.
5. The vote counting report must include the following main contents:
- a. Name, head office address, and business registration number;
 - b. Purpose and issues requiring opinion gathering for the resolution or decision;

- c. Number of shareholders and total number of votes cast, distinguishing between valid and invalid votes, method of sending ballots, and an appendix listing participating shareholders;
- d. Total number of votes in favor, against, and abstentions for each issue;
- e. Decisions passed and the corresponding voting percentages;
- f. Full name and signature of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the vote counting supervisor, and the vote counter.

The members of the Board of Directors, the vote counter, and the vote counting supervisor shall be jointly responsible for the honesty and accuracy of the vote counting minutes; and jointly responsible for any damages arising from decisions passed due to dishonest or inaccurate vote counting.

6. The vote counting results minutes and resolutions/decisions must be sent to shareholders within 15 (fifteen) days from the date of completion of vote counting, or may be replaced by posting them on the Bank's website.

7. The completed ballots, vote counting minutes, the full text of the passed resolutions, and related documents attached to the ballots must all be kept at the Bank's head office.

8. Resolutions and decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders adopted through written consultation have the same value as resolutions and decisions adopted directly by the General Meeting of Shareholders through voting at the meeting. Resolutions and decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders adopted by 100% of the total voting shares are legal and effective even if the procedures for obtaining written opinions and adopting the resolution or decision were not carried out in accordance with the law and the provisions of this Charter.

Article 35. Annulment of Shareholders' Meeting Decisions

Within 90 (ninety) days from the date of receipt of the Resolution or minutes of the Shareholders' Meeting or the minutes of the vote count results of the Shareholders' Meeting, a shareholder or group of shareholders as stipulated in Clause 3, Article 25 of this Charter has the right to request the Court or Arbitration to review and annul the decision of the Shareholders' Meeting in the following cases:

- 1. The procedures for convening the meeting or obtaining shareholder opinions in writing and issuing decisions of the Shareholders' Meeting seriously violate the provisions of current law and this Charter, except as stipulated in point e, Clause 8, Article 33 and Clause 8, Article 34 of this Charter.
- 2. The content of the decision violates the provisions of law or this Charter.

Article 45. Liability for Damages and Compensation

1. Members of the Board of Directors, members of the Supervisory Board, the General Director, and other Executives who fail to perform their duties honestly and diligently, or who fail to fulfill their duties with conscientiousness and professional competence, shall be liable for damages caused by their breach of duty. The liability for damages and compensation of members of the Board of Directors, members of the Supervisory Board, the General Director, and other Executives shall be stipulated in the Bank's internal regulations on corporate governance.

2. The Bank will reimburse any incurred costs (including attorney fees), judgment fees, fines, and payments arising from or deemed reasonable in the settlement of these cases within the framework of the law for individuals who have been, are, or may become involved in complaints, lawsuits, or prosecutions (including civil and administrative cases that are not litigation initiated by the Bank) if they perform their duties as members of the Board of Directors, members of the Supervisory Board, General Director, and other Executives, officers, or employees of the Bank in which they are required to participate or represent the Bank as authorized by the Bank, provided that these individuals have acted in accordance with the law, this Charter, and the Bank's regulations honestly, carefully, diligently, and to the best of their professional ability for the benefit of or against the benefit of the Bank. The bank may purchase and maintain insurance for these individuals to avoid the aforementioned compensation liabilities.

SECTION IV

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 46. Composition and Term

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect members of the Board of Directors by cumulative voting.
2. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall dismiss or remove members of the Board of Directors with a majority vote of more than 50% (fifty percent) of the total votes of all shareholders present at the meeting. The Board of Directors shall elect, dismiss, or remove the Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the Board of Directors.
3. The Board of Directors shall consist of at least 05 (five) members and at most 11 (eleven) members, including at least 02 (two) independent members. The number of members for each term shall be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

The Board of Directors must have at least 2/3 (two-thirds) of its total members being independent members and members who are not executives of the Bank.

Individuals and their related persons, or representatives of the capital contribution of an institutional shareholder and their related persons, may participate in the Board of Directors, but not more than 02 (two) members of the Bank's Board of Directors, except in the case of representatives of the State's capital contribution or the compulsory transferee.

4. The Board of Directors has a term of 5 (five) years. The term of office for each member of the Board of Directors is 5 years and they may be re-elected for an unlimited number of terms.

The Board of Directors whose term has just ended shall continue to operate until a new Board of Directors is elected and takes over. In the event that a member is elected to fill in or replace a member who has been dismissed or removed from office within the term of office, the term of office of that member shall be the remaining term of the Board of Directors.

5. The nomination, candidacy, election, dismissal, removal, and resignation of the Chairman of the Board of Directors and other members of the Board of Directors must be carried out in accordance with current laws, this Charter, and the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance at the Bank. The procedures, documentation, and notification of the election, appointment, dismissal, and removal of the Chairman and other members of the Board of Directors shall be carried out in accordance with the regulations of the State Bank of Vietnam. The results of the election, appointment, dismissal, and removal of the Chairman of the Board of Directors and other members of the Board of Directors of the Bank must be notified to the State Bank of Vietnam as prescribed.

6. The Chairman of the Board of Directors must reside in Vietnam during his/her term of office.

7. In the case of foreign shareholders (including Vietnamese citizens residing abroad) participating in the Board of Directors, the following additional conditions must be met:

- a. The proportion of members participating in the Board of Directors must correspond to the proportion of capital contributed by all foreign shareholders in the Bank;

Article 49. Remuneration, Bonuses, and Other Benefits of Members of the Board of Directors

1. The Bank has the right to pay remuneration and bonuses to members of the Board of Directors based on business results and efficiency.
2. Members of the Board of Directors are entitled to work-related remuneration and bonuses. 2. Remuneration is calculated based on the number of working days required to complete the tasks of a Board member and the daily rate. The Board of Directors determines the remuneration for each member by mutual agreement. The total remuneration and bonuses of the Board of Directors are decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders at the annual meeting.
3. The remuneration of each Board member is included in the Bank's business expenses in accordance with the law on corporate income tax, is presented as a separate item in the Bank's annual financial statements, and must be reported to the General Meeting of Shareholders at the annual meeting.

4. Board members holding executive positions or Board members working in subcommittees of the Board of Directors or performing other tasks outside the normal scope of a Board member's duties may receive additional remuneration in the form of a lump sum payment, salary, commission, percentage of profits, or other forms as decided by the Board of Directors.

5. Members of the Board of Directors are entitled to reimbursement for all travel, accommodation, meals, and other reasonable expenses incurred in performing their duties as members of the Board of Directors, including expenses incurred in attending meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Board of Directors, or subcommittees of the Board of Directors.

6. Members of the Board of Directors may have liability insurance purchased by the Bank after approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders. This insurance does not cover the liability of Board members related to violations of the law and the Articles of Association.

Article 50. Replacement of Board Members

1. Within no more than 15 (fifteen) days from the date the Chairman of the Board of Directors automatically loses his/her status as a member of the Board of Directors, the members of the Board of Directors shall be responsible for organizing a meeting of the Board of Directors to elect a member of the Board of Directors (meeting the qualifications and conditions as prescribed by current regulations) as Chairman of the Board of Directors.

2. If the Chairman of the Board of Directors wishes to resign, he/she must submit a letter to the Board of Directors. Within 60 (sixty) days from the date of receiving the letter, the Board of Directors must hold a meeting to consider and decide on the matter and carry out the procedures for dismissal, removal, and election of the Chairman of the Board of Directors in accordance with current regulations.

3. If a member of the Board of Directors wishes to resign, he/she must submit a letter or document to the Board of Directors for submission to the General Meeting of Shareholders for decision.

4. If the number of Board of Directors members is less than the minimum number of Board of Directors members stipulated in this Charter, then within 90 (ninety) days from the date the minimum number of Board of Directors members is not met, the Bank must elect additional members to ensure the minimum number is met, except as stipulated in Clause 5, Article 166 of the Law on Credit Institutions.

5. In other cases, the next meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders will elect new Board of Directors members to replace dismissed or removed members, or to fill any vacancies.

6. After the first General Meeting of Shareholders, those elected to the positions of Chairman, Vice Chairman, and members of the Board of Directors are legally responsible for the implementation and completion of the Bank's establishment.

7. Those elected to the positions of Chairman, Vice Chairman, and members of the Board of Directors, upon election, are responsible for immediately assuming and performing the duties of their elected positions. The Chairman, Vice Chairman, and members of the Board of Directors who are dismissed or removed from office are responsible for handing over their duties to the newly elected Chairman, Vice Chairman, and members of the Board of Directors for resolution and continued handling; they remain personally responsible for their decisions during their tenure in those positions.

Article 51. Meetings of the Board of Directors

1. In the case where the Board of Directors elects a Chairman, the first meeting of the Board of Directors' term to elect the Chairman and make other decisions within its authority must be held within 07 (seven) working days from the date of the conclusion of the election of the Board of Directors for that term. This meeting shall be convened by the member with the highest number of votes. 1. In the event that more than one member receives the highest and equal number of votes, the members who voted by majority will have one of them convene a meeting of the Board of Directors.

2. The Board of Directors shall meet at least once every quarter and may hold extraordinary meetings. The Chairman of the Board of Directors must convene regular or extraordinary meetings of the Board of Directors. The procedures for convening meetings, setting the agenda, and the time and place of meetings are specified in detail in the Bank's internal regulations on corporate governance.

3. Meeting location: Board of Directors meetings shall be held at the Bank's registered address or other locations designated by the Board of Directors.

4. Required attendance: The first Board of Directors meeting can only be held when at least 3/4 (three-quarters) of the Board members are present in person or through their representatives (authorized persons).

For subsequent Board of Directors meetings, the procedures, formalities, and attendance ratios shall be based on the regulations in the Bank's internal corporate governance rules.

5. Voting principles:

a. Each Board member attending the Board meeting shall have one vote.

b. A Board decision shall be adopted if approved by a majority of the Board members entitled to vote present at the meeting. In case of a tie, the final decision shall rest with the side whose opinion is supported by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or the Board member authorized by the Chairman to preside over the meeting (in the absence of the Chairman of the Board of Directors).

c. Matters concerning voting, non-voting, conflicts of interest, declarations of rights, etc., are specified in detail in the Bank's internal regulations on corporate governance.

6. Minutes: Minutes of Board of Directors meetings must be recorded. Minutes of Board of Directors meetings shall be prepared in Vietnamese and may also be prepared in a foreign language with equal legal validity. In case of discrepancies in content between the Vietnamese and foreign language minutes, the Vietnamese minutes shall prevail. The chairperson, secretary, and members of the Board of Directors attending the meeting shall be jointly responsible for the accuracy and truthfulness of the Board of Directors meeting minutes.

7. Forms of Board of Directors Meetings:

In addition to in-person meetings, Board of Directors meetings may be held in various forms such as telephone, online conferences (video conferencing), etc.

8. Notification of Board of Directors Resolutions: Board of Directors resolutions are sent to Board members, the Supervisory Board, and relevant departments/individuals for implementation.

Details regarding the procedures, authorization to attend meetings, contents of meeting minutes, and other contents of Board of Directors meetings are specifically stipulated in the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance at the Bank and the Regulations on the Organization and Operation of the Board of Directors of Vietnam Thuong Tin Commercial Joint Stock Bank.

Article 52. Support Unit of the Board of Directors

1. The Board of Directors is permitted to use the support unit and the Bank's seal to perform its duties and powers.

2. The Board of Directors will have dedicated support staff and will specify the number and duties of each support member.

3. The Board of Directors must establish Committees to assist the Board of Directors in performing its duties and powers, including a Risk Management Committee and a Human Resources Committee. The Board of Directors shall decide on the duties and powers of these two Committees in accordance with the regulations of the Governor of the State Bank of Vietnam.

Article 53. Person in charge of corporate governance, Secretary of the Board of Directors

1. The Board of Directors of the Bank shall appoint at least one person to perform the duties of the Person in charge of corporate governance of the Bank. The Person in charge of corporate governance may be the Chief of the Office of the Board of Directors and/or the Secretary of the Board of Directors. The standards, functions, powers, and duties of the Person in charge of corporate governance shall be implemented in accordance with the Internal Regulations on corporate governance at the Bank.

2. The Board of Directors appoints a Board Secretary to assist the Board of Directors. The functions and duties of the Board Secretary are determined by the Board of Directors.

The Head of the Supervisory Board wishing to resign must submit a resignation letter to the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board. Within 60 (sixty) days from the date of receiving the resignation letter, the Supervisory Board must hold a meeting to consider and decide on the dismissal, removal, and election procedures for the Head of the Supervisory Board in accordance with current regulations.

3. Members of the Supervisory Board wishing to resign must submit a resignation letter to the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board for presentation to the General Meeting of Shareholders at the nearest meeting for decision.

4. If the number of members of the Supervisory Board is less than the minimum number of members as prescribed, within 90 (ninety) days from the date the minimum number of members is not met, the Bank must elect additional members to ensure the minimum number of members of the Supervisory Board is met, except in cases stipulated in Clause 5, Article 166 of the Law on Credit Institutions.

5. In other cases, the nearest meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders will elect new members of the Supervisory Board to replace the dismissed or removed members or to fill any missing members.

Article 63. Meetings of the Supervisory Board

1. Regular Meetings: The first meeting of the Supervisory Board must be held within 30 (thirty) days after the date of establishment. The Head of the Supervisory Board must convene the first meeting of the Supervisory Board, and plan the agenda, time, and location of the meeting at least 7 (seven) days before the scheduled meeting date.

The Supervisory Board shall hold regular meetings at least once every quarter and may be convened for extraordinary meetings to promptly address unforeseen matters.

2. Extraordinary meetings of the Supervisory Board are regulated in the Regulations on the Organization and Operation of the Supervisory Board.

3. Meeting Location: Supervisory Board meetings shall be held at the registered address of the Bank.

4. Required Attendance: A meeting of the Supervisory Board shall be held when at least 2/3 (two-thirds) of the Supervisory Board members are present in person or through a substitute who is an authorized member of the Supervisory Board.

In the event of convening a Supervisory Board meeting for the second time or more, the procedures, formalities, and attendance ratio shall be based on the regulations on the organization and operation of the Supervisory Board.

5. Voting principles:

a. Each member attending the Supervisory Board meeting shall have one vote at the meeting.

b. Decisions of the Supervisory Board are adopted if approved by a majority of the Supervisory Board members entitled to vote at the meeting. In case of a tie, the final decision rests with the side whose opinion is supported by the Head of the Supervisory Board or the Supervisory Board member authorized by the Head of the Supervisory Board to preside over the meeting (in the absence of the Head of the Supervisory Board).

c. Details regarding voting, non-voting, conflicts of interest, declarations of rights, etc., are specified in the Regulations on the Organization and Operation of the Supervisory Board.

6. Minutes: Minutes must be recorded for Supervisory Board meetings. Minutes of Supervisory Board meetings must be written in Vietnamese and signed by all Supervisory Board members present at the meeting. All members of the Supervisory Board attending the meeting are jointly responsible for the accuracy and truthfulness of the minutes.

Details regarding the procedures, authorization to attend meetings, and other contents of Supervisory Board meetings are specified in the Regulations on the Organization and Operation of the Supervisory Board.

CHAPTER IX

LABOR AND TRADE UNIONS

Article 67. Employees and Trade Unions

The Bank shall establish regulations relating to the recruitment, employment, dismissal, wages, social insurance, benefits, rewards and disciplinary actions for its employees, as well as the Bank's relationship with the Trade Union organization.

CHAPTER X

PROFIT DISTRIBUTION

Article 68. Dividends

1. Dividends paid to common shares shall be determined based on the net profit realized and the dividend payment shall be deducted from the Bank's retained earnings. The Bank may only pay dividends on common shares when the following conditions are met:

- a. The Bank has fulfilled its tax obligations and other financial obligations as prescribed by law;
- b. It has established funds and fully compensated for previous losses as prescribed by law and the Bank's Charter; 1. Immediately after paying the agreed-upon dividends, the Bank shall ensure that all debts and other financial obligations due are fully paid.

2. Based on the dividend payment plan and amount approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Board of Directors may decide to pay an interim dividend if it deems this payment appropriate to the Bank's profitability.

3. Dividends may be paid in cash, in shares of the Bank, or in other assets as prescribed by law. If paid in cash, it must be in Vietnamese Dong and according to the payment methods prescribed by law. Dividends may be paid by bank transfer when the Bank has been provided with complete and detailed information about the Shareholders' bank accounts so that the Bank can directly transfer the funds to the Shareholders' bank accounts. If the Bank has transferred funds according to the bank account details provided by the Shareholder, the Bank shall not be liable for any losses arising from that transfer.

4. Dividends must be paid in full within 06 (six) months from the date of the conclusion of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders. The Board of Directors shall compile a list of shareholders entitled to receive dividends, determine the dividend amount to be paid for each share, the payment deadline and method of payment no later than 30 (thirty) days before each dividend payment. The dividend payment notice shall be sent by registered mail to shareholders at the address registered in the shareholder register no later than 15 (fifteen) days before the dividend payment. The notice must contain the following information:

- a. Name and registered office address of the Bank;
- b. Full name, contact address, nationality, and legal document number of individual shareholders;
- c. Name, business registration number or legal document number of organizational shareholders, and registered office address;

CHAPTER XIV

BANK AUDIT

Article 80. Auditing

1. The Annual General Meeting of Shareholders shall appoint an independent auditing firm or approve a list of independent auditing firms and decide to select one of these firms to conduct the audit of the Bank's financial statements and internal control system for the following fiscal year based on the terms and conditions agreed upon with the Board of Directors.
2. Within 30 (thirty) days from the date of the decision to select an independent auditing firm, the Bank shall notify the State Bank of Vietnam of the selected independent auditing firm.
3. During the audit process, the Bank is responsible for providing accurate, complete, and timely information as requested by the Auditor. 3. The Bank must prepare and submit to the independent auditing firm the semi-annual financial statements (after the end of the six-month reporting period) and the annual financial statements (after the end of each fiscal year).
4. The Bank's independent auditing firm shall examine, verify, and report on the semi-annual and annual financial statements reflecting the Bank's income and expenses, and shall prepare an audit report and submit it to the Board of Directors within two months from the end of the fiscal year.
5. A copy of the audit report shall be attached to the Bank's semi-annual and annual financial statements.
6. Auditors from independent auditing firms are permitted to attend General Meetings of Shareholders and are entitled to receive notices and other information related to the General Meeting of Shareholders that shareholders are entitled to receive, and to express their opinions at the General Meeting of Shareholders on matters related to the auditors.
7. In cases where the audit report of the Bank's annual financial statements contains significant exceptions, the Bank may invite representatives of the independent auditing firm to attend the annual General Meeting of Shareholders to explain the relevant contents.
8. The specific auditing of the Bank's operations is carried out in accordance with the Law on Credit Institutions, the law on independent auditing, and guiding documents of the State Bank of Vietnam.

CHAPTER XV

EARLY INTERVENTION, SPECIAL CONTROL, TERMINATION OF OPERATIONS AND LIQUIDATION

Article 81. Application of Early Intervention

1. The Bank shall develop a contingency plan in case of early intervention and update and adjust this plan periodically every 02 (two) years. The contingency plan must be approved by the Bank's General Meeting of Shareholders and submitted to the State Bank of Vietnam within 10 (ten) days from the date of approval.
2. The State Bank of Vietnam shall consider and decide to implement early intervention when the Bank falls under one or more of the following cases:
 - a. The Bank's accumulated losses exceed 15% (fifteen percent) of the value of its charter capital, contributed capital, and reserve funds as recorded in the most recent audited financial statements or as concluded by inspections and audits of competent state agencies, and violate the minimum capital adequacy ratio stipulated in point b, clause 1, Article 138 of the Law on Credit Institutions;

b. Ranking below average as prescribed by the Governor of the State Bank of Vietnam;

c. Violating the solvency ratio stipulated in point a, clause 1, Article 138 of the Law on Credit Institutions for 30 (thirty) consecutive days;

d. Violating the minimum capital adequacy ratio stipulated in point b, clause 1, Article 138 of the Law on Credit Institutions for 06 (six) consecutive months;

e. Experiencing mass withdrawals and submitting a report to the State Bank of Vietnam.

3. The Bank is responsible for immediately implementing the requirements and restrictive measures in the document issued by the State Bank of Vietnam. If the Bank fails to implement these requirements and restrictive measures, the State Bank of Vietnam will apply one or more additional restrictive measures as prescribed in clause 2, Article 157 of the Law on Credit Institutions.

4. If necessary, the State Bank of Vietnam may require the Bank to hire an independent auditing firm to audit its financial statements and assess its financial situation as a basis for developing a remediation plan.

Article 82. Reporting and Special Control

1. The State Bank of Vietnam may consider and decide to place a Bank under special control when it falls into one of the following cases:

a. The Bank that received early intervention does not submit a remediation plan to the State Bank of Vietnam or does not adjust the remediation plan as requested in writing by the State Bank of Vietnam;

b. Within the time limit for implementing the remediation plan, the Bank that received early intervention is unable to implement the remediation plan;

c. After the time limit for implementing the remediation plan, the Bank fails to remedy the situation that led to the early intervention;

d. Experiencing mass withdrawals and posing a risk to the safety of the credit institution system;

e. The Bank's capital adequacy ratio is less than 04% (four percent) for six consecutive months;

f. The Bank is dissolved and is unable to fully repay its debts during the liquidation of its assets.

2. From the date the Bank is placed under special control, its shareholders must report on the use of their shares; they are not allowed to transfer shares; they are not allowed to use shares as collateral, except at the request of a competent state agency.

3. When under special control, the Bank and its shareholders must fulfill their responsibilities as stipulated in Clause 1, Article 165 of the Law on Credit Institutions; the Board of Directors and the General Director of the Bank must fulfill their responsibilities as stipulated in Clause 2, Article 165 of the Law on Credit Institutions.

Article 83. Dissolution and Termination of Bank Operations

1. The Bank shall be dissolved or cease operations in the following cases:

- a. Failure to request an extension or requesting an extension but not receiving written approval from the State Bank of Vietnam upon expiration of the operating period.
- b. Revocation of the license.
- c. Voluntary dissolution if able to pay off all debts and with written approval from the State Bank of Vietnam.
- d. Early intervention or special control by a credit institution assumes the entire debt obligation.

2. Upon dissolution or cessation of operations as stipulated in Clause 1 of this Article, the Bank must liquidate its assets under the supervision of the State Bank of Vietnam and according to the asset liquidation procedures prescribed by the Governor of the State Bank of Vietnam.

3. Other procedures and regulations related to the dissolution of the Bank shall be implemented in accordance with relevant laws.

Article 84. Bank Liquidation

1. At least 06 (six) months before the end of the Bank's operating term or after a decision to dissolve the Bank is made, the Board of Directors must establish a Liquidation Committee consisting of 03 (three) members, including two (02) members appointed by the General Meeting of Shareholders and one (1) member appointed by the Board of Directors from an independent auditing firm. The Liquidation Committee shall prepare its operating regulations. 1. Members of the Liquidation Committee may be selected from among Bank employees or independent experts. All costs related to the liquidation are prioritized for payment by the Bank before other debts of the Bank.

2. The Liquidation Committee is responsible for reporting its establishment date and commencement date to the State Bank of Vietnam/Enterprise Registration Authority. From that point onwards, the Liquidation Committee acts on behalf of the Bank in all matters related to the Bank's liquidation before the Courts and administrative agencies.

3. Proceeds from the liquidation shall be paid in the following order:

- a. Liquidation costs;
- b. Salaries, severance pay, social insurance and other benefits of employees under collective bargaining agreements and signed employment contracts;
- c. Taxes and other payments to the State;
- d. Loans (if any);
- e. Other debts of the Bank;
- f. The remaining balance after all debts from points a to e of this clause have been paid shall be distributed to the shareholders. Preferred shares shall be given priority in payment.

4. During the supervision of the liquidation of the Bank's assets as stipulated in Clause 2 of this Article, if it is discovered that the Bank is unable to fully pay its debts, the State Bank of Vietnam shall issue a decision to terminate the liquidation of assets and require the Bank to submit an application for bankruptcy proceedings for credit institutions as stipulated in Article 204 of the Law on Credit Institutions.

CHAPTER XVI

INTERNAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Article 85. Internal Dispute Resolution

1. Whenever a dispute or complaint arises concerning the Bank's work, the rights and obligations of shareholders as stipulated in the Bank's Charter, as prescribed by the Law on Credit Institutions, the Enterprise Law, other legal regulations, or administrative regulations between:

- a. Shareholders and Banks; or
- b. Shareholders with the Board of Directors, Supervisory Board, General Director, or other executives.

The parties involved will attempt to resolve the dispute through negotiation and mediation. Except in cases involving the Board of Directors or the Chairman of the Board, the Chairman of the Board will preside over the dispute resolution and will request each party to present information related to the dispute within 21 (twenty-one) working days from the date the dispute arises. In cases involving the Board of Directors or the Chairman of the Board, either party may request a competent authority to resolve the dispute.

2. If a mediation decision is not reached within 06 (six) weeks from the start of the mediation process, or if the decision of the mediation center is not accepted by the parties, one party may bring the dispute to Economic Arbitration or the Court for resolution.

3. Each party shall bear its own costs related to the negotiation and mediation process. Payment of court costs shall be made according to the court's judgment.

CHAPTER XVII

AMENDMENTS AND ADDITIONS TO THE CHARTER

Article 86. Amendments and Additions to the Charter

1. Amendments and additions to this Charter must be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders and submitted to the State Bank of Vietnam as prescribed.

2. In case there are provisions of law related to the Bank's operations not mentioned in this Charter or in case there are new provisions of law different from the provisions in this Charter, those provisions of law shall automatically apply and govern the Bank's operations.
