NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

These notes are an integral part and should be read in conjunction with the accompanying separate interim Financial Statements.

1. COMPANY OPERATIONS OVERVIEW

1.1 FORM OF CAPITAL OWNERSHIP

Viet Nam Veterinary Products Joint Stock Company ("the Company") was established by transforming from a state-owned enterprise into a joint-stock company and operates under Business Registration Certificate No. 0100102326 issued by the Hanoi Department of Planning and Investment on June 7, 2000. During its operation, changes related to business functions, charter capital, and headquarters have been approved by the Hanoi Department of Planning and Investment, with the latest changes reflected in the 15th revision of the business registration certificate dated December 15, 2023.

The charter capital according to the Company's Joint Stock Company Business Registration Certificate as of December 31, 2024, is VND 162,499,690,000 (One hundred sixty-two billion, four hundred ninety-nine million, six hundred ninety thousand VND).

The Company's headquarters is located at No. 88 Truong Chinh Street, Dong Da District, Hanoi. The total number of employees as of December 31, 2024, is 4 (as of December 31, 2023, it was also 83).

1.2 PRINCIPAL BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

During the period from July 1, 2024 to December 31, 2024, the Company's main activity was the leasing of business premises.

1.3 NORMAL BUSINESS AND PRODUCTION CYCLE

The Company's normal business and production cycle is conducted within a period not exceeding 12 months.

1.4 ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

The Company has invested solely in Central Veterinary Medicine Co., Ltd., headquartered in Tan Quang Commune, Van Lam District, Hung Yen Province. The primary business activities of this subsidiary are the production and distribution of veterinary medicines and vaccines.

As of the end of the reporting period, the Company holds a 100% ownership interest in its subsidiary, with the voting rights and economic benefits proportionate to this ownership ratio. The Company also has a dependent branch without legal entity status, which operates under the Company's accounting system in Ho Chi Minh City.

1.5 DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION COMPARABILITY IN THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The comparative data on the interim Balance Sheet and corresponding notes are derived from the audited separate financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2023. The comparative figures for the separate Income Statement for Quarter 4 Report - 2023, the Cash Flow Statement for Quarter 4 Report - 2023, and the corresponding notes are based on the Company's separate financial statements for three-month period ended December 31, 2023.

2. APPLICABLE ACCOUNTING STANDARDS AND POLICIES

2.1 ACCOUNTING STANDARDS AND POLICIES APPLIED

The Company applies the Vietnamese Accounting Standards (VAS) and the Corporate Accounting System promulgated under Circular No. 200/2014/TT-BTC dated December 22nd, 2014, by the Ministry of Finance, as well as Circular No. 53/2016/TT-BTC dated March 21st, 2016, which amends and supplements several provisions of Circular No. 200/2014/TT-BTC.

The separate financial statements for Quarter 4-2024 attached herewith do not aim to present the financial position, operating results, and cash flows in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and practices in countries other than Vietnam.

2.2 FINANCIAL YEAR

The financial year of the Company begins on January 1st and ends on December 31st of the Gregorian calendar. These separate financial statements for Quarter 4-2024 are prepared for the period from October 1, 2024, to December 31th, 2024.

2.3 DECLARATION OF COMPLIANCE WITH ACCOUNTING STANDARDS AND POLICIES

The Company's consolidated report for the fourth quarter of 2024 is prepared and presented in compliance with the requirements of Vietnamese Accounting Standards, the current Vietnamese Enterprise Accounting Regime and relevant legal regulations on preparation. and financial statement presentation.

2.4 CURRENCY UNITS USED IN ACCOUNTING

The currency used in accounting is Vietnam Dong (VND) because revenues and expenditures are mainly made in VND currency.

3. PRIMARY ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The following are the important accounting policies applied in the Company's Consolidated report for the fourth quarter of 2024:

3.1 BASIS AND PURPOSE OF PREPARATION OF CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR QUARTER 4-2024

The fourth quarter consolidated financial statements are the consolidated financial statements of the Parent Company. These financial reports are prepared to meet information disclosure requirements, specifically according to Circular No. 96/2020/TT-BTC dated November 16, 2020 of the Ministry of Finance on information disclosure on the stock market.

The Company's financial statements are consolidated from the financial statements of Central Viet Nam Veterinary Products Joint Stock Company (Parent Company) and Central Veterinary Company Limited (Subsidiary). A subsidiary is an entity controlled by the Parent Company. Control exists when the Parent Company has the power, directly or indirectly, to govern the financial and operating policies of a subsidiary so as to obtain benefits from its activities. When assessing control, potential voting rights that are currently exercisable or convertible are taken into account

3.2 FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Circular No. 210/2009/TT-BTC dated November 6th, 2009, by the Ministry of Finance, guiding the application of International Accounting Standards on financial instruments presentation and disclosure, has not been applied by the Company in presenting these separate financial statements for the period.

3.3 ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

The preparation of the Quarter 4-2024 financial statements complies with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, requiring the Board of Directors to make estimates and assumptions affecting reported amounts of liabilities, assets, and disclosures of contingent liabilities and assets at the reporting date, as well as the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the fiscal period. Actual operating results may differ from these estimates and assumptions.

3.4 FOREIGN CURRENCY

Exchange rates for translating foreign currency transactions during the period are the transaction rates of the commercial bank with which the Company transacted at the time of the transaction. Exchange rates for revaluation of monetary items denominated in foreign currencies at the reporting date are the rates published by the commercial bank where the foreign currency accounts are maintained:

- For monetary assets, the revaluation rate is the buying rate.
- For monetary liabilities, the revaluation rate is the selling rate.

3.5 CASH AND CASH EXCHANGEABLE

Cash reflects the total available funds of the enterprise at the reporting date, including cash on hand and demand deposits at banks. Cash and cash equivalents are reported in Vietnamese Dong (VND) in accordance with the Accounting Law No. 88/2015/QH13 dated November 20th, 2015, effective from January 1st, 2017.

3.6 FINANCIAL INVESTMENTS

Investments in Equity Instruments of Other Entities:

Investments in equity instruments of other entities refer to equity investments where the company does not have control, joint control, or significant influence over the investee.

Investments in equity instruments are initially recognized at cost, which includes: Purchase Price or capital contribution. Directly Attributable Costs related to the investment activity. For dividends and profits:

Pre-acquisition dividends and profits reduce the carrying amount of the investment.

Post-acquisition dividends and profits are recognized as revenue.

Dividends received in the form of additional shares are tracked by the increase in the number of shares but are not recognized as an increase in the value of the investment. Provisions for impairment in equity investments are established at the time of preparing interim financial statements if the value of the investments has declined below their original cost. The provisioning methods are as follows:

Listed Equity Investments or Investments with a Reliable Fair Value: Provisions are made based on the market value of the shares.

Unlisted Equity Investments with No Reliable Fair Value: Provisions are based on the difference between the company's actual capital contribution and the investee's net equity, multiplied by the company's percentage of total contributed capital in the investee.

Increases or decreases in the provision for impairment of investments in equity instruments, determined at the reporting date, are recognized in financial expenses.

3.7 RECEIVABLES

Receivables are presented at book value, less provisions for doubtful debts. The classification of receivables follows these principles:

Trade Receivables: Reflect receivables of a commercial nature arising from purchase-and-sale transactions between the Company and independent buyers.

Other Receivables: Reflect receivables of a non-commercial nature unrelated to purchase-and-sale transactions.

Provision for doubtful debts is made for receivables overdue for payment as stipulated in economic contracts, commitments, or agreements. These debts must have been claimed multiple times but remain uncollected. Overdue periods are determined based on the repayment schedule specified in the original purchase-and-sale contracts, excluding extended repayment agreements. Provisions are also made for receivables not yet due but where the debtor is bankrupt, under dissolution procedures, missing, or has absconded. Such provisions are reversed upon debt recovery.

The increase or decrease in provisions for doubtful debts at the reporting date is recorded as administrative expenses.

3.8 INVENTORIES

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost or net realizable value.

Cost of Inventories: Includes all expenses incurred to bring inventories to their current location and condition, including purchase price, non-refundable taxes, transportation, handling, preservation costs during procurement, allowable losses, and other directly related costs.

Net Realizable Value: Estimated selling price of inventories in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs of completion and selling expenses.

The Company applies the perpetual inventory system. The cost of inventories issued is determined using the weighted average method.

Provision for Inventory Write-Downs: Provisions are made for individual inventory items whose cost exceeds their net realizable value. Increases or decreases in such provisions at the reporting date are recorded in the cost of goods sold.

3.9 TANGIBLES FIXED ASSETS

Tangible fixed assets are recognized at historical cost and are presented in the balance sheet under cost, accumulated depreciation, and net carrying value.

Recognition and Depreciation:

Recognition and depreciation of tangible fixed assets follow Vietnam Accounting Standard No. 03 and related circulars (Circular 200/2014/TT-BTC, Circular 45/2013/TT-BTC, Circular 147/2016/TT-BTC, and Circular 28/2017/TT-BTC).

Purchased Assets: Purchase price (net of trade discounts) + taxes + direct costs to bring the asset to a usable state.

Constructed Assets: Completed project cost + direct related costs + registration fees.

Self-Constructed Assets: Actual cost of construction + installation and trial costs.

Assets in use but awaiting final settlement are temporarily recorded at increased historical cost and depreciated; adjustments are made upon finalization.

Subsequent expenditures are added to the historical cost if they increase future economic benefits.

Otherwise, they are expensed in the current period.

Tangible fixed assets are depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives. Assets are categorized based on their nature and purpose in business activities.

Asset Type	Time of usage (Years)
Buildings, Structures	08 - 35
Machinery, Equipment	05 - 10
Vehicles	07 - 12
Management Tools, Equipment	03 - 15

3.10 INTANGIBLE FIXED ASSETS

Recognition and Valuation: Intangible fixed assets are recorded at cost, as reflected in the balance sheet through original cost, accumulated depreciation, and net value. These assets are recognized and depreciated according to Vietnam Accounting Standard No. 04, Circulars No. 200/2014/TT-BTC, No. 45/2013/TT-BTC, and subsequent amendments.

Definition of Cost: Includes all expenses incurred until the asset is ready for use. Post-recognition costs are considered as period expenses unless they enhance the asset's economic benefits.

Disposal: When sold or liquidated, their original cost and accumulated depreciation are derecognized, and resulting gains or losses are included in the income statement.

Depreciation Policy: The company's intangible fixed assets (e.g., accounting software) are depreciated over three years.

3.11 LIABILITIES

Payables represent amounts owed to suppliers and other entities. Classification:

Trade Payables: Arise from commercial transactions for goods, services, or assets, including payables to parent and subsidiary companies.

Other Payables: Non-commercial payables unrelated to trade transactions.

Payables are detailed by party and due date and are not recorded below the obligation amount.

3.12 EXPENSES PAYABLE

Accrued expenses include wages, selling costs, and other costs incurred during the reporting period but unpaid due to the absence of invoices or supporting documents.

Accruals must be reasonably and reliably estimated and supported by evidence, ensuring alignment with actual expenses.

3.13 BORROWING AND FINANCIAL LEASE

Borrowings and financial lease obligations are recognized based on receipts, bank documents, contracts, and agreements.

These are tracked by counterparties, terms, and currencies.

3.14 BORROWING COSTS

Accounting for Borrowing Costs:

Expensed during the period unless capitalized under the accounting standard for "Borrowing Costs."

Borrowing costs related to purchasing or constructing long-term assets are added to the asset's value until it is operational.

Temporary income from unutilized loans reduces the asset's recorded value.

Borrowing costs include interest expenses and directly related charges for loans.

Specific Cases:

Dedicated Loans: Interest is capitalized even for construction periods under 12 months.

General Loans: Capitalized borrowing costs are calculated based on a weighted average capitalization rate applied to cumulative costs for the incomplete asset.

3.15 OWNER'S EQUITY

Equity Components:

Contributed Capital: Actual contributions by shareholders.

Share Premium: Surpluses from issuance reissuance of shares minus related costs.

Other Owner's Equity: Includes profits from operations, asset revaluation, or donations post-tax deductions.

Undistributed Post-Tax Profit: Includes retained earnings after corporate income tax, adjustments for prior errors, and retrospective policy changes.

Dividends are recognized as liabilities once approved by the General Assembly of Shareholders.

3.16 REVENUE RECOGNITION

The Company's revenue includes revenue from leasing business premises.

Service Revenue:

Revenue from services is recognized when the transaction outcome is reliably measurable, considering:

At the closing date of the financial statements for the period of that period. The result of a service provision transaction is determined when all four (4) of the following conditions are satisfied:

- Revenue certainty.
- Economic benefits likelihood.
- Completion stage at the reporting date.

- Measurable costs incurred and to complete the transaction.

Financial Revenue:

Interest Income: Recognized per periodic bank notices or actual lending terms.

Dividends: Recorded upon entitlement to dividends. Stock dividends increase the number of shares but are not recognized in value.

3.17 FINANCIAL EXPENSES

Financial expenses, reported in the income statement, include all incurred costs such as interest and foreign exchange differences, without offsetting financial revenue.

3.18 TAXES AND OTHER PAYABLES TO THE STATE

Value Added Tax (VAT): Calculated per current laws.

Corporate Income Tax (CIT): Calculated on taxable income, adjusted for items excluded from taxation. The applicable CIT rate is 20%. Final amounts depend on tax authority inspections.

Other Taxes: Declared and paid per local tax regulations.

3.19 RELATED PARTIES

Related parties include entities or individuals with control or significant influence over the company's financial or operating policies. Examples:

Parent, subsidiaries, affiliates, or jointly controlled entities.

Key management personnel and their close family members.

Enterprises controlled or influenced by such individuals.

Relationships are evaluated based on substance rather than legal form.

3.20 SEGMENT REPORTING

A reportable segment is a distinguishable component of the Company that is engaged in providing an individual product or service or a group of related products or services (Business Segment), or that is engaged in providing products or services within a particular economic environment (Geographical Segment), which is subject to risks and returns that are different from those of other segments.

The company operates in a single geographic location and provides a single type of service/product, thus does not prepare segment reports.

The Board of Directors of the Company assesses that in the coming period, there will be no impact of instruments that can be converted into shares that dilute the value of shares, so diluted earnings per share are equal to basic earnings per share.

31. SEGMENT REPORTS

The reported segment is a distinguishable division of the company engaged in the production or supply of individual products or services, a group of related products or services (Division by line of business) or engaged in the production or supply of products, services within a specific economic environment (Geographical Division) that has different economic risks and benefits than other business departments.

Notes to the separate interim financial statements for the three-month ended 31 December 2024

Division report by business line is based on the internal organizational and management structure, as well as the Company's internal consolidated financial reporting system. Since the Company's business activities are organized and managed according to the nature of products and services, each division is responsible for providing different products and serving different markets.
