Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements, including their utilisation are not designed for those who are not informed about Vietnam's accounting principles, procedures and practices and furthermore are not intended to present the financial position and results of operations and cash flows in accordance with accounting principles and practices generally accepted in countries other than Vietnam.

2.2 Applied accounting documentation system

The Company's applied accounting documentation system is the computer based.

2.3 Fiscal year

The Company's fiscal year applicable for the preparation of its financial statements starts on 1 January and ends on 31 December.

2.4 Accounting currency

Financial statements are prepared in the Company's accounting currency which is VND.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

3.1 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand, cash in banks and short-term, highly liquid investments with an original maturity of not more than three months that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and that are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value.

3.2 Inventory

Inventories are measured at their historical costs. The cost of inventories comprise costs of purchase, costs of conversion (including raw materials, direct labor cost, other directly related cost, manufacturing general overheads allocated based on the normal operating capacity) incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition

In case the net realizable value is lower than the original price, it must be calculated according to the net realizable value.

Net realisable value ("NRV") represents the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs to complete and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale

The company applies the regular declaration method to account for inventory with the value determined as follows:

Raw materials, goods and finished products - Purchase costs according to the actual specific method.

Production costs, unfinished business - Direct materials and labor costs plus related manufacturing overhead costs are allocated based on the normal level of activity using the weighted average method.

Provision for devaluation of inventory

An inventory provision is created for the estimated loss arising due to the impairment of value (through diminution, damage, obsolescence, etc.) of raw materials, finished goods, and other inventories owned by the Company, based on appropriate evidence of impairment available at the balance sheet date. When inventories are expired, obsolescence, damage or become useless, the difference between the provision previously made and the historical cost of inventories are included in the income statement.

Increases or decreases to the provision balance are recorded into the cost of goods sold account in the income statement.

3.3 Receivables

Receivables are presented in the financial statements at the carrying amounts due from customers and other debtors, after provision for doubtful debts.

The provision for doubtful debts represents amounts of outstanding receivables at the balance sheet date which are doubtful of being recovered. Increases or decreases to the provision balance are recorded as general and administrative expense in the income statement. When bad debts are determined as unrecoverable and accountant writes off those bad debts, the differences between the provision for doubtful receivables previously made and historical cost of receivables are included in the income statement.

3.4 Tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation.

The cost of a tangible fixed asset comprises its purchase price and any directly attributable costs of bringing the tangible fixed asset to working condition for its intended use.

Expenditures for additions, improvements and renewals are added to the carrying amount of the assets and expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to the income statement as incurred.

When tangible fixed assets are sold or retired, any gain or loss resulting from their disposal (the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount) is included in the income statement.

3.5 Leased assets

Determining whether an agreement is a lease depends on the nature of the agreement at its inception: whether its performance is dependent on the use of a certain asset and Whether or not the agreement includes a provision on the right to use the property.

An asset lease agreement is classified as a finance lease if, according to the asset lease contract, the lessor transfers most of the risks and benefits associated with ownership of the asset to the lessee. All other lease agreements are classified as operating leases.

In case the Company is the lessee

Rent payments under operating lease contracts are accounted for in the income statement on a straight-line basis throughout the term of the lease contract.

In case the Company is the lessor

Assets under operating lease contracts are recorded as fixed assets on the balance sheet. Initial direct costs to negotiate an operating lease agreement are recognized in the income statement when incurred.

Income from operating leases is accounted for in the income statement on a straight-line basis throughout the lease term.

3.6 Intangible fixed assets

Intangible fixed assets are recorded at cost less accumulated depreciation.

The historical cost of an intangible fixed asset includes the purchase price and costs directly related to putting the asset into intended use.

The costs of upgrading and renewing intangible fixed assets are recorded as an increase in the historical cost of the asset and other costs are accounted for in the income statement when incurred.

When intangible fixed assets are sold or liquidated, the gain or loss arising from the asset's disposal (the difference between the net proceeds from the sale of the asset and the asset's carrying value) is recognized. accounted for in the income statement.

Land use rights

Prepaid land rents for land lease contracts effective before 2003 and issued with Land Use Rights Certificates are recorded as intangible fixed assets according to the provisions of Circular No. 45/2013/TT- BTC issued by the Ministry of Finance on April 25, 2013 guiding the management, use and depreciation of fixed assets ("Circular 45").

3.7 Depreciation and amortisation

Depreciation of tangible fixed assets and amortization of intangible fixed assets are calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful life of each asset as follows:

Houses and structures	3 - 30 year
Machinery and equipment	3 - 20 year
Means of transport	6 - 10 year
Office equipment	3 - 05 year
Land use rights	32 - 42 year
Computer software	6 year

3.8 Investment properties

Investment real estate is stated at cost including related transaction costs less accumulated depreciation. For investment real estate held for price increase, the Company does not depreciate but determines loss due to decrease in value.

Expenses related to investment real estate that arise after initial recognition are accounted for in the remaining value of the investment real estate when the Company is likely to reap future economic benefits. above the initially assessed performance level of that investment property.

Depreciation and amortization of investment properties are charged on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the properties as follows:

Land use rights	42 year
Houses and structures	25 year

Investment property is no longer presented on the balance sheet after it has been sold or after the investment property is no longer in use and it is deemed that no future economic benefits will be obtained from its disposal. investment real estate management. The difference between the net proceeds from the sale of the asset and the carrying amount of the investment property is recognized in the income statement in the year of disposal.

The conversion from owner-occupied real estate or inventory into investment real estate is only when there is a change in use purpose such as when the owner stops using the asset and begins to lease it to another party. other operating leases or at the end of the construction phase. The transfer from investment property to owner-occupied property or inventory is only possible when there is a change in purpose of use such as cases where the owner begins to use the asset or begins to develop it. declared for sale purposes. The transfer from investment property to owner-occupied property or inventory does not change the original cost or residual value of the property at the date of conversion.

3.9 Prepaid expenses

Prepaid expenses include short-term prepaid expenses or long-term prepaid expenses on the balance sheet and are allocated over the prepayment period of the expense corresponding to the economic benefits generated. from these costs.

3.10 Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs include loan interest and other costs incurred directly related to the Company's loans and are recorded as expenses in the year when incurred.

Borrowing costs are accounted for as costs incurred during the year except for amounts capitalized as described in the next paragraph.

Borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a specific asset that takes a sufficiently long period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale are capitalized as capital. price of that asset.

3.11 Payables and accruals

Accounts payable and accruals are recognized for amounts to be paid in the future for goods and services received, whether or not billed to the Company.

3.12 Foreign currency operations

Transactions arising in currencies other than the Company's accounting currency (VND) are accounted for at the actual exchange rate on the transaction date according to the following principles:

- ▶ Operations giving rise to receivables are accounted for at the buying exchange rate of the commercial bank where the Company appoints customers to pay; and
- ▶ Operations giving rise to payables are accounted for at the selling exchange rate of the commercial bank where the Company intends to transact.
- ▶ At the end of the annual accounting period, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are revalued at the actual exchange rate at the balance sheet date according to the following principles:
 - ▶ Monetary items classified as assets are revalued according to the buying rate of the commercial bank where the Company regularly has transactions; and
 - ▶ Monetary items classified as liabilities are revalued at the selling exchange rate of the commercial bank where the Company regularly has transactions.

All arising exchange rate differences are accounted for in the income statement.

3.13 Treasury shares

Equity instruments repurchased by the Company (treasury shares) are recorded at cost and deducted from equity. The Company does not recognize gains (losses) on the purchase, sale, issuance or cancellation of its equity instruments.

3.14 Appropriation of net profits

Net profit after corporate income tax (excluding profits from low-cost purchases) can be distributed to shareholders after approval by the general meeting of shareholders and after setting aside reserve funds according to Charter of the Company and regulations of Vietnamese law.

The Company appropriates the following reserve funds from the Company's net profit after corporate income tax at the request of the Board of Directors and approved by shareholders at the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders

Development investment fund

This fund is set aside to serve the expansion of operations or in-depth investment of the Company.

Bonus and welfare fund

This fund is set aside to reward, encourage materially, bring common benefits and improve employee welfare, and is presented as a liability on the balance sheet.

3.15 Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized when the Company is capable of receiving economic benefits that can be reliably determined. Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received, excluding discounts, rebates and sales returns. The following specific recognition conditions must also be met when recognizing revenue:

Sales revenue

Revenue from the sale of goods is recognized when the significant risks and rights of ownership of the goods have passed to the buyer, usually coinciding with the delivery of the goods

Interest

Interest is recognized as it arises on an accrual basis (taking into account the yield on the asset) unless recoverability is uncertain.

Rental money

Income from property rental under operating lease contracts is accounted for in the income statement on a straight-line basis throughout the lease term.

3.16 Current income tax

Income tax assets and income tax liabilities for the current and prior years are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or payable to the taxing authority, using applicable tax rates and tax laws. effective until the end of the annual accounting period.

Current income tax is recognized in the income statement except when it relates to items recognized directly to equity, in which case the current income tax Execution is also recorded directly into equity.

The Company may only offset current income tax assets and current income tax liabilities when the Company has a legally enforceable right to offset current income tax assets against current income tax liabilities and the Company may offset current income tax assets and current income tax liabilities. The Company intends to settle its current income tax liabilities and current income tax assets on a net basis.

3.17 Related parties

Parties are considered to be related parties of the Company if one party has the ability, directly or indirectly, to control the other party or significantly influence the other party in making financial and operating decisions, or where the Company and the other party are subject to common control or common significant influence. (Re: Explanation of changes in Profit after tax)

To:

- THE STATE SECURITIES COMMISSION OF VIET NAM (SSC)
- HANOI STOCK EXCHANGE (HNX)
- INVESTORS

Lam Dong Pharmaceutical Joint Stock Company (Ladophar) provides an explanation regarding the changes in Profit after tax of the Income Statement: Profit after tax in the reporting period shows a profit, shifting from a loss in the same period of the previous year to a profit in this period, as follows:

Unit: VND

Indicators	Fourth Quarter 2024	Fourth Quarter 2023	Change
Profit after tax in Separate Financial Statements	3.020.559.731	(9.864.651.734)	130,63%
Profit after tax in Consolidated Financial Statements	3.020.559.731	(9.864.651.734)	130,63%

Explanation for the difference above:

+ Total revenue from sales of goods and provision of services increased by VND 26,46 billion, reaching 158,38% compared to the same period; specially:

- Revenue from manufactured goods increased by VND 20.56 billion, reaching 193.17% compared to the same period last year;
- Revenue from traded goods and services increased by VND 5.9 billion, reaching 125.37% compared to the same period last year.

The fluctuation in the revenue structure between manufactured and traded goods resulted in a gross profit increase by VND 14.3 billion, equivalent to an increase of 285.8% compared to the same period last year.

+ The Company's operating expenses increased by VND 2.5 billion, equivalent to a 12.95% increase compared to the same period last year, as follows:

- Financial expenses decreased by VND 0.66 billion, a 20% reduction compared to the same period last year;
- Selling and administrative expenses increased by VND 3.16 billion, a 23.4% increase compared to the same period last year, mainly due to higher expenses related to revenue growth and employee welfare.

Lam Dong Pharmaceutical Joint Stock Company (Ladophar) hereby affirms that the information disclosed above is true and we fully assume legal responsibility for the content of the disclosed information.
