REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS
AT ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS 2025

Dear: GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

The Board of Directors (“Board of Directors”) reports to the General Meeting of Shareholders (“GMS”) on the activities of the Board of Directors in 2024 and the strategic direction of operations in 2025 as follows:

PART I: SUMMARY REPORT ON THE ACTIVITIES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS IN 2024

I. GENERAL CONTEXT

1. Macroeconomics in 2024

- In 2024, the world economy will continue its slow and uneven recovery, with US GDP growth estimated at 2.8%, higher than forecasts from the beginning of the year. Meanwhile, China is still under pressure from the real estate market crisis and declining consumption. Although geopolitical instability in the Middle East and Eastern Europe has not ended, the risk of supply chain disruption has decreased and global trade flows are developing positively. In particular, inflation has been controlled in many countries around the world, creating conditions for central banks to enter a monetary easing cycle to stimulate the economy.
- In the context of many complicated developments in the world, Vietnam's economy in 2024 has grown strongly with growth maintaining an improving trend over the quarters. According to the General Statistics Office, Vietnam's GDP growth in 2024 reached 7.09%, the second highest in the ASEAN region and exceeding the target of 6.5%. Merchandise export turnover increased by 14.3% compared to 2023, with a trade surplus of nearly 25 billion USD. Vietnam attracted 38 billion USD of newly registered foreign investment capital, down 3%, but disbursed FDI reached a record level, up 9%, the highest ever. Stable inflation at 3.6% contributes to ensuring macroeconomic targets and supporting growth. However, the exchange rate is a notable issue as the dong depreciates 4.6% in 2024 amid the US dollar's continued strength.

2. Stock market in 2024:

- Vietnam's stock market closed 2024 at 1,266 points, up 12.1% compared to 2023. This is also the second consecutive year the market has had double-digit growth. This increase is a positive result when placed in the context of record foreign net withdrawal and international capital flows returning to the US market. Most of the market's gains occurred in the first quarter and it remained flat in a range of 1,200-1,300 points for the remaining three quarters of the year. Market capitalization reached 7.2 million billion VND, up 21.2% compared to the end of 2023, equivalent to 70.4% of GDP in 2023. Average market liquidity in 2024 will reach 21.1 trillion VND, up 19.9% compared to 2023, but liquidity will gradually decrease in the second half of 2024 along with the decline of VNIndex.
- The year 2024 marks the efforts of the management agency in the process of upgrading the market, including the issuance of Circular 68/2024-TT-BTC regulating the advance deposit of foreign institutional investors when trading and requiring information disclosure on the stock market. By the end of 2024, Vietnam had 9.2 million securities accounts, accounting for 9.3% of the population, exceeding the previously set target of 5%.

Thus, all the contents assigned by the 2024 Annual General Meeting of Shareholders were well completed and exceeded by the Company in 2024.

PART II: BOARD OF DIRECTORS' ACTIVITY PLAN IN 2025

1. Macroeconomic and stock market forecast in 2025

a. Macroeconomics in 2025

- In 2025, many forecasts recently published by world economic organizations show more optimism than the forecast for 2024. However, the world order is changing as President Donald Trump once again returns to the White House with more aggressive trade protectionist policies, which will likely negatively impact some partners with large trade surpluses with the US, including Vietnam.
- Domestically, 2025 really feels like a year marking the beginning of a new era for Vietnam. Efforts to reform institutions and streamline the apparatus are being vigorously implemented to prepare for a strong development cycle and enhance strategic competitive position in the global value chain. 2025 is the breakthrough year for the socio-economic development plan for the 2021-2025 period and is also the premise towards double-digit economic growth in the 2026-2030 period. In February, the Government set many challenging targets, including GDP growth of over 8%, reaching a scale of approximately 500 billion USD, of which production increased by over 9.7% and services increased by over 8.1%. Total social investment capital is about 174 billion US dollars, FDI is about 28 billion US dollars. The credit growth target was also raised to over 16%, CPI at 4-4.5%.
- The economic challenges this year include: First, the policies of the second term of US President Trump on tariffs and trade cooperation are difficult to predict, and will likely reduce Vietnam's export growth momentum. Second, exchange rate pressure is still present because the USD remains strong, so the SBV will need to balance short-term exchange rate risks and long-term growth targets, thereby making it difficult for interest rates to decrease, and may even tend to increase in 2025.

b. Stock Market in 2025

- A solid macro economy, active support policies, untied legal bottlenecks, a favorable interest rate environment combined with growth in business profits will be a solid foundation for a positive growth cycle of the stock market next year. Market supporting factors include:
 - ✓ Profit growth of listed enterprises is estimated at 18-19% in the 2025-2026 period, contributed by the stability of the banking and retail sectors, as well as the recovery from the bottom of the real estate and construction sectors.

- ✓ Vietnam is getting closer to the opportunity to join the group of emerging stock markets of FTSE and MSCI.
- ✓ Expectations that the US easing cycle will trigger foreign investment flows back to emerging stock markets, including Vietnam.
- However, the market may also face some risks in 2025 such as: The unpredictable management policies of the Trump 2.0 era may impact the world and Vietnam's economic prospects, possibly slowing down the FED's interest rate cuts, causing interest rates to stay high for a longer period of time, and putting pressure on exchange rates in the context of a weak VND.

2. Board of Directors' operational orientation in 2025

Based on the above comments, the Board of Directors orients the key operational strategies during the term as follows:

➤ Organization and management:

Improve the quality of the management and administration apparatus of the Board of Directors - Executive Board, strengthen the role of the Board of Directors and Supervisory Board in the new term, promote the role of subcommittees supporting the Board of Directors.

 - Build existing product development team, improve customer service.. Innovate processes and forms, shorten transaction time to serve customers fastest and best.
 - Promote joint ventures and partnerships with commercial banks, investment funds, etc. to exploit the customer ecosystem and provide a full package of securities products and services to customers.
- Building a plan to move headquarters:

- Along with the Company's orientation roadmap in the coming time, expanding the headquarters is a necessary requirement to enhance brand image promotion and commensurate with the Company's scale of operations. The Board of Directors will develop a specific plan for the relocation of the headquarters to be submitted to the General Meeting of Shareholders for approval.

In that spirit, the Board of Directors respectfully submits to the General Meeting for discussion, comments and approval of the contents of this report, and at the same time assigns the Board of Directors to organize and implement it. REPORT OF THE BOARD OF GENERAL DIRECTORS

At the 2025 Annual General Meeting of Shareholders

On Business Results for 2024 & Business Plan for 2025

Dear Distinguished Delegates!

Dear Shareholders!

On behalf of the Board of Directors of Bao Minh Securities Company, I would like to report to the 2025 Annual General Meeting of Shareholders on the company's business performance in 2024 and its business plan for 2025, as outlined below:

PART I: BUSINESS PERFORMANCE IN 2024

1. The Vietnamese Stock Market in 2024:

- The stock market in 2024 recorded a positive recovery. By the end of the year, the VN-Index reached 1,266.78 points, up 12% compared to the end of 2023. Market capitalization increased by 20%, reaching 7,080 trillion VND, equivalent to 70% of the estimated 2023 GDP.
- Among them, the indices of many sectors recorded outstanding growth. Leading the way are Telecommunications (+242%), Industry (+81%), and Information Technology (+80%). In terms of sectors with large market capitalization, the Banking sector (which accounts for 30% of capitalization) grew by 24%. Following that, the Industry sector (which accounts for 12%) achieved a growth rate of 81%. In contrast, the Real Estate sector (also accounting for 12%) had a difficult year, with only a 1% increase compared to 2023.
- Market liquidity improved significantly compared to the previous year, with the average trading value reaching approximately 21,000 billion VND per session, up 19% compared to 2023. The average trading volume reached 695 million shares per session. In the first half of the year, liquidity remained high, supported by expectations of a market upgrade and the recovery of export-import activities. However, in the second half of 2024, investor caution increased due to concerns about exchange rate fluctuations and the pressure of net outflows from foreign investors, leading to a decrease in liquidity.

- In 2024, the Vietnam stock market witnessed a record net selling wave from foreign investors, with a total value exceeding 93,000 billion VND, nearly four times higher than in 2023. The selling pressure increased due to concerns about exchange rate fluctuations, the global interest rate environment remaining high, and the trend of capital flows shifting to more attractive markets.
- Circular 68/2024/TT-BTC, issued on November 2, 2024, is expected to resolve many important bottlenecks, creating favorable conditions for the upgrade of Vietnam's stock market in 2025. The circular introduces two important amendments, including the requirement for public information disclosure in English and allowing foreign institutional investors to buy shares without needing to pre-fund 100% of the amount (non-prefunding).
- The bond market continued its recovery in 2024, with the total value of corporate bonds issued reaching over 455,000 billion VND, up 32% compared to the same period last year. Not only did the size of the bond market expand, but the quality of issuances also improved. Notably, 2024 saw the participation of many new issuing organizations, along with the emergence of a new type of bond, green bonds.

2. Company's Business Results in 2024:

In 2024, BMSC continued to assert its credibility and position in the stock market. All business sectors showed strong results, including brokerage, proprietary trading, etc. The company exceeded its profit targets, reflecting the efforts and dedication of all its employees. PART II: BUSINESS PLAN IN 2025:

1. Opportunities and risks in 2025

a. Opportunities:

- The Vietnam stock market is expected to be upgraded in 2025 due to significant reforms in recent times. FTSE Russell has placed the Vietnamese market on its watchlist for consideration of an upgrade from a frontier market to a secondary emerging market since September 2018. If the upgrade is approved, it will attract significant foreign capital flows, improve liquidity, and enhance the position of the Vietnamese stock market on the global financial map.
- The KRX system is expected to officially come into operation by mid-2025 after an extended trial phase. With modern features such as same-day trading (T+0) and a centralized clearing and settlement mechanism, KRX is expected to improve market operational efficiency, expand trading volume, and significantly enhance liquidity for the Vietnamese stock market.
- The expansionary monetary policy will contribute to supporting economic growth. The State Bank of Vietnam (SBV) has set a target for credit growth across the banking system at 16% in 2025, up from 15% in 2024, to meet the capital needs of the economy, supporting a minimum GDP growth target of 8%. Credit is expected to support enterprises in public investment, manufacturing, and export sectors.
- Public investment activities are expected to improve significantly compared to the previous year. 2025 is the final year of the mid-term public investment plan for the 2021-2025 period. The government continues to emphasize the importance of public investment in driving economic growth, creating development momentum for the private sector, and ensuring macroeconomic balances. The total public investment capital is expected to reach over 790,000 billion VND, focusing on completing key projects and promoting economic growth above 8%.
- The Vietnamese real estate market in 2025 is expected to recover positively. Several supportive factors include preferential interest rates, a recovery in supply, and improved demand for housing. In the housing segment, the new supply in Hanoi and Ho Chi Minh City is expected to increase significantly, focusing on the mid-range segment. Notably, the government's goal of completing 1.5 million social housing units will provide an important boost to the affordable housing market.

b. Risks:

- Vietnam still faces risks from exchange rate pressures and global monetary policies. The USD/VND exchange rate risk in 2025 remains present as the US dollar continues to strengthen due to the Federal Reserve maintaining high interest rates to control inflation, while the US government intensifies protectionist policies to protect domestic businesses. This may further weaken the VND and increase the pressure on foreign capital outflows, creating challenges for the domestic financial market.

- Foreign capital inflows are expected to continue to net outflows from the market, as increasingly unpredictable global macro factors increase investor caution. If there is no clear improvement in 2025, the Vietnamese stock market will face strong adjustment pressures.
- Vietnam's export activities to key markets are expected to weaken in 2025. Enterprises with significant export volumes to China are likely to continue facing difficulties, as China's economy is forecasted to grow around 5% next year. Slow domestic demand recovery and prolonged trade tensions with the United States will remain major obstacles for the world's second-largest economy. Additionally, Vietnam's exports to the US are expected to face many challenges in 2025, after President Donald Trump imposed a minimum countervailing duty of 10% on all imported goods. Notably, goods from Vietnam are subject to taxes as high as 46%, putting significant pressure on export growth and the trade balance.
- Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) flows into Vietnam are expected to be less stable compared to 2024, as the international trade environment becomes increasingly volatile. Specifically, foreign capital inflows into the manufacturing sector may be negatively impacted by the countervailing tariffs imposed by the US on goods from Vietnam.
- Vietnamese securities firms are under increasing competitive pressure in the brokerage sector. The race to lower transaction fees to very low levels, even to 0, is significantly eroding profit margins. At the same time, many domestic companies are forced to continuously increase capital to enhance competitiveness. The market is also facing significant pressure from foreign securities firms that leverage cheap capital and aggressive market share expansion strategies.
- Vietnam's securities market faces an increasing risk of cybersecurity threats, especially as the financial market becomes more reliant on digital platforms. Potential threats such as cyberattacks, data breaches, or system disruptions not only cause financial losses but also directly impact investor confidence in the stock market.
