a) The right to pay in cash or transfer the underlying securities according to the conditions and methods announced by Vietcap in the prospectus of each offering.

b) The right to be paid in cash when the warrants are delisted in accordance with the provisions of law.

c) The right to transfer, donate, inherit, pledge or borrow in civil relations in accordance with the provisions of law.

d) The right to be prioritized to be paid in case Vietcap is terminated or goes bankrupt in accordance with the provisions of law.

e) Other rights as permitted by law.

4. The ratio of the value of the warrants to be offered: The Company shall have a limit for all offerings of secured warrants in accordance with the provisions of law and the financial situation of Vietcap per the latest audited financial statements at the time of offering as well as in accordance with the regulations issued by the SSC.

5. Warrant payment plan and obligations of Vietcap for investors owning warrants in the event that Vietcap loses its ability to pay, merges, consolidates, terminates or becomes bankrupt:

a) In the event that Vietcap loses its ability to pay, the following financial sources will be used to perform Vietcap's obligations to investors:

i. Hedging assets for warrants available on self-trading accounts.

ii. Collateral deposited by Vietcap at custodian bank for warrant offerings (if any).

iii. Bank's payment guarantee (if any).

iv. In case the aforementioned sources are insufficient to pay, the settlement of interests for investors will comply with the law on priority rights and order of payment to creditors.

b) In the event that Vietcap is terminated or goes bankrupt, provisions of the law on liquidation and bankruptcy shall be applied for debt payment to secured creditors that have the right to prioritize according to the order of payment.

a) In the event that Vietcap merges or consolidates, the provisions of current enterprise law shall apply to settle the interests for investors.

V. ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE, MANAGEMENT AND SUPERVISION

Article 13. Organizational structure, management and supervision

The organizational structure, management and control of the Company include:

1. General Meeting of Shareholders

2. Board of Directors

3. Supervisory Board

4. Board of Management

VI. SHAREHOLDERS AND THE GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

Article 14. Rights of shareholders

1. Ordinary shareholders shall have following rights:

a) To participate and express their opinions at the General Meetings of Shareholders and exercise the right to vote directly, through an authorized representative or by other means as prescribed by the law and this Charter. Each ordinary share has one vote.

b) To receive dividends as decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

c) To have the priority to purchase newly offered shares proportionate to ordinary shares held.

d) To freely transfer their shares to others — except for the cases specified in Clause 3, Article 120 and Clause 1, Article 127 of the Law on Enterprises and other relevant laws.

dd) To review, search and extract information related to the shareholder's name and address in the list of ordinary shareholders and request modification of incorrect information.

e) To review, search, extract or photocopy the Company's Charter, minutes and resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

g) If the Company is dissolved or goes bankrupt, ordinary shareholders will receive a portion of the remaining assets proportionate to their ordinary shares.

h) To request the Company to repurchase their shares in cases prescribed by Article 132 of the Law on Enterprises.

i) To receive equal treatment. Each share of the same type gives the owner equal rights, obligations and interests. In case the Company has different types of preference shares, the rights and obligations associated with each type must be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders and fully disclosed to shareholders.

k) To have full access to periodic and extraordinary information published by the Company in accordance with the law.

l) To have their legitimate rights and interests protected as well as the right to propose to suspend or cancel resolutions and decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders and those of the Board of Directors in accordance with the Law on Enterprises.

m) Other rights as prescribed by the law and this Charter.

2. Shareholders or groups of shareholders holding at least 5% of total ordinary shares have following rights:

a) To request the Board of Directors to convene a General Meeting of Shareholders as specified in Clause 3, Article 115 and Article 140 of the Law on Enterprises.

b) To review, search and extract the minutes and resolutions, decisions of the Board of Directors, mid-year and annual financial statements, reports of the Supervisory Board, contracts, transactions that must be approved by the Board of Directors and other documents — except for documents related to trade secrets and business secrets of the Company.

c) Request the Supervisory Board to check specific issues related to the management and business operations of the Company if deemed necessary. The request must be made in writing with the full name, permanent address, nationality, ID or other lawful identification number for individual shareholders or name, enterprise registration number or lawful identification number for shareholders that are organizations; the number of shares and share registration date of each shareholder, total number of shares and share ownership that each group of shareholders collectively holds; and issues needed to be inspected and purpose for inspection;

d) Proposed issues to be included in the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The proposal must be in writing and sent to the Company at least three (3) working days before the opening of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The proposal must clearly state the shareholder's name, number and type of shares held by such shareholder, and proposed issues to be included in the agenda.

dd) Other rights as prescribed by the law and this Charter.

3. Shareholders or groups of shareholders holding at least 10% of total ordinary shares have the right to nominate candidates to the Board of Directors and Supervisory Board. Nomination of candidates to the Board of Directors and Supervisory Board shall be as follows:

a) Ordinary shareholders who form groups to nominate candidates to the Board of Directors and Supervisory Board must inform their respective group members of the group meeting before the opening of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

b) Based on the number of members of the Board of Directors and Supervisory Board, a shareholder or a group of shareholders specified in this clause is entitled to nominate one or more persons decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders as candidates to the Board of Directors and Supervisory Board. In case the number of candidates nominated by a shareholder or a group of shareholders is lower than the number of candidates that they are entitled to nominate as decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders; subsequently, the remaining number of candidates shall be determined by the Board of Directors, Supervisory Board or other shareholders.

Article 15. Obligations of shareholders

Ordinary shareholders have the following obligations:

1. To pay in full and on a timely basis for subscribed shares.
2. To not withdraw the capital contributed under ordinary shares from the Company in any form — unless shares are repurchased by the Company or purchased by other investor(s). In case a shareholder withdraws part or all of the contributed capital contrary to the provisions of this clause, such shareholder and persons with related interests in the Company must be jointly responsible for the debts and other asset obligations of the Company within the value of the withdrawn shares and the damages caused by such withdrawal.
3. To comply with the Charter of the Company and its internal regulations.
4. To comply with the resolutions and decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Board of Directors.
5. To keep the information provided by the Company confidential in accordance with the Charter and law and only use the information provided to exercise and protect legitimate rights and interests. It is strictly forbidden to disseminate or copy or send information provided by the Company to other organizations or individuals.
6. To participate in the General Meetings of Shareholders and exercise their voting rights via the following forms:
 - a) Directly participating and voting at the meeting.
 - b) Authorizing an individual or an organization to participate and vote at the meeting.
 - c) Participating and voting via an online meeting, electronic voting or other electronic methods.
 - d) Sending ballots to the meeting via mail, fax or e-mail;
7. Accepting personal responsibility when performing one of the following acts in the name of the Company in any form:
 - a) Violating the law.
 - b) Conducting business activities or other transactions for personal benefit or serving the benefits of other organizations and individuals.
 - c) Paying debt not yet due in case of financial risk that may affect the Company.
8. Fulfilling other obligations in accordance with current law.

Article 16. General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders includes all shareholders with voting rights and is the highest authority of the Company. The General Meeting of Shareholders is held once a year and must be held within four months from the fiscal year-end. Unless otherwise prescribed by the Charter, the Board of Directors shall decide to extend the timing of the annual General Meeting of Shareholders, if necessary, but it cannot be later than six months from the fiscal year-end. In addition to the annual meeting, the General Meeting of Shareholders may hold Extraordinary General Meetings of Shareholders. The venue for the General Meeting of Shareholders must be somewhere that the Chairperson can attend and be in Vietnam.

2. The Board of Directors shall convene the annual General Meeting of Shareholders and choose an appropriate location. The annual General Meeting of Shareholders shall decide issues as prescribed by the law and the Charter — particularly the approval of audited annual financial statements. In case the Company's audited financial statements contain material audit exceptions, adverse opinions or disclaimers of opinion, then the Company must invite a representative of its approved audit firm to attend the annual General Meeting of Shareholders — this representative is responsible for attending the annual General Meeting of Shareholders.

3. The Board of Directors must convene an Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders in the following cases:

- a) The Board of Directors deems it necessary for the benefit of the Company.
- b) The number of members of the Board of Directors and Supervisory Board is less than the minimum number of members as prescribed by the law.
- c) Shareholders or groups of shareholders defined in Clause 2, Article 115 of the Law on Enterprises request a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The request must be in writing that provides the reason and purpose of the meeting with sufficient signatures of relevant shareholders or a written request is made in multiple copies, each of which is signed by a relevant shareholder.

- d) The Supervisory Board requests a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders.
- dd) Other cases as prescribed by the law and this Charter.

4. Convening an Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders.

a) The Board of Directors must convene a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders within 30 days from the date on which members of the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board request as prescribed by Point b, Clause 3 of this Article or when receiving the request as prescribed by Points c and d, Clause 3 of this Article.

b) If the Board of Directors fails to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed by Point a, Clause 4 of this Article, within the next 30 days, the Supervisory Board must then replace the Board of Directors in convening the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed by Clause 3, Article 140 of the Law on Enterprises;

c) If the Supervisory Board fails to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed by Point b, Clause 4 of this Article, the shareholders or groups of shareholders prescribed by Point c, Clause 3 of this Article then have the right to request the Company's representative to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed by the Law on Enterprises.

In this case, shareholders or groups of shareholders that convene a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders may request the Business Registration Authority to supervise the process and procedures for convening and holding meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders and making decisions at the meeting. All expenses for convening and holding a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be reimbursed by the Company. These expenses do not include those borne by shareholders for attending the General Meeting of Shareholders, including accommodation and travel expenses.

d) Procedures for organizing the General Meeting of Shareholders are specified in Clause 5, Article 140 of the Law on Enterprises.

Article 17. Rights and obligations of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders has following rights and obligations:

a) To approve the development plan of the Company.
b) To decide the type of share and number of newly issued shares for each type of share as well as to decide the annual dividend rate for each type of share.

c) To elect, dismiss or remove members of the Board of Directors and Supervisory Board.

d) To decide to invest or sell assets that are worth at least 35% of the total assets of the Company stated in the latest audited financial statement.

dd) To decide to supplement and amend the Company's Charter.

e) To approve annual financial statements.

g) To decide a share repurchase of more than 10% of total shares of each type.

h) To inspect and handle violations of members of the Board of Directors and Supervisory Board that cause damage to the Company and its shareholders.

i) To decide to reorganize or dissolve the Company.

k) To decide the budget or total remuneration, bonuses and other benefits for the Board of Directors and Supervisory Board.

l) To approve internal regulations on corporate governance and operational regulations for the Board of Directors and Supervisory Board.

m) To approve a list of qualified audit firms, select an audit firm that is approved to audit the Company's operations and dismiss selected auditors if deemed necessary.

n) Other rights and obligations as prescribed by the law.

2. The General Meeting of Shareholders may discuss and approve the following issues:

a) Annual business plan of the Company.

b) Audited annual financial statements.

c) Report of the Board of Directors on the governance and performance of the Board of Directors and each member of the Board of Directors. In case the Company operates under the model specified in Point b, Clause 1, Article 137 of the Law on Enterprises, independent members of the Board of Directors are responsible for reporting at the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed by Article 284 of Decree No. 155/2020/ND-CP, dated December 31, 2020, issued by the Government detailing the implementation of a number of articles stipulated in the Law on Securities.

d) Report of the Supervisory Board on business results of the Company and performance of the Board of Directors and General Director.

dd) Report on the self-assessment of the Supervisory Board and members of the Supervisory Board.

- e) Dividend rate for each share of each type.
- g) Number of members of the Board of Directors and Supervisory Board.
- h) To elect, dismiss and remove members of the Board of Directors and Supervisory Board.
- i) To decide the budget or total remuneration, bonuses and other benefits for the Board of Directors and Supervisory Board.
- k) To approve the list of qualified audit firms and select an audit firm that is approved to audit the Company's operations if deemed necessary.
- l) To supplement and amend the Company's Charter.
- m) Full division, partial division, consolidation, acquisition or change of the Company.
- n) Reorganization and dissolution (liquidation) of the Company and appointment of a liquidator.
- o) To decide to invest or sell assets that are worth at least 35% of the total assets of the Company as stated in its latest audited financial statement.
- p) To decide share repurchasing of more than 10% of total shares of each type.
- q) The Company has signed contracts and made transactions with the entities specified in Clause 1, Article 167 of the Law on Enterprises whose value are at least 35% of the total assets of the Company as stated in its latest financial statements.
- r) To approve the transactions specified in Clause 4, Article 293 of Decree No. 155/2020/ND-CP dated, December 31, 2020, issued by the Government detailing the implementation of a number of articles of the Law on Securities.
- s) To approve internal regulations on corporate governance and operational regulations of the Board of Directors and Supervisory Board.
- t) Other issues as prescribed by the law and this Charter.

3. All resolutions and issues included in the meeting agenda must be discussed and voted upon at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 18. Authorization for attending the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Shareholders and authorized representatives of institutional shareholders can directly attend the meeting, authorize one or more individuals or organizations to physically attend the meeting or attend the meeting through one of the forms prescribed by Clause 3, Article 144 of the Law on Enterprises.

2. The authorization of representative individuals and organizations at the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed by Clause 1 of this Article must be made in writing. An authorization letter or a power of attorney is made in accordance with the civil law and must clearly state the name of authorizer, the name of authorized individual or authorized organization, the number of authorized shares, the authorization content, scope and period, and signatures of the authorizer and authorized party.

The person authorized to attend meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders must submit a written authorization letter or a power of attorney when registering to attend the meeting. In case of re-authorization, meeting attendees must present original authorization letters of authorizers or authorized representatives of institutional shareholders (if they have not been registered with the Company before).

3. The ballot of the person authorized to attend the meeting within the scope of authorization remains valid when one of the following cases occurs:

a) The authorizer has passed away, has his/her legal capacity restricted or loses his/her legal capacity.

b) The authorizer has cancelled the authorization.

c) The authorizer has cancelled the authority of the authorized person.

This provision does not apply in case the Company receives a notice on one of the aforementioned events before the opening the General Meeting of Shareholders or before the meeting is re-convened.

Article 19. Change of rights

1. The change or cancellation of special rights attached to a type of preference shares becomes valid if it is agreed by the attending shareholders representing at least 65% of the total amount of shares. A resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders that results in an adverse change of rights and obligations of a preference shareholder will only be approved if it is agreed by attending preference shareholders of the same type representing at least 75% of the total amount of preference shares of such type or if it is agreed by preference shareholders of the same type representing at least 75% of the total amount of preference shares of such type, if such resolution is passed in the form of an absentee ballot.

2. The organization of a meeting attended by preference shareholders of the same type to approve the above change of rights becomes valid only when there are at least two (2) shareholders (or their authorized representatives) holding at least one-third (1/3) of the par value of the issued shares of such type. In case there is an insufficient number of delegates as mentioned above, then the meeting shall be reorganized within the next 30 days and merely by having attendance from shareholders of such type (irrespective of the number of shareholders and number of shares) who directly attend the meeting or assign authorized representatives, the meeting is regarded as having sufficient delegates required. At such meetings of preference shareholders, preference shareholders who directly attend the meeting or assign representatives may request a secret ballot. Each preference share of the same type has equal voting right at the aforementioned meetings.

3. Procedures for holding such separate meetings shall be implemented similar to the provisions in Articles 21, 22 and 23 of this Charter.

4. Unless otherwise stated in the terms for issuance of shares, special rights attached to types of preference shares applicable to some or all issues related to the distribution of profits or assets of the Company shall not be changed when the Company issues additional shares of the same type.

Article 20. Convening, agenda and announcement of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The Board of Directors shall convene the annual General Meeting of Shareholders or an Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders. An Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders is convened in accordance with the cases specified in Clause 3, Article 16 of this Charter.

2. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall conduct the following tasks:

a) Prepare a list of eligible shareholders to participate and vote at the General Meeting of Shareholders. The list of eligible shareholders to participate in the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be made no sooner than 10 days before the invitation to the General Meeting of Shareholders is sent. The announcement of closing the shareholder book for organizing the General Meeting of Shareholders must be public at least 20 days before the book closure date.

b) Prepare agenda and content.

c) Prepare documents.

d) Draft Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders based on the proposed contents of the meeting.

e) Determine the time and location for the organization of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

f) Notify and send invitations to the General Meeting of Shareholders to all eligible shareholders.

g) Other tasks related to the General Meeting of Shareholders.

3. The meeting invitation notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be sent to all shareholders via guarantee method and also be published on the website of the Company, the SSC and the Stock Exchange where the Company's shares are listed or traded. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall send meeting invitations to all shareholders whose names are on the list of shareholders who are eligible to attend the meeting at least twenty-one (21) days before the opening date of the General Meeting of Shareholders (from the date on which the meeting invitation is properly sent). The agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders and documents related to issues to be voted on at the meeting shall be sent to all shareholders and/or posted on the Company's website. In case documents are not attached to the meeting invitation to the General Meeting of Shareholders, then the meeting invitation must include the website address so that shareholders can access the documents, including:

a) The meeting agenda and documents used in the meeting.

b) A list and detailed information of candidates in case of election of members of the Board of Directors and Supervisory Board.

c) Ballots.

d) Draft resolutions applicable to each issue in the meeting agenda.

4. Shareholders or groups of shareholders specified in Clause 2, Article 14 of this Charter may propose issues to be included in the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The proposal must be in writing and sent to the Company at least three (3) working days prior to the opening date of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The proposal must include the shareholder's full name as well as number and type of shares held and the content to be included in the meeting agenda.

5. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders may reject the proposal specified in Clause 4 this Article in the following cases:

- a) The proposal is not sent in due time or with inadequate and improper content.
- b) At the time of proposal, shareholders or groups of shareholders do not hold at least 5% of total ordinary shares in accordance with Clause 2, Article 14 of this Charter.
- c. The proposed issues are not within the scope of competence of the General Meeting of Shareholders.
- d. Other cases as prescribed by the law and this Charter.

6. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders must accept and include proposed issues as specified in Clause 4 of this Article in the agenda and content of the General Meeting of Shareholders — except for cases specified in Clause 5 of this Article. Proposed issues shall be officially added into the agenda and content of the General Meeting of Shareholders if approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 21. Conditions for holding the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. A General Meeting of Shareholders shall be held when it is attended by a number of shareholders who represent more than 50% of voting shares.

2. If the first General Meeting of Shareholders is not held because of not meeting the conditions specified in Clause 1 of this Article, then the invitation to second General Meeting of Shareholders shall be sent within 30 days from the intended date of the first meeting. The second General Meeting of Shareholders shall only be held when it is attended by a number of shareholders who represent at least 33% of voting shares.

3. If the second General Meeting of Shareholders is not held because of not meeting the conditions specified in Clause 2 of this Article, the invitation to third General Meeting of Shareholders shall then be sent within 20 days from the intended date of the second General Meeting of Shareholders. The third General Meeting of Shareholders shall be held regardless of the number of voting shares of the attending shareholders.

Article 22. Procedures for holding and voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Before opening the meeting, the Company must carry out procedures for the registration of shareholders and continue to carry out the registration until all shareholders who are entitled to attend the meeting complete registration.

a) When carrying out the registration of shareholders, the Company shall issue each shareholder or authorized representative with voting rights a voting card containing the registration number and full name of the shareholder or the full name of the authorized representative and the number of votes of such shareholder. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall discuss and vote for each matter in the agenda of the meeting. The vote shall be affirmative, negative or absentee. The voting shall be carried out by firstly collecting affirmative votes, then negative votes and then counting the total number of affirmative votes and negative votes for decision making. The voting result shall be announced by the Chairperson before the end of the meeting. The meeting shall elect a person who is responsible for counting votes or supervising vote counting at the request of the Chairperson. The number of members of the vote counting committee shall be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders based on the proposal of the Chairperson.

b) Shareholders or authorized participants who arrive after the opening of the meeting may register immediately and have the right to attend and vote at the meeting after registration. The Chairperson does not have the responsibility to pause the meeting for late shareholders to register and the effect of the issues voted on previously shall remain unchanged.

2. Election of Chairperson, Secretary and vote counting committee.

a) The Chairperson or an authorized member of the Board of Directors shall chair the meetings convened by the Board of Directors. In case the Chairperson is temporarily absent or not capable of working, other members of the Board of Directors shall elect one member to chair the meeting under majority rule. If a Chairperson is not elected, then the Head of the Supervisory Board shall direct the General Meeting of Shareholders to elect a Chairperson within the people in attendance; the person who receives the most votes shall chair the meeting.

b) Except for the case specified in Point a of this Clause, the person who signs the decision to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders shall direct the General Meeting of Shareholders to elect a chairperson; the person who receives the most votes shall chair the meeting.

c) The Chairperson shall select one or more people to the Secretariat of the meeting.

d) The General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect one or more people to the vote counting committee based on the proposal of the Chairperson.

3. The agenda and content must be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders during the opening session. The agenda must clearly identify a specific time for each issue.

4. The Chairperson is entitled to take necessary action to control the meeting in an orderly and legal manner and in conformity with the approved agenda so that it reflects demand of the majority of participants.

a) Arrange seats at the meeting venue of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

b) Ensure safety of everyone who is present at the meeting venue.

c) Enable shareholders to attend (or continue to attend) the meeting. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders reserves the right to change the abovementioned measures and apply all necessary measures. Applicable measures may include the issuance of admission or other options.

5. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall discuss and vote for each matter in the agenda of the meeting. The vote shall be affirmative, negative or absentee. The voting result shall be announced by the Chairperson before closing the meeting.

6. Shareholders or authorized representatives who arrive after the opening of the meeting can still register and have the right to attend and vote at the meeting after registration. In this case, the effect of the issues previously voted shall remain unchanged.

7. The convener or the Chairperson has following rights:

a) To request all participants to undergo inspection or other legitimate and reasonable security measures.

b) To request a competent authority to maintain order of the meeting as well as reject or expel people who do not comply with the guidance of the convener, intentionally disturb the order of the meeting, prevent the meeting from happening, and/or refuse to comply with regulations on inspection or the abovementioned security measures.

8. The Chairperson may postpone the meeting with sufficient attendants no later than three (3) working days from intended opening date of the meeting and can only postpone or change meeting venue because of following reasons:

a) The meeting venue does not have enough seats for all attendants.

b) The means of communication at meeting venue do not guarantee that all registered shareholders can participate, discuss and vote.

c) There are people who disturb the order of the meeting and may cause the meeting to be conducted in not a fair and/or legal manner.

9. In case the Chairperson delays or postpones the General Meeting of Shareholders in a contrary way to provisions as specified in Clause 8 of this Article, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect a different person attending the meeting to replace the Chairperson and direct the meeting until the end; all resolutions that are passed at the meeting shall have full effect.

10. In case the Company conducts the General Meeting of Shareholders via an online meeting, the Company is responsible to ensure that all shareholders can participate and vote online or through other electronic forms in accordance with Article 144 of the Law on Enterprise and Clause 3, Article 273 of Decree 155/ND-CP, dated December 31, 2020, of the Government detailing guidance of certain articles of Law on Securities.

Article 23. Approval of decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders on the following issues shall be approved if it is approved by shareholders holding at least 65% of the total number of votes of all attending and voting shareholders, except for the cases specified in Clauses 3, 4 and 6, Article 148 of the Law on Enterprise:

a) Type of shares and number of shares offered;

b) Change in business line and/or operating activities ;

c) Change in the Company's management organization structure ;

d) Investment project or sale of Company's assets that are worth 35% or more of the total assets of the Company based on the most recent audited financial statements.

dd) Reorganization or dissolution of the Company;

2. A resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be passed by voting at the meeting if it is approved by shareholders holding more than 50% of the total number of votes of all attending and voting shareholders, except for the cases specified in Clause 1 of this Article and Clauses 3, 4 and 6, Article 148 of the Law on Enterprise.

3. Resolutions approved with 100% voting shares by the General Meeting of Shareholders shall have immediate validity and effect despite procedural errors in convening the meeting and in the approval of such resolutions.

Article 24. Competence and formalities to obtain shareholder opinions in writing to approve decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

Competence and formalities to obtain shareholder opinions to approve decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall comply with following regulations:

1. The Board of Directors has the right to obtain shareholder opinions in writing to approve decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders if deemed necessary for the benefit of the Company, including issues specified in Clause 2, Article 147 of the Law on Enterprise and Clause 2, Article 17 of this Charter.

2. The Board of Directors must prepare absentee ballots, draft resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders and other documents explaining the draft resolutions and send them to eligible shareholders at least 10 days before the expiration date of receipt of the ballot. Requirements and formalities for sending the ballot and attached documents shall comply with Clause 3, Article 20 of this Charter.

3. An absentee ballot shall contain:

a) Name, enterprise registration number and address of head office.

b) Purpose.

c) Full name, contact address, nationality, ID number, passport or other lawful personal identification of shareholders who are persons; or name, enterprise registration number or establishment decision number, address of head office of shareholders as organizations or name, contact address, nationality, ID number or other lawful personal identification of representatives of shareholders that are organizations; and number of shares of each type and number of votes of each shareholder.

d) Issues that need voting for approval.

dd) Voting options, including affirmative, negative and abstentions on each issue.

e) Deadline for submitting completed absentee ballots to the Company.

g) Full name and signature of the Chairperson of the Board of Directors.

4. Shareholders can send completed absentee ballots to the Company via mail, fax or email in the following manners:

a) By mail: Absentee ballots must have the signature of a shareholder who is a person or an authorized representative or a legal representative of a shareholder who is an organization. Every absentee ballot sent to the company must be put into sealed envelopes. Envelopes must not be opened before vote counting.

b) By fax or email: Absentee ballots sent by fax or email must be kept confidential until vote counting.

c) Absentee ballots sent to the Company after the deadline written therein, absentee ballots sent by mail in envelopes that are opened or absentee ballots sent by fax or email that are revealed before vote counting are all invalid. If an absentee ballot is not submitted, it will be excluded from voting.

5. The Board of Directors shall count votes and make vote counting minutes under the supervision from the Supervisory Board or shareholders who do not hold managerial positions in the Company. Vote counting minutes must contain following information:

- a) Name, enterprise registration number and address of the head office.
- b) Purposes and issues that need to be voted for approving the resolution.
- c) Number of shareholders and total number of votes cast — in which separate numbers of valid and invalid votes are separated — and methods of sending ballots are enclosed with the list of voting shareholders.
- d) Total number of affirmative votes, negative votes and abstentions on each issue.
- e) Approved issues and corresponding ratio of affirmative votes.
- f) Full name and signature of the Chairperson, vote counters and vote counting supervisors.

Members of the Board of Directors, vote counters and vote counting supervisors are jointly responsible for the truthfulness and accuracy of the vote counting minutes as well as for damages caused by decisions approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders because of untruthful or incorrect vote counting.

6. The vote counting minutes shall be sent to all shareholders within 15 days from the completion date of vote counting. If the Company has a website, then the vote counting minutes may be posted on the website instead of being sent to all shareholders within 24 hours from the completion of vote counting.

7. Absentee ballots, vote counting minutes, approved resolutions and relevant documents enclosed with ballots shall be kept at the Company's head office.

8. Resolutions approved by absentee voting must be approved by a number of shareholders representing more than 65% of voting shares and are as valid as those approved at meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 25. Resolutions and minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders must be recorded in writing and can be recorded in audio or other electronic means. Meeting minutes must be made in Vietnamese and may be made in other languages and have the following information:

- a) Name, enterprise registration number and address of the head office.
- b) Time and location of the General Meeting of Shareholders.
- c) Meeting agenda and content.
- d) Full names of the Chairperson and Secretaries.
- dd) Summary of the meeting and opinions expressed at the General Meeting of Shareholders for issue on the agenda.
- e) Number of shareholders and total number of votes of attending shareholders, list of registered shareholders or representatives of shareholders with corresponding amount of shares and votes.
- g) Total number votes on each issue, specifying the voting method and numbers of valid votes, invalid votes, affirmative votes, negative votes and abstentions as well as the corresponding ratio to total votes of attending shareholders.
- h) Approved issues and corresponding ratio of affirmative votes.
- i) Full name and signatures of the Chairperson and Secretaries. In case the Chairperson and Secretaries refuse to sign the meeting minutes, then the meeting minutes shall have full effect if signed by the remaining members of Board of Directors attending the General Meeting of Shareholders and have the full information as required by this Clause. Meeting minutes shall clearly mention that the Chairperson and Secretaries have refused to sign meeting minutes.

2. Meeting minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders must be completed and approved before the end of the meeting. The Chairperson and the Secretaries or other persons who sign the meeting minutes are jointly responsible for the truthfulness and accuracy of meeting minutes.

3. Meeting minutes made in Vietnamese and other languages shall have equal legal effectiveness. In case of any discrepancies between Vietnamese version and other language versions, the Vietnamese version shall prevail.

4. Resolutions, meeting minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders, list of registered shareholders with signatures, appointments of authorized representatives and relevant documents, and documents relating to invitation to the General Meeting of Shareholders must be disclosed in accordance with regulations on disclosure of information on the securities market and kept at the Company's head office.

Article 26. Request for annulment of resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders Within 90 days from the date of receiving resolutions, meeting minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders or the vote counting minutes, shareholders or groups of shareholders as specified in Clause 2, Article 115 of the Law on Enterprise may request a court or arbitral tribunal to consider and annul resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders — either in whole or in part — in the following cases:

1. Procedures for convening meetings or absentee voting and making decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders seriously violate the Law on Enterprise and this Charter — except for the case specified in Clause 3, Article 23 of this Charter.
2. Content of resolutions contravene the law and/or the Company's charter.

VII. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 27. Nomination of members for the Board of Directors

1. When candidates have been identified, the Company must release public information about the candidates on the Company's website at least 10 days before the opening day of the General Meeting of Shareholders so that shareholders can learn about the candidates before voting. Candidates for the Board of Directors must make a written commitment regarding the truthfulness and accuracy of their information and commit to perform their duties in the best interests of the Company if they are elected as members of the Board of Directors. Published information related to candidates of the Board of Directors must include:

- a) Full name and date of birth.
- b) Educational qualifications.
- c) Work experience.
- d) Other managing positions (including being members of the Board of Directors at other companies).

e) Interests related to the Company and other related parties to the Company.

f) Other information (if any) as prescribed by this Charter.

g) A public company shall be responsible for disclosing information about companies in which candidates are members of Board of Directors, other management titles and interests related to companies of candidates for the Board of Directors (if any).

2. Shareholders or groups of shareholders owning 10% or more of total ordinary shares have the right to nominate candidates for the Board of Directors in accordance with the Law on Enterprises and the Company's charter. Details are as follows:

Shareholders — or a group of shareholders — owning from 10% to less than 20% of total shares have the right to nominate at most one member; nominate at most two members in the case of owning from 20% to less than 30%; nominate at most three members in the case of owning from 30% to less than 40%; nominate at most four members in the case of owning from 40% to less than 50%; nominate at most five members in the case of owning from 50% to less than 60%; nominate at most six members in the case of owning from 60% to less than 70%; nominate at most seven members in the case of owning from 70% to less than 80%; and nominate maximum number of members of the Supervisory Board in the case of owning from 80% or more.

3. In case the number of candidates for the Board of Directors through nomination and self-nomination is still insufficient as prescribed by Clause 5, Article 115 of the Law on Enterprises, then the incumbent members of the Board of Directors shall introduce more candidates or organize nomination as prescribed by the Company's Charter, internal regulations on corporate governance and operation regulations of the Board of Directors. The introduction of additional candidates by incumbent members of the Board of Directors must be clearly announced before the General Meeting of Shareholders votes to elect members of the Board of Directors in accordance with the provisions of law.

4. Members of the Board of Directors must meet the standards and conditions as prescribed in Clause 1, 2 Article 155 of the Law on Enterprises and the Company's Charter.

Article 28. Composition and term of members of the Board of Directors

1. The number of members of the Board of Directors is at least five (5) people and at most eleven (11) people.

2. The term of members of the Board of Directors shall not exceed five (5) years and members may be re-elected with an indefinite number of terms. An individual may only be elected as an independent member of the Board of Directors of a company for no more than two (2) consecutive terms. In case all members of the Board of Directors end their terms, such members shall continue to be members of the Board of Directors until new members are elected to replace them.

3. The structure of the Board of Directors is as follows:

The structure of the Board of Directors of a public company must ensure that at least one-third (1/3) of the total number of members of the Board of Directors are non-executive members. The Company minimizes members of the Board of Directors concurrently holding executive titles of the Company to ensure independence of the Board of Directors.

The total number of independent members of the Board of Directors must comply with following provisions:

a) Have at least one (1) independent member in case the Company has a number of members of the Board of Directors from three (3) to five (5) members.

b) Have at least two (2) independent members in case the Company has a number of members of the Board of Directors from six (6) to eight (8) members.

c) Have at least three (3) independent members in case the Company has a number of members of the Board of Directors from nine (9) to eleven (11) members .

4. Members of the Board of Directors shall no longer be members of the Board of Directors in case they are dismissed or replaced by the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed by Article 160 of the Law on Enterprises.

5. The appointment of members of the Board of Directors must be published in accordance with provisions of the Law on information disclosure on the securities market.

6. Members of the Board of Directors are not necessarily shareholders of the Company.

Article 29. Rights and obligations of the Board of Directors

1. The Board of Directors is the management agency of the Company and has the right in the name of the Company to decide and perform rights and obligations of the Company — except for rights and obligations under authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

2. Rights and obligations of the Board of Directors shall be governed by law, the Company's Charter and the General Meeting of Shareholders. Specifically, the Board of Directors has the following rights and obligations:

a) To decide the Company's strategy, medium-term development plan and annual business plan.

b) To recommend types of shares and the total number of shares entitled to be offered for sale of each type.

c) To decide to sell unsubscribed shares within the number of shares entitled to be offered for sale of each type and on raising capital in other forms.

d) To decide the offering price of shares and bonds issued by the Company.

e) To decide share buybacks as prescribed by Clauses 1 and 2, Article 133 of the Law on Enterprises.

f) To decide investment plans and investment projects within the authority and limits of the Board of Directors as prescribed by Law.

g) To decide solutions for market development, marketing and technology.

h) To approve contracts for purchase, sale, borrowing, lending and other transactions that are worth at least 35% or more of the total value of assets recorded in the latest financial statements and contracts and transactions under the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed by Point d, Clause 2 of Article 138 and Clauses 1 and 3, Article 167 of the Law on Enterprises.

i) To elect and dismiss the Chairperson; appoint, dismiss, sign or terminate contracts with General Director and other important executives prescribed by the Company's Charter; decide on salary, remuneration, bonuses and other interests of such executives; nominate authorized representatives to participate in the Members' Council or the General Meeting of Shareholders at other companies and decide remuneration levels and other interests of such persons.

j) To supervise and direct the General Director and other executives in managing the day-to-day business of the Company.

k) To decide on the organizational structure and internal regulations on corporate governance; decide to establish subsidiaries, branches, representative offices and capital contribution and purchase of shares of other companies.

l) To approve the agenda and documents for meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders, convene meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders or consult with the General Meeting of Shareholders to approve resolutions.

m) To propose audited annual financial statements to the General Meeting of Shareholders.

n) To recommend the dividend rate and decide the timing and procedures for paying dividends or deal with losses in the course of business.

o) To recommend the reorganization or liquidation of the Company and/or file for bankruptcy.

p) To decide on the promulgation of the operation regulations of the Board of Directors and the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance after they are approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders; decide on the promulgation of operation regulations of the Audit Committee that is directly under the Board of Directors and regulations on information disclosure of the Company.

q) Other rights and obligations in accordance with the Law on Enterprises, Law on Securities, other provisions of law and the Company's Charter.

3. The Board of Directors must report to the General Meeting of Shareholders on the performance of the Board of Directors as prescribed by Article 280 of Decree No. 155/2020/ND-CP, dated December 31, 2020, detailing the implementation of a number of articles of the Law on Securities.

Article 30. Remuneration, bonuses and other benefits for members of the Board of Directors

1. The Company has the right to pay remuneration and bonuses to members of the Board of Directors based on business results.

2. Members of the Board of Directors are entitled to receive remuneration and bonuses.

Remuneration is calculated based on the number of days required to complete the duties of members of the Board of Directors and the remuneration rate per day. The Board of Directors estimates remuneration for each member on the principle of consensus. The total remuneration and bonuses of the Board of Directors are decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders at the annual general meeting.

3. The remuneration of each member of the Board of Directors shall be included in the Company's business expenses in accordance with the law on corporate income tax, is represented in separate items in the Company's annual financial statements and must be reported to the annual General Meeting of Shareholders.

4. Members of the Board of Directors holding executive positions or members of the Board of Directors working at sub-departments of the Board of Directors or performing other tasks outside of the scope of normal duties of a member of the Board of Directors may be paid additional remuneration in the form of a one-time fee for each installment, salary, commission, percentage of profit or otherwise as decided by the Board of Directors.

5. Members of the Board of Directors have the right to be refunded for all travel, accommodation and other reasonable expenses that they incur when they perform their responsibilities, including expenses relating to the General Meeting of Shareholders, meetings of the Board of Directors or meetings of sub-departments of the Board of Directors.

6. Members of the Board of Directors may receive professional liability insurance purchased by the Company after the approval of the General Meeting of Shareholders. This insurance does not include insurance for responsibility of members of the Board of Directors in connection with violations of law and the Company's Charter.

Article 31. Chairperson

1. The Chairperson is elected from members of the Board of Directors or dismissed by members of the Board of Directors.

2. The Chairperson must not act as General Director.

3. The Chairperson has the following rights and obligations:

- a) To prepare operation plans for the Board of Directors.
- b) To prepare the agenda, content and documents for meetings as well as convene and preside at meetings of the Board of Directors.
- c) To organize processes to approve resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors.
- d) To supervise the implementation of resolutions and decisions of the Board of Director.
- e) To preside at meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders.
- f) Other rights and obligations as prescribed by the Law on Enterprise and the Company's Charter.

4. In case the Chairperson resigns or is dismissed, then the Board of Directors must elect a replacement within 10 days from the date of receiving the resignation letter or dismissal.

5. In case the Chairperson is absent or unable to perform his/her duties, he/she must authorize in writing another member to perform the rights and obligations of the Chairperson on the principles specified in the Company's Charter. In case there is not any authorized person or the Chairperson dies, is missing, detained, imprisoned, under administrative measures at a mandatory drug treatment facility or mandatory educational facility, fleeing, restricted or losing his/her civil act capacity, having difficulty in perception, mastering acts, or banned from holding certain duties by courts, practicing certain occupations or doing certain jobs, the remaining members of the Board of Directors shall elect one of them to become the Chairperson via a majority vote or until a new decision of the Board of Directors is issued.

Article 32. Meetings of the Board of Directors

1. The Chairperson is elected at the first meeting of the Board of Directors within seven (7) working days from the date of election of members of the Board of Directors. This meeting is convened and chaired by the member with the highest number of votes or the highest percentage of votes. In case there is more than one member who has the highest and equal number of votes or the highest percentage of votes, then members will select one of them via a majority vote to convene the meeting.
