GENERAL DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Valued Shareholders, Customers and Partners,

The year 2024 ended with challenges for investors as the Vietnamese stock market grappled with the complexities of the global economic and political landscape. By the end of December 31, 2024, the VN-Index recorded a 12.1% increase, but most of the growth occurred in the first quarter, while the remaining three quarters saw limited movement, struggling to break the 1,300-point threshold amid low liquidity.

The primary causes of this situation stemmed from external factors, notably the surge in the US dollar's value, which significantly increased domestic exchange rates, and the record-breaking net selling wave by foreign investors in the Vietnamese stock market. By mid-December 2024, the total net selling value had reached nearly VND 90 trillion, almost quadrupling the figure for 2023. This was not exclusive to Vietnam, as investment capital across Asia and emerging markets was also withdrawn back to developed markets.

Despite the mixed advantages and challenges encountered in 2024, BSC's business operations still achieved positive results, effectively managed risks, and marked significant highlights across various aspects. By the end of 2024, BSC recorded a pre-tax profit of VND 515.7 billion; total assets reached VND 10,315 billion, a 24% increase year-over-year; and equity reached VND 5,062 billion, an 8% increase compared to 2023. BSC consistently adhered to legal regulations and ensured compliance with all business operation limits. Asset and cash flow management were conducted flexibly, combined with stringent control to optimize profits, while avoiding payment or liquidity risks, and effectively meeting business requirements.

Constanting with the mission of "Serving the market – Serving customers, partners & shareholders", BSC's contributions in 2024 continued to be recognized by numerous prestigious domestic and international awards: twice receiving commendations from the Ministry of Finance for achievements in contributing to the development of the Vietnamese stock market and the Government bond market during the 2020-2024 period, contributing to the country's socio-economic development; and honored to receive the 'Best Securities Brokerage Vietnam 2024' award for three consecutive years from Global Banking & Finance Review magazine.

Stepping into 2025, BSC anticipates robust GDP growth, with the primary driver shifting from trade to domestic growth stimulation. Inflation is forecasted to remain under control as pressure factors have eased, creating room for continued monetary policy easing domestically. However, global geopolitical risks persist, posing challenges and uncertainties for the economic outlook in 2025. Additionally, policies under Trump 2.0 could potentially drive U.S. inflation back up, indirectly slowing down or bringing an early end to the FED's rate-cutting cycle.

With the vision and mission of a strong financial institution, along with the support and trust of our esteemed shareholders, partners and customers, BSC is ready to embrace new opportunities and gradually achieve its goals in the upcoming phase. We confidently build upon our past achievements, maintain a spirit of innovation and creativity, and seize every development opportunity to successfully fulfill our business objectives for 2025, delivering sustainable financial value to our customers, partners, and shareholders.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, the Executive Management, and all employees of BSC, I extend my sincere gratitude to our esteemed Customers, Partners, and Shareholders for their unwavering support over the past 25 years. Your trust is a valuable asset and a driving force that motivates BSC to commit to greater efforts and achieve even more outstanding results in 2025.

Wishing you good health and great success!

General Director

Nguyen Duy Vien

BUSINESS REPORT 2024

01 Business environment

02 Business performance in 2024

BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT

I. Economic developments in 2024

1. GDP

In 2024, GDP grew steadily each quarter, at 5.87%, 7.09%, 7.40%, and 7.55% y/y, respectively, resulting in an annual GDP growth of +7.09% y/y – the second highest growth rate in the past five years, following 2022. Among the GDP components, Services maintained the highest proportion and contributed the most to GDP growth (+7.38% y/y growth, contributing 3.26 percentage points). The Industry and Construction component, particularly the Industry component (within Industry and Construction), recorded a remarkable growth of +8.32% y/y, contributing 2.49 percentage points to GDP growth, thanks to the strong recovery of import and export activities. However, the significant contribution came from the trade sector, which has not yet achieved high spillover effects. Consumer spending growth in 2024 remained low (+8.96% y/y).

2. Inflation

In December 2024, CPI reached +2.94% y/y; in December 2024 core CPI reached +2.85% y/y; the average annual CPI and core CPI for 2024 were +3.63% y/y and +2.71% y/y, respectively. 2024 inflation remained under control due to: (1) domestic gasoline and oil prices decreasing in line with global oil prices; (2) domestic rice prices decreasing in line with export rice prices after the Indian government lifted its rice export ban in late September 2024.

3. Interest rate

In Market I, where transactions between financial institutions, businesses, and individuals take place, credit growth experienced a significant recovery starting in May 2024, while deposit growth remained low compared to credit growth and its historical levels. As of the end of December 2024, credit growth was estimated to reach 15.08% YTD (same period 2023: approximately +13.8% YTD), and deposit growth was estimated to reach +9.1% YTD (same period 2023: approximately +13.2% YTD). This disparity led to a bottoming-out trend in deposit interest rates, which gradually increased from Q2/2024 onward. However, on the positive side, lending interest rates were maintained at a low level (even lower than the COVID-19 period).

Source: FiinProX, BSC Research

Interbank interest rates surged from late March 2024, rising from the 0%–3% range to the 4%–6% range after the State Bank of Vietnam sold USD to stabilize the exchange rate. Additionally, localized liquidity shortages at some banks also contributed to the increase in interbank interest rates.

To stabilize the exchange rate, the SBV has been regulating liquidity through open market operations, injecting and withdrawing funds since the beginning of Q2 2024.

4. Exchange rate

The average USD/VND exchange rate in 2024 increased by approximately 5% y/y due to:

- 1 The DXY index maintaining a high level due to the FED's slower interest rate cuts compared to other major central banks globally, as well as expectations of a stronger USD stemming from policies under Donald Trump.
- 2 Domestic demand for USD surged to support trade activities from late Q2/2024 onward.
- 3 Rising gold prices and limited domestic gold supply led to VND outflows into the gold market. Furthermore, the domestic gold price being higher than the global price triggered USD demand for gold smuggling activities.

Chart 5: Domestic exchange rate trends

Source: FiinProX, BSC Research

To stabilize the exchange rate and the gold market, the State Bank of Vietnam has implemented the following measures:

- 1 Conducting a flexible monetary policy, regulating liquidity in the open market operations.
- 2 Selling spot foreign currency and intervening in the gold market. By the end of 2024, the State Bank of Vietnam had sold 9.1 billion USD, bringing foreign exchange reserves to approximately 80 billion USD.

5. Fiscal policy

Chart 7: Projected State budget balance 2025 – 2027

Source: BSC Research

State budget revenue in 2024 surpassed projections, reflecting economic recovery and effective revenue management efforts. All state budget revenue sectors basically met and exceeded assigned estimates. In particular, domestic revenue is estimated to reach 1,572.7 trillion VND, exceeding 8.9% of the estimate; Crude oil revenue reached 59.3 trillion VND, exceeding 28.9% of the estimate; Balanced revenue from import and export activities reached 235.2 trillion VND, exceeding 15.3% of the estimate. The amount of taxes, fees, charges and land rent that were exempted, reduced, and extended is estimated at 189.6 trillion VND, contributing to relieving difficulties for people and businesses.

Furthermore, personal income tax also recorded an impressive increase due to revenue from real estate and securities transfers, and effective management of income sources from digital platforms, e-commerce, and livestream sales. Additionally, the 2% VAT reduction resulted in an estimated 17.3 trillion VND decrease in revenue for the first 11 months of 2024. However, the overall budget revenue still recorded positive figures, indicating the recovery of the economy.

State budget expenditure in 2024 did not show many breakthroughs. Accumulated to the end of October 2024, disbursement of public investment capital plans only reached 54% of the total capital plan assigned in 2024.

6. Commercial

Exports and imports rebounded strongly from the decline in 2023, and recorded impressive growth in 2024. Specifically, exports increased by 14.3% year-over-year (y/y); imports increased by 16.7% y/y; the trade balance surplus was 24.8 billion USD.

In 2024, exports reached 405.5 billion USD (+14.3% y/y). Exports from the FDI sector reached 289.2 billion USD (accounting for 71.3% - growth of +12.5% y/y).

II. Review of the stock market in 2024

Two contrasting shades

The Vietnamese stock market in 2024 recorded two contrasting shades. The first half of the year was explosive with a growth of over 10% for the VN-Index. Liquidity peaked at over 21 trillion VND/session (858 million USD). However, the prosperous picture quickly gave way to a lull in the second half of the year. The VN-Index entered a sideways state, fluctuating between 1,200 and 1,300 points, despite numerous attempts to break through the resistance. Notably, market liquidity also cooled down significantly. The average trading value reached only about 18 trillion VND/session, signaling a growing caution in investor sentiment.

Individual investors active early in the year, quiet by year-end; foreign investors remain subdued

In 2024, foreign investors recorded a record net selling of over 90 trillion VND, equivalent to 3.54 billion USD, due to the global capital shift towards developed markets. However, domestic individual investors became the main demand force, helping the market maintain liquidity. Although this cash flow somewhat decreased by the end of the year due to pressure from issuances and the attractiveness of other investment channels, the prospects of market upgrading and the wave of public investment disbursements in 2025 promise to create new momentum. The government is accelerating public investment, expecting to create a spillover effect and boost market growth.

BUSINESS PERFORMANCE IN 2024

Amidst complex global economic and political landscape, Vietnam's economy was managed stably, inflation was controlled below 4%, and major balances were ensured. However, some challenges remained, such as exchange rate pressure and credit growth reaching 11%, lower than the set target of 15%. Faced with pressures from the global economy, the market experienced significant fluctuations within the 1,100–1,300 range, along with a sharp decline in liquidity in the final months of the year. Despite these challenges, BSC maintained positive business performance, managed risks effectively to safeguard capital, and achieved strong results across various operations.

2. Business result in 2024

Following a period of growth in the first quarter, the Vietnamese stock market entered a correction phase from April due to record net selling by foreign investors and exchange rate pressures. At the close of the trading session on December 31, 2024, VN-Index reached 1,266.78 points, an increase of 12% compared to the end of 2023. In the last six months of the year, market liquidity significantly decreased, averaging 17,675 billion VND/session (down 27% compared to the first six months of 2024, which averaged 24,600 billion VND/session), reflecting investor caution. For the full year 2024, the average trading value of the market reached 21,017 billion VND/session, up 19% compared to the 2023 average. The corporate bond market saw a recovery, although it still faced many difficulties.

In 2024, despite facing challenges from an unfavorable business environment, BSC successfully achieved its dual goals: maintaining profit growth and successfully transforming to a new organizational model. INVESTMENT BANKING SERVICES

Strong growth amid challenging market conditions

BSC's investment banking services in 2024 faced numerous challenges; however, from the second half of the second quarter, these activities showed signs of recovery with capital arrangement advisory contracts for joint-stock commercial banks and major enterprises such as Tien Phong Commercial Joint Stock Bank (TPB), Military Commercial Joint Stock Bank (MBB), and Becamex IDC Corporation. Accumulated for 2024, Financial Advisory revenue reached 14.4 billion VND, an increase of 124% compared to 2023.

INVESTMENT & CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

Efficient capital regulation and utilization, enhancing investment yield

In 2024, amidst market fluctuations, BSC successfully capitalized on market uptrends and effectively managed risks during downturns. In 2024, profits from financial assets recorded through profit or loss (FVTPL) and held-to-maturity (HTM) assets reached 320 billion VND.

Investment activities consist of two main segments:

- Equity and structured product investments: In 2024, BSC effectively seized market opportunities and focused on investing in equities of companies with strong business growth. Equity investments in 2024 contributed a significant portion to the profit structure, with a return on investment of 22.4%, significantly higher than the VN-Index growth rate (up 12%).

Additionally, BSC continued its warrant issuance activities based on underlying stocks such as ACB, FPT, HPG, MWG, TCB, etc. Concurrently, BSC implemented proactive market-making measures to provide investors with high-leverage and high-liquidity investment products.

- Bond and other valuable paper investments: In 2024, government bond and valuable paper trading activities faced challenges as government bond interest rates maintained an upward trend for almost the first five months of the year, with very little adjustment. In addition to investing for interest rate spread, bonds and certificates of deposit are high-security assets invested by BSC to serve capital mobilization activities, meeting the Company's business activities fully, promptly, and effectively.

DEVELOPMENT STRATEGY 2025

02 Business operation strategy for 2025

MARKET OUTLOOK IN 2025

I. Economic Outlook for 2025

1. GDP

Looking ahead to 2025, BSC anticipates continued robust GDP growth, with the primary driver shifting from trade to domestic growth stimulation. Several initiatives have been and are currently being implemented to prepare for this growth momentum, including:

Vietnam's macroeconomic landscape currently supports growth targets. Inflation in 2025 is expected to remain under control, as factors exerting upward pressure on inflation such as gasoline prices, rice prices, etc. are moderating compared to 2024. This creates room for further monetary policy easing in the country.

However, there are uncertainties at the present time that require observation in the future, notably the potential for Trump 2.0 policies to cause US inflation to resurge, indirectly causing the FED's rate cut pace to slow down or end earlier.

Chart 9: GDP growth forecast for 2025

Source: BSC Research

- 1 Vietnam is pursuing a comprehensive revolution across three fronts—institutional reform, human resource development, and infrastructure enhancement—to achieve its double-digit GDP growth target
- 2 Elevated public investment disbursement plan. On December 4, 2024, the Prime Minister issued Decision No. 1508/QĐ-TTg regarding the allocation of the 2025 State Budget capital investment plan, which includes Development Investment Expenditure of VND 790.7 trillion, a +16.7% year-over-year increase—the second-highest rise in recent years, following 2023 (+38.1% year-over-year). We also anticipate that with a stabilized institutional framework and streamlined apparatus, public investment disbursement will be more efficient
- 3 The Government continues to support domestic consumption. Since 2022, the Government has reduced the VAT rate from 10% to 8%, and this policy has been extended to the present. On November 30, 2024, the National Assembly approved the continued 2% VAT reduction for the first half of 2025, applicable to the same groups of goods as in 2022

BSC's GDP Forecast for 2025:

+6.5% +7.4%

Scenario 1: GDP grows y/y

Scenario 2: GDP grows y/y

2. Inflation

In 2025, BSC forecasts that inflation will remain under control due to:

Global oil prices are forecast to remain low due to (1) weak Chinese economic growth; (2) increased US production; and (3) Mr. Donald Trump's stated intention to repeal regulations hindering oil, gas, and coal extraction. These factors create momentum for domestic gasoline and oil prices to continue at low levels (Chart 06).

Domestic rice prices decreased in line with export rice prices after the Indian government lifted the ban on rice exports from late September 2024 (Chart 07).

BSC forecasts the 2025 average CPI to range between 3.18% and 4.44%, based on the following assumptions:

Scenario 1: The average CPI in 2025 is expected to be 4.44% y/y	Scenario 2: The average CPI in 2025 is expected to be 3.18% y/y
Brent oil price at 92 USD/barrel (highest Bloomberg consensus value)	Brent oil price at 73.69 USD/barrel (average Bloomberg consensus value)

3. Interest rate

BSC forecasts that the interest rate in the interbank market is likely to remain stable or slightly increase, with the average 12-month deposit rate at 5% - 5.5%, based on:

- 1 The global monetary policy easing cycle has been and is currently underway (albeit slower than anticipated).
- 2 Inflation in 2025 is expected to remain under control, creating favorable conditions for the State Bank of Vietnam to maintain an accommodative monetary policy.
- 3 Accelerated public investment disbursement helps improve money supply growth. (Money supply growth as of December 25, 2024, reached +9.42% YTD, the second-lowest growth rate after 2022 in the 2019 - 2024 period).

4. Exchange rate

Favorable factors for exchange rates in 2025

- 1 Expectations that the FED will continue its accommodative monetary policy (albeit potentially slower than anticipated). The disparity in interest rate cut speeds between the FED and major central banks globally is narrowing.
- 2 Trade surpluses and FDI inflows into Vietnam will improve the domestic USD supply-demand imbalance.
- 3 Vietnam's tourism industry is recovering.

Factors driving exchange rate increases in 2025

Strict policies under Donald Trump could drive U.S. economic growth alongside a resurgence in inflation. This may lead FED to slow down interest rate cuts more than expected.

BSC forecasts the average USD/VND exchange rate for 2025 as follows:

5. Fiscal policy

Rapid growth in State budget revenue, coupled with sluggish progress in State Budget expenditure, has resulted in a substantial amount of unreleased funds within the economy. In conjunction with the 2025 State budget plan, which allocates a projected VND 790.7 trillion for development investment expenditure, accounting for 31% of total State Budget expenditure, it is evident that policymakers possess both the space and the tools to pursue economic stimulus. Once capital bottlenecks within the economy are cleared, the impact of fiscal policy through public investment disbursement will yield positive outcomes and generate ripple effects across numerous sectors of the economy.

6. Commercial

Favorable factors for Vietnam's trade:

- 1 Demand in Vietnam's major export markets is mostly recovering (except for China).
- 2 There may be a surge in imports from the United States before President Donald Trump's tariffs on imported goods are officially implemented.
- 3 Low inventory growth in the United States.
- 4 In the event that President Donald Trump's tariffs primarily target China, leading to a more severe US-China trade war, Vietnam could continue to benefit from the "China +1", "China Hedging +1", and "Friend-shoring" trends (Refer to the brief report on the US-China Trade War 2024).
- 5 China, Vietnam's largest import market, is currently experiencing (1) overproduction and (2) weak domestic consumer demand. The export prices of Chinese goods have decreased significantly (Chart 32), which does not put pressure on Vietnam's production or inflation.

Adverse factors for Vietnam's trade:

- 1 Tariff policies on all imported goods by US President Donald Trump.
- 2 Geopolitical instability in the Middle East region, which could cause supply chain disruptions.

7. FDI

Looking ahead to 2025 and beyond: Short-term headwinds, such as Donald Trump's trade policies and the global minimum tax, may have negative short-term impacts on FDI inflows.

However, in the medium to long term, the trend of FDI capital flows to Vietnam will remain due to:

- 01 The "China + 1" trend continues, with businesses shifting production and supply chains outside of China.
- 02 The "China + 1 hedging" trend will continue to expand, as even Chinese businesses relocate abroad due to concerns about tariffs from Western countries, particularly the United States, on China.
- 03 The government has recognized the issues related to the global minimum tax and is developing appropriate policies to attract FDI flows.
- 04 Vietnam has significantly improved infrastructure, a golden age workforce, an increasing number of skilled workers, combined with a stable political foundation, participation in many free trade agreements (FTAs), and good bilateral relations with major economic powers around the world.

II. 2025 Stock Market: VN-Index – Initial Challenges, Subsequent Prosperity

Based on the global and domestic economic context, along with macroeconomic factors, policies, and market trends, BSC Research presents the main arguments for the outlook of the Vietnamese stock market in 2025:

1 Driving force from the "institution, human resources, infrastructure" revolution

Significant institutional reforms, development of high-quality human resources, and strong investment in infrastructure are creating a solid foundation for economic development. Large-scale projects such as Long Thanh Airport and the North-South Expressway enhance the attractiveness of the stock market.

2 Macroeconomic recovery momentum and low interest rate environment

Alongside clear signs of macroeconomic recovery, stable inflation control, and sustained low interest rates continue to be favorable factors, creating conditions for capital inflows into the stock market.

3 Stock market upgrade prospects

Vietnam is gradually addressing remaining issues to meet the criteria for upgrading to the FTSE Secondary Emerging Market. Circular 68/TT-BTC has removed the prefunding bottleneck. In parallel, the amended Securities Law, the new trading system, and the resolution of foreign ownership limits are key reforms that create an important foundation to attract foreign capital and promote the development of the stock market.

Challenges in the early year, growth acceleration in the latter half

The 2025 stock market is expected to show a clear divergence between the two halves of the year. In the first half, investor caution, concerns about tariff risks, the unknown of Trump 2.0 policies, and the time needed for effective streamlining of the government apparatus are expected to lead to a challenging stock market with sideways fluctuations or corrections. However, as the latter half of the year approaches, policies promoting infrastructure investment, market upgrades, and the removal of institutional bottlenecks are expected to support economic recovery, potentially creating momentum for positive market growth.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS REPORT

I. Company performance in 2024

1. Social-Economic context in 2024

In 2024, the global economy continued its recovery, with an estimated growth rate of 3.2%, similar to the previous year (according to the International Monetary Fund – IMF). However, this recovery momentum was uneven across regions, reflecting a clear divergence between developed and developing economies, as well as between the service and manufacturing sectors. A notable highlight was the downward trend of inflation in many countries, particularly in the US and the EU, creating room for central banks to adjust monetary policy towards easing to support growth and stabilize financial markets. In this context, the Federal Reserve System (FED) and the European Central Bank (ECB) began implementing several interest rate cuts from the second half of 2024, contributing to growth support.

However, the global economy continues to face a series of significant challenges. Geopolitical tensions in Ukraine and the Middle East continue to escalate, disrupting energy supply chains and pushing oil prices higher, directly impacting inflation and growth. Meanwhile, technological and trade competition between the US and China is intensifying, with export control measures affecting global supply chains. In addition, public debt issues, climate change, and financial and monetary risks remain major concerns for many countries, especially emerging economies.

In this context, Vietnam still recorded a GDP growth rate of 7.09%, the second highest in the past five years. The main driving force came from the service sector with an increase of 7.38%, thanks to the strong recovery of tourism and domestic consumption. The industrial sector also recorded an increase of 8.32%, thanks to the recovery of production and export activities, especially in areas such as electronics and components, machinery and equipment, agricultural and aquatic products, and textiles. The total import and export turnover of goods reached 786.3 billion USD, an increase of 15.4% compared to the previous year, of which exports increased by 14.3% and imports increased by 16.7%, with the US continuing to be Vietnam's largest export market. However, the growth rate of domestic consumption has not yet reached the expected level, only at 8.96%, indicating that people's purchasing power has not truly broken through.

The Vietnamese stock market in 2024 experienced numerous fluctuations due to the intertwined impact of domestic and international factors. The VN-Index fluctuated within the range of 1,200 – 1,300 points, supported by favorable monetary policy and domestic capital flows, which played an important role in maintaining market stability. However, record net selling pressure from foreign investors, reaching VND 92,565 billion, reflected the cautious sentiment of foreign investors in the face of global economic uncertainties and the interest rate differential between domestic and international markets. Simultaneously, efforts from the Ministry of Finance and the State Securities Commission of Vietnam (SSC) to remove barriers, improve transparency, and promote market upgrade progress created noteworthy positive signals. However, the impact of monetary policies from major central banks, along with global macroeconomic fluctuations, remained a pressure factor on the market, causing the Vietnamese stock market in 2024 to experience many fluctuations and not achieve the expected breakthrough.

III. Board of Directors' Activity Plan for 2025

As Vietnam enters 2025, the economy is poised for opportunities, driven by the synchronized implementation of key economic policies and numerous large-scale public investment projects. Notably, the stock market anticipates a substantial boost from the official launch of the KRX system and expectations of an upgrade from a frontier market to an emerging market. Strategic legal reforms, combined with momentum from major infrastructure projects, could usher in a new phase of economic growth. The potential market upgrade is not only expected to attract foreign capital inflows but also to strengthen investor confidence and promote sustainable long-term growth.

In addition to opportunities, the global economy will face major challenges in 2025. New US tariff and protectionist policies may lead to retaliation between major powers, causing instability and changing the structure of global trade and investment flows. This will especially affect economies with large export proportions, including Vietnam, making the global trade environment more complicated and unpredictable.

The application of tariffs and import barriers can significantly reduce consumption demand in the US market, threatening Vietnam's export capacity. In addition, if these changes persist for a long time, they will affect FDI inflows, the balance of payments, foreign exchange reserves and the ability to create jobs and income in key export industries. This will not only affect businesses but also increase pressure on Vietnam's macro economy.

In this context, BSC aims to continue maintaining stable business operations, enhance its competitiveness, and solidify its position as one of Vietnam's leading securities companies. To realize this vision, the Board of Directors (BOD) is committed to closely collaborating with the Board of Management, setting strategic directions, and driving business activities through the following key priorities:

Strengthening supervisory and executive capacity: Enhancing the effectiveness of the Board of Directors' guidance to ensure the efficient and flexible implementation of the business plan in response to market volatility.

Flexible adaptation, performance optimization: Closely monitoring economic and financial developments to provide timely solutions, increase operational efficiency, optimize profits, and maximize shareholder value.

Strong investment in technology and innovation: Accelerating digital transformation, upgrading information technology infrastructure to provide advanced financial products and services that meet market demands.

Expanding strategic partnerships: Maximizing the advantages from strategic shareholders to expand market share, enhance market position, and increase sustainable value for the Company.

Building a modern corporate culture: Developing a professional working environment, focusing on risk control, improving labor productivity and employee welfare, while also fulfilling social responsibilities sustainably.

With a comprehensive strategy and a proactive approach to market trends, BSC remains committed to delivering outstanding value to shareholders, clients, and the broader community, reaffirming its pioneering role in Vietnam's securities market.

Furthermore, the BOD conducted 140 written consultations in 2024 to decide on matters within its jurisdiction.

In its leadership role—setting directions, overseeing, and managing business activities—the BOD issued 179 Resolutions/Decisions across various operational aspects, providing a strategic foundation for the Board of Management to implement effectively.

Management by the General Director

Together with the Board of Management, the CEO has effectively directed the company in fully and promptly implementing the Resolutions and Decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders (AGM) and the Board of Directors (BOD). Despite market volatility, the CEO has made efforts to maintain business operations at a positive level, proactively planning and managing business activities while optimizing organizational and corporate governance efficiency.

Given the fluctuations in the stock market affecting business plan execution, the CEO has regularly and promptly reported to the BOD on operational results, challenges, and obstacles in business activities. At the same time, the CEO has proactively made management decisions to minimize losses and maximize the company's profits.

The BOD and CEO have ensured the timely and complete provision of documents, resolutions/decisions of the BOD, and other materials necessary for the Board of Supervisors (SB). Representatives of the SB have been invited to attend BOD meetings, providing independent opinions to ensure that decisions are optimized for maintaining the rights and interests of shareholders and stakeholders.

The BOS reviewed and confirmed the figures in the semi-annual and annual financial statements and financial safety ratio reports for 2024. It also provided feedback to the Board of Management to enhance the accuracy, transparency, and consistency of financial reporting.

The financial statements and financial safety ratio reports complied with current regulations and were audited by a reputable independent auditing firm, ensuring they accurately and truthfully reflected the Company's financial position at each reporting period. These reports were timely disclosed in compliance with listing regulations.

2.5. Supervision and Evaluation of the Internal Control, Internal Audit, Risk Management, and Early Warning Systems

In 2024, the Board of Supervisors conducted periodic reviews and monitoring of the company's operations. Through this process, the Board identified potential issues and risks, providing recommendations to the Board of Directors (BOD) and the Board of Management for timely corrective actions.

Additionally, the Board of Supervisors assessed the effectiveness and efficiency of the internal control system, internal audit, risk management, and early warning mechanisms. Based on these evaluations, it proposed solutions to enhance operational efficiency and minimize risks for the company.

2.6. Review of Related-Party Transactions

In 2024, the company engaged in contracts/transactions with four related parties. Upon review, these contracts/transactions were identified as service agreements and regular transactions with BIDV or related parties, aimed at coordinating service provision to customers and expanding cross-selling activities.

These transactions were conducted in a manner that safeguarded BSC's interests, contributed to increasing the company's capital resources, and enhanced cooperation in sales with related parties. As a result, they played a role in boosting the company's profitability and shareholder value.

(Details provided in the attached Appendix.)

II. Orientation for 2025 Activities

Based on its functions and responsibilities as outlined in the Company's Charter and the Board of Supervisors's organizational and operational regulations, the Board of Supervisors has identified the following key focus areas for 2025:

- Supervise compliance with legal regulations, the Company Charter, business operations, corporate governance, and management activities of the Board of Directors (BOD) and the General Director and assess the effectiveness of the internal control, internal audit and risk management departments.
- Monitor the implementation of the 2025 General Meeting of Shareholders (AGM) resolutions.
- Participate in and provide input at meetings of the AGM and BOD as required.

- Oversee the issuance and amendment of internal corporate documents to ensure compliance with regulatory requirements or legal updates.

III. Recommendations for 2025

Based on the results of monitoring Company activities in 2024, the BOS provides the following recommendations for 2025:

The unpredictable geopolitical conflicts among major powers and the risks associated with U.S. trade policies toward Vietnam are expected to continue posing challenges and volatility for the economy and stock market in 2025. Therefore, BSC must maintain flexibility in management, promptly update market information, analyze trends, and implement timely response strategies to successfully achieve the targets set by the AGM.

BSC should continue fostering comprehensive cooperation with its strategic partner, Hana Securities, in professional expertise, governance, digital transformation, and product/service development. Additionally, leveraging Hana Securities' Korean client network will help maximize benefits for the company and its shareholders.

BSC should continue investing in upgrading its IT infrastructure to improve system functionality, enhance stability and security, and integrate new trading utilities, products, and digital services. These improvements will elevate customer experience and service quality.

BSC must reinforce internal audits, compliance monitoring, and risk management to identify, assess, and proactively mitigate potential risks in business operations. Timely detection and preventive measures will ensure operational stability and sustainable growth.

4. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

4.1 Changes in accounting policies

The accounting policies used by the Company to prepare the financial statements have been applied consistently with those used to prepare the financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2023.

4.2 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand, cash at banks, bank deposits for sale of underwritten securities and deposits for clearance and settlement of securities transactions of the Company and short-term, highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and that are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value.

4.3 Financial assets at fair value through profit and loss (“FVTPL”)

Financial assets recognized at fair value through profit and loss are financial assets that satisfy either of the following conditions:

a) It is classified as held for trading. A financial asset is classified as held for trading if:

- ▶ It is acquired or incurred principally for the purpose of selling or repurchasing it in the near term;
- ▶ There is evidence of a recent actual pattern of short-term profit-taking; or
- ▶ It is a derivative (except derivative that is a financial guarantee contract or effective hedging instrument).

b) Upon initial recognition, a financial asset is designated by the entity as at fair value through profit and loss as it meets one of the following criteria:

- ▶ The classification eliminates or significantly reduces the inconsistent treatment that would otherwise arise from measuring the asset or recognizing gains or losses on a different basis; or
- ▶ The financial assets are part of a group of financial assets which are managed and their performance is evaluated on a fair value basis, in accordance with the Company’s risk management policy or investment strategy.

Financial assets at FVTPL are initially recognized at cost (acquisition cost of the assets excluding transaction cost arising from the purchase) and subsequently recognized at fair value.

Increase in the difference arising from revaluation of financial assets at FVTPL in comparison with the previous year is recognized into the income statement under “Gain from revaluation of financial assets at FVTPL”. Decrease in the difference arising from revaluation of financial assets at FVTPL in comparison with the previous year is recognized into the income statement under “Loss from revaluation of financial assets at FVTPL”.

Transaction costs relating to the purchase of the financial assets at FVTPL are recognized when incurred as expenses in the income statement.

as at 31 December 2024 and for the year then ended

4. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)4.4 Held-to-maturity investments ("HTM")

Held-to-maturity investments are non-derivative financial assets with determinable payments and fixed maturity that an entity has the positive intention and ability to hold to maturity, except for:

- a) Those that the entity upon initial recognition designates as at fair value through profit or loss;
- b) Those that the entity designates as available for sale; and
- c) Those meet the definition of loans and receivables.

HTM financial investments are recognized initially at cost (acquisition cost of the assets plus (+) transaction costs which are directly attributable to the investments such as brokerage fee, trading fee, agent fee, issuance agency fee and banking transaction fee). After initial recognition, HTM financial investments are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate.

Amortized cost of HTM financial investments is the amount at which the financial asset is measured at initial recognition minus (-) principal repayments, plus (+) or minus (-) the cumulative amortization using the effective interest method of any difference between that initial amount and the maturity amount, and minus (-) any reduction for impairment or irrecoverability (if any).

The effective interest rate method is a method of calculating the cost allocation on interest income or interest expense in the year of a financial asset or a group of HTM investments.

The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash payments or receipts through the expected life of the financial instrument or, when appropriate, a shorter term to the net carrying amount of the financial assets or financial liabilities.

HTM investments are subjected to an assessment of impairment at the financial statement date. Provision is made for an HTM investment when there is any objective evidence that the investment is irrecoverable or there is uncertainty of recoverability, resulting from one or more events that has occurred after the initial recognition of the investment and that event have an impact on the estimated future cash flows of the investment that can be reliably estimated. Evidence of impairment may include a drop in the fair value/market value of the debt, indications that the debtors or a group of debtors are experiencing significant financial difficulty, default or delinquency in interest or principal payments, the probability that they will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation and where observable data indicates that there is a measurable decrease in the estimated future cash flows, such as changes in arrears or economic conditions that correlate with defaults. When there is any evidence of impairment, provision for an HTM investment is determined as the negative difference between its fair value and amortized cost at the assessment date. Any increase/decrease in the balance of provision is recognized in the income statement under "Provision expense for diminution in value and impairment of financial assets and doubtful receivables and borrowing costs of loans".

as at 31 December 2024 and for the year then ended

4. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)4.5 Loans

Loans are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or identifiable payments and not listed on the market, excepted for:

- a) The amounts the Company has the intent to immediately sell or will sell in a near future which are classified as assets held for trading, and like those which, upon initial recognition, the Company categorized as such recognized at fair value through profit or loss;
- b) The amounts categorized by the Company as available for sale upon initial recognition; or
- c) The amounts whose holders cannot recover most of the initial investment value not due to credit quality impairment and which are categorized as available for sale.

Loans are initially recognized at cost. After initial recognition, loans are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method.

Amortized cost of loans is the amount at which the loan is measured at initial recognition minus (-) principal repayments, plus (+) or minus (-) the cumulative amortization using the effective interest method of any difference between that initial amount and the maturity amount, and minus (-) any reduction for impairment or un-collectability (if any).

Loans are subject to an assessment of impairment at the financial statement date. Provision for loans is made based on estimated loss, which is calculated as the difference between the market value of the securities used as collateral for the loan and the loan balance. Any increase/decrease in the balance of provision is recognized in the income statement under "Provision expense for diminution in value and impairment of financial assets and doubtful receivables and borrowing costs of loans".

4.6 Available-for-sale ("AFS")

Available-for-sale financial assets are those non-derivative financial assets that are designated as available for sale or are not classified as:

- a) Loans and receivables;
- b) Held-to-maturity investments; or
- c) Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss.

Available-for-sale financial assets are recognized initially at cost (acquisition cost of the assets plus (+) transaction costs which are directly attributable to the purchase of the financial assets). After initial recognition, available-for-sale financial assets are subsequently measured at fair value.

Difference arising from the revaluation of AFS financial assets in comparison with previous year is recognized under "Gain/(loss) from revaluation of AFS financial assets" in "Other comprehensive income after tax" which is a part of the income statement.

At the financial statements date, the Company assessed whether there is any objective evidence that an AFS financial asset is impaired. Any increase/decrease in the balance of provision is recognized in the income statement under "Provision expenses for diminution in value and impairment of financial assets and doubtful debts and borrowing costs of loans".

Where an equity instrument is classified as available-for-sale, evidence of impairment includes a significant or prolonged decline in the fair value of the investment below its original cost. “Significant” is to be evaluated against the original cost of the asset and “prolonged” indicates the period in which the fair value has been below its original cost. When any evidence of impairment exists, provision is determined as the difference between the AFS asset’s cost and fair value at the assessment date. Where a debt instrument is classified as available-for-sale, the assessment of impairment is conducted using the same criteria as those applied for HTM investments. When there is any evidence of impairment, provision for an AFS asset is determined as the negative difference between its fair value and amortized cost at the assessment date.

4.7 Fair value/market value of financial assets

Fair value/market value of the securities is determined as follows:

- ▶ For securities listed on Hanoi Stock Exchange and Ho Chi Minh City Stock Exchange, their market prices are their closing prices on the trading day preceding the date of setting up the revaluation;
- ▶ For unlisted securities registered for trading on the Unlisted Public Company Market (“UPCoM”), their market prices are the closing price on the most recent trading days up to the date of securities valuation;
- ▶ For delisted securities and suspended trading securities from the sixth day afterward, their prices are the book value at the latest financial report date;
- ▶ The actual market price for unlisted securities and securities unregistered for trading on the Unlisted Public Company Market (“UPCoM”) is the actual trading prices of the latest transaction on over-the-counter (“OTC”) market, based on the most recent financial statements of issuers as at the date of financial statements;

For securities which do not have reference price from the above sources, the revaluation is determined based on the financial performance and the book value of securities issuers as at the assessment date.

For the purpose of determining CIT taxable profit, the tax bases of financial assets are determined by cost minus (-) provision for diminution in value. Accordingly, market value of securities for provision purpose is determined in accordance with Circular No. 48/2019/TT-BTC and Circular No. 24/2022/TT-BTC amending and supplementing several articles of Circular No. 48/2019/TT-BTC (“Circular 48”).

Subjects of provisioning do not include government bonds, government-guaranteed bonds, and municipal bonds.

as at 31 December 2024 and for the year then ended

4. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

4.8 Reclassification of financial assets

Reclassification when selling financial assets other than FVTPL

When selling financial assets other than FVTPL, securities companies are required to reclassify those financial assets to financial assets at FVTPL. The difference arising from the revaluation of financial assets AFS which is recognized in “Difference from revaluation of assets at fair value” will be recognized as corresponding revenue or expenses at the date of reclassification of financial assets AFS for selling purpose.

Reclassification due to change in purpose or ability to hold

Securities companies are required to reclassify financial assets to their applicable categories if their purpose or ability to hold has changed, consequently:

- ▶ Non-derivative financial assets at FVTPL or financial assets that are not required to classify as financial asset at FVTPL at the initial recognition can be classified as loans and other receivables or as cash and cash equivalents if the requirements are met. The gains or losses arising from revaluation of financial assets at FVTPL prior to the reclassification are not allowed to be reversed.
- ▶ Due to changes in purposes or ability to hold, some HTM investments are required to be reclassified into AFS financial assets and to be reassessed at fair value. The difference arising from revaluation between carrying value and fair value are recognized under “Difference from revaluation of assets at fair value” in Owners’ equity.

4.9 Derecognition of financial assets

A financial asset (or part of a group of similar financial assets) is derecognized when:

- ▶ The rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired; or
- ▶ The Company has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a pass-through arrangement; and either:
 - The Company has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards accompanying the asset; or
 - The Company has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset but has transferred the right to use the asset.

When the Company has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from an asset or has entered a transfer arrangement; and has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset nor transferred control of the asset, the asset is recognized to the extent of the Company’s continuing involvement in the asset. In that case, the Company also recognizes an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Company has retained.

The continued participation in transferred assets in the form of guarantee will be recognized at smaller value between the initial carrying value of the assets and the maximum amount that the Company is required to pay.

31. CORPORATE INCOME TAX EXPENSES ("CIT")

The Company's tax reports are subject to examination by the tax authorities. As the application of tax laws and regulations is susceptible to varying interpretations, the amounts reported in the financial statements could change later upon final determination by the tax authorities.

The current CIT payable is determined based on the taxable income for the year. The taxable income differs from income reported in the income statement because it excludes incomes which are taxable or expenses which are deducted in other years due to the differences between the Company's accounting policies and current tax regulations, and it also excludes non-taxable income and non-deductible expenses. The Company's liability for current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted by the reporting date. 35. OTHER INFORMATION (continued)35.4 Purposes and policies of financial risk management (continued)*Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate with changes in market prices. Market prices have different types of risks: interest rate risk, currency risk, and stock price risk.

The Company manages market price risk by analyzing the sensitivity of factors affecting the Company's financial condition and results of operations as at the end of the fiscal year, diversifying its investment portfolio and being prudent in selecting securities to invest in within specified limits and taking hedging measures where necessary.

Interest risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The company has interest rate risk mainly related to bank deposits, loans and borrowing.

The Company manages interest rate risk by analyzing the competitive situation in the market in order to obtain interest rates that are most beneficial for the Company's purposes while remaining within the limits of risk management.

The Company's bank deposits, loans and borrowings all have fixed interest rates and short terms, so the risk due to fluctuating interest rates is negligible.

Stock price risk

The shares held by the Company are subject to market risks arising from uncertainty about the future value of investment shares. The Company manages stock price risk by setting investment limits and taking hedging measures when necessary. The Company's Investment Committee also reviews and approves investment decisions in stocks.

As at 31 December 2024, if stock prices rise/fall by 10% (as at 31 December 2023: 10%) while all other variables (including tax rates) remain unchanged, the Company's pre-tax profit will be higher/lower by approximately VND 79,323,460,298 (2023: higher/lower by roughly VND 11,649,342,228). The Company presents these shares in FVTPL and AFS financial asset.

35. OTHER INFORMATION (continued)35.4 Purposes and policies of financial risk management (continued)Market risk (continued)Currency risk

Currency risk is the risk that the value of financial instruments is altered resulting from changes in exchange rates. The Company manages currency risk by regularly monitoring the exchange rate situation and updating its cash flow plan in foreign currencies.

The Company's business is subject to risk from a number of foreign currencies, mainly from U.S. Dollars and Euros.

As at 31 December 2024 and 31 December 2023, the Company held only a small number of foreign currencies denominated in U.S. Dollars and Euros so currency risk was non-material.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will encounter difficulties in meeting financial obligations. The Company's exposure to liquidity risk arises when the Company is unable to meet its financial obligations as they fall due, primarily due to mismatches in the maturity terms of financial assets and liabilities. The maturity terms of financial assets and liabilities reflect the remaining period of financial assets and liabilities from the reporting date to the date of settlement set out in the contracts or terms of issuance. For FVTPL and AFS financial assets, the maturity terms are determined based on the liquidity of the assets (the ability to sell and purchase the assets in short term) on the market.

The Company monitors its liquidity risk by maintaining a level of cash and cash equivalents, borrowings deemed adequate by the Management to finance the Company's operations and to mitigate the effects of fluctuations in cash flows.
