V. AUDITOR

Southern Auditing and Accounting Financial Consulting Services Company (AASCS) has been appointed to review the interim separate financial statements for the Company.

VI. THE BOARD OF MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY IN RESPECT OF THE INTERIM SEPARATE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Board of Management is responsible for preparing the interim separate financial statements, which give a true and fair view of the interim separate financial position of the Company as at 30 June 2025, and of the interim separate results of its operations and its interim separate cash flows for the period. In preparing those interim separate financial statements, the Board of Management is required to:

- Establish and maintain an internal controls system which the Board of Directors and Management determines is necessary to ensure the preparation and presentation of the interim separate financial statements contain no material misstatements due to fraud or by mistake;
- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- Make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- The applicable accounting standards are adhered to by the Company, with no material misapplication to the extent that disclosure and interpretation are required in these interim separate financial statements;
- Prepare the interim separate financial statements on going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Company will continue its business.

The Board of Management is responsible for ensuring that proper accounting records are maintained which disclose, with reasonable accuracy at any time, the interim separate financial position of the Company to be prepared which comply with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, Vietnamese Accounting System for enterprises and the relevant statutory requirements applicable to financial reporting. The Board of Management is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The Board of Management confirms that the interim separate financial statements, which give a true and fair view of the Company as at 30 June 2025, and of the interim separate results of its operations and its interim separate cash flows for the six-month period then ended in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, the Vietnamese Accounting System for enterprises and the relevant statutory requirements applicable to financial reporting.

VII. OTHER COMMITMENTS

The Board of Management ensures that the Company meets the prevailing requirements in the relation to disclosure of information, specifically the Circular No.96/2020/TT-BTC dated 16 November 2020 issued by the Ministry of Finance on guidelines for disclosure of information on the securities market.

VIII. APPROVAL OF THE INTERIM SEPARATE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

We, The Board of Management hereby approve the accompanying interim separate financial statements for 06-month period ended as at 30 June 2025 of Indochine Import Export Investment Industrial Joint Stock Company.

REPORT ON REVIEW OF INTERIM SEPARATE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Respectfully to: The shareholders, The Board of Directors and Management

INDOCHINE IMPORT EXPORT INVESTMENT INDUSTRIAL JOINT STOCK COMPANY

We have reviewed the accompanying interim separate financial statements of Indochine Import Export Investment Industrial Joint Stock Company, as prepared on 31 December 2025 and set out on pages 10 to 55, which comprise the interim separate balance sheet as at 30 June 2025, the interim separate income statement, the interim separate cash flow statement for the first six-month period then ended and the accompanying notes to the interim separate financial statements.

The Board of Management's responsibility

The Board of Management of the Company is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these interim separate financial statements in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, the Vietnamese Accounting System for enterprises and the statutory requirements relevant to the preparation and presentation of the interim separate financial statements, and for such internal control as the Board of Management determines is necessary to enable the preparation and presentation of the interim separate financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' responsibility

Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on the interim separate financial statements based on our review. We conducted our review in accordance with Vietnamese Standard on Review Engagements 2410 - Review of interim financial information performed by the independent auditor of the entity.

A review of interim separate financial information consists of making inquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with Vietnamese Standards on Auditing and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Basis for Qualified opinion

The Company has not made a provision for the overdue receivable from Mr. Nguyen Van Hop arising from the Company's share transfer transaction in its subsidiary, CL Joint Stock Company. If an allowance were to be recognised for this receivable in accordance with the prevailing regulations, it would increase the item "Provision for short-term doubtful debts" and increase accumulated losses under the item "Undistributed profit after tax for the current period" (Codes 137 and 421b in the interim separate balance sheet), and would increase the item "General and administrative expenses" (Code 26 in the interim separate statement of profit or loss) by VND 6,665,700,011.

As at the date of this report, we have not obtained balance confirmation letters in respect of the item "Borrowings and finance lease liabilities" recognised in the Company's interim separate financial statements as at 30 June 2025 from the Vietnam Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development and Velotrade Management Limited, with a total principal outstanding amount of VND 52,875,050,000. Based on the audit evidence currently available, we have not been able to assess the existence of these borrowings and the impact, if any, on the related interim separate financial statements.

Auditor's conclusion

Based on our review, except for the effects of the matter described in "Basis for qualified opinion" paragraph, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the accompanying interim separate financial statements do not give a true and fair view, in all material respects, of the interim separate financial position of Indochine Import Export Investment Industrial Joint Stock Company as at 30 June 2025, and of the interim separate results of its operations and its interim separate cash flows for the six-month period then ended in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, the Vietnamese Accounting System for enterprises and the statutory requirements relevant to the preparation and presentation of the interim separate financial statements.

Emphasis of matter

We draw the readers' attention to Note VIII.5 "Going concern assumption" in the accompanying interim separate financial statements. Accordingly, the Company continues to prepare the interim separate financial statements on a going concern basis. However, as at 30 June 2025, the Company's short-term liabilities exceeded its short-term assets by VND 360,579,019,502 (as at 31 December 2024: VND 199,030,492,539), and the item "Short-term borrowings and short-term finance lease liabilities" included overdue amounts that remained unpaid totaling VND 661,943,314,908 (as at 31 December 2024: VND 537,536,195,974). The Company has prepared the interim separate financial statements on a going concern basis. This assumption is primarily dependent on the Company's ability to (1) negotiate with lenders and bondholders to restructure principal and interest obligations as they fall due, (2) collect cash from goods and services sold, and (3) obtain financial support from major shareholders who have committed to provide such support when necessary.

Other matter

We draw the readers' attention to the fact that the qualified audit opinion for the fiscal year 2024, as stated in Independent Audit Report No. 553/BCKT/TC/2025/AASCS dated 14 May 2025, has been retrospectively adjusted in the opening balances of these financial statements. Specifically, as presented in Note VIII.6 to the accompanying interim separate financial statements, the comparative figures (for the fiscal year ended 31 December 2024) of certain items in the interim separate financial statements have been adjusted by the Company's Management due to additional depreciation being recognised for certain factories, machinery and equipment that had been temporarily suspended from depreciation in 2024, with a total adjustment amount of VND 17,107,112,648. Accordingly, the qualified opinion for the year 2024 no longer has an impact that would require it to be reiterated in this review report.

We draw attention to Note V.6 to the accompanying interim separate financial statements regarding the item "Other short-term receivables", under which the receivable from Mr. Nguyen Van Hop amounted to VND 45,815,000,014 as at 30 June 2025 (31 December 2024: VND 45,815,000,014). This receivable arose from the Company's share transfer transaction in its subsidiary, CL Joint Stock Company, during 2024. The total value of this transaction was VND 80,800,000,000, resulting in an increase in the Company's profit for the year 2024 of VND 55,550,000,000. However, as at the date of issuance of this review report, the receivable has been overdue for payment for a period ranging from six months to less than one year, and the Company has only recovered an additional amount of VND 23,595,999,978, with the remaining outstanding balance of VND 22,219,000,036. Currently, the Company and Mr. Nguyen Van Hop have entered into a collateral agreement under which 2,590,000 shares of Mr. Nguyen Van Hop at CL Joint Stock Company have been pledged to secure this receivable, and ensure to settle in the subsequent fiscal period.

IV. APPLICABLE ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Cash and cash equivalents

a. Cash

Cash includes the total amount of money available to the company at the reporting date, comprising: cash on hand, cash in bank and cash in transit.

b. Cash equivalents

Cash equivalents are the investments which are collectible or mature less than 03 months from the date of the report, which can be converted easily into a certain amount and there is no risk of conversion into cash at the time of the reporting.

c. Conversion other currency

Economic transactions in foreign currencies must be recorded in detail in the original currency and converted to Vietnamese Dong at the actual exchange rate at the commercial bank where the company regularly enters into transactions or by the mobile weighted average exchange rate.

Whenever preparing financial statements as prescribed, the enterprise must re-evaluate the balance of foreign currencies and monetary gold following the rules below:

- The actual exchange rate upon re-evaluation of currency items with foreign currency origin classified as assets: is the foreign currency buying rate quoted by the commercial bank where the Company has regular transactions by the time of preparation for financial statements. For foreign currencies deposited at the bank, the actual exchange rate upon re-evaluation is the buying exchange rate of the bank where the enterprise opens its foreign currency account;

- The actual exchange rate upon re-evaluation of currency items with foreign currency origin classified as debts payable: is the foreign currency selling rate quoted by the commercial bank where the enterprise has regular transactions by the time of preparation for financial statements.

2. Financial investments

These are investments outside the Company for the purpose of rationally using capital to improve the Company's operational efficiency such as: investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures, associates, stock investments, and other financial investments...

For the preparation of financial statements, the financial investment must be classified as below:

- Having maturity less than 12 months or 01 normal production period are recorded as short - term;
- Having maturity more than 12 months or 01 normal production period are recorded as long - term.

a. Investments in subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are those entities in which the Company has control over the financial and operating policies to gain economic benefits from such activities, generally evidenced by holding more than half of voting rights. The existence and effect of potential voting rights that are currently exercisable or convertible are considered when assessing whether the Company control entity or not.

Investments in subsidiaries are initially recorded at costs of acquisition plus other expenditure directly attributable to the investment. Subsequently, the Board of Management reviews all outstanding investments to determine the amount of provision to recognise at the period end.

b. Investments in associates, joint ventures

Associates are the entities that the Company has significant influence but not control over and the Company would generally have from 20% to less than 50% of the voting rights of the investee.

Investments in associates is initially recorded at cost of acquisition including purchase cost or capital contribution value plus other expenditures directly attributable to the investment. Subsequently, the Board of Management reviews all outstanding investments to determine the amount of provision to recognise at the period end.

c. Provision for investments in subsidiaries, associates and other entities

Provision for investments in subsidiaries, associate and other entities is made when there is a diminution in value of the investments at the period end.

Provision for investments in subsidiaries, associates and other entities is calculated based on the lost of investees.

Provision for investments in other entities is calculated based on market value if market value can be determined reliably. If market value can not be determined reliably, the provision is calculated similarly to provision for investments in subsdiaries, associates and other entities.

Changes in the provision balance during the accounting period are recorded as an increase or decrease in financial expenses. A reversal, if any, is made only to the extent the investment is restored to its original cost.

3. Account receivables

The receivables shall be kept records in details according to period receivables, entities receivables, types of currency receivable and other factors according to requirements for the Company.

The amounts receivable shall be classified following rules below:

- Trade receivables: commercial receivables generating from purchase-sale related transactions between the Company and buyers such as receivables from sales, services, liquidation / transfer of assets, receivables from sale of exported goods given by the trustor through the trustee;
- Other receivables include non-commercial or non-trading receivables.

With regard to doubtful debts for several years, if the enterprise fails to collect payment of debts regardless of all measures taken and he client has insolvency the Company shall sell that debts to debt and assets trading company or eliminate doubtful debts account on the accounting records (according to regulations and charter of the company).

4. Accounting principles of inventory

a. Inventories

Inventories are stated at original cost. Where the net realizable value is lower than cost, inventories should be measured at the net realizable value. The cost of inventories should comprise all costs of purchase, costs of conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

b. The cost of inventory

The cost of inventory at the year-end is calculated by weighted average method.

c. The record of inventory

Inventory is recorded by the perpetual method.

d. Provisions for decline in value of inventories

At the end of the accounting period, if inventories do not recover enough at its historical value not because of damage, obsolescence, reduction of selling price. In this case, the provision for inventories is recognized. The provision for decline in inventories is the difference between the historical value of inventories and its net realizable value.

5. Fixed assets

a. Principles of accounting and depreciation of Tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation. Historical cost includes any expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the fixed assets putting them into ready-for-use state. Expenditures which are incurred shall be recorded as increase in their historical cost if they are expected to result in an increase in the future economic benefits from the use of these assets. Those incurred costs which fail to meet this requirement must be recognized as production and business expenses in the period.

Tangible fixed assets are depreciated on straight-line method over the estimated useful lives. The estimated useful lives of each assets class are as follows:

	Estimated depreciation year
- Buildings and structures	06 - 18
- Machinery and equipment	02 - 20
- Office equipment	03 - 06

When tangible fixed assets are sold or disposed, their historical cost, accumulated depreciation are written off, and then any gain or loss arising from such disposal is included in the income or expenses during the period.

b. Accounting principles for finance leased fixed assets

A lease is considered a finance lease when most of the rights and risks of ownership of the asset are transferred to the lessee. All other leases are considered operating leases.

Finance leased assets are recognized as assets and finance lease liabilities on the balance sheet at the lower of the fair value of the leased asset and the present value of the minimum lease payments at the commencement of the lease.

Lease payments for finance leases are divided into finance costs and principal repayment. Finance costs are calculated for each accounting period over the lease term based on a fixed interest rate applied to the outstanding lease liability.

Finance leased assets are amortized using the straight-line method over their estimated useful life, similar to assets owned by the company, or over the lease term, whichever is shorter, as follows:

	Estimated depreciation year
- Machinery and equipment	10

6. Construction in progress

Construction in progress reflect direct costs (including borrowing costs in accordance with the Company's accounting policy) associated with assets under construction, machinery, and equipment being installed for production, rental, and management purposes, as well as costs related to ongoing repairs of fixed assets. These assets are recorded at historical cost and are not depreciated.

7. Deferred corporate income tax

Deferred corporate income tax assets and deferred corporate income tax liabilities are determined based on the tax rate expected to be applied in the year the asset is recovered or the liability is settled, based on the tax rates effective at the end of the fiscal year.

8. Principles of accounting and amortization of prepaid expenses

The expenses actually incurred but they are related to operation output of many accounting period. The prepaid expenses are recognized at historical cost and amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful life.

The classification of prepaid expenses when preparing financial statements follows these principles below:

- Short-term prepaid expenses reflect the amounts paid in advance for services or tools and equipment that do not meet the conditions for asset recognition, and are expected to be used up within a period not exceeding 12 months or one business cycle from the date of payment;
- Long-term prepaid expenses reflect the amounts paid in advance for services more than a period exceeding 12 months or one business cycle from the date of payment.

9. Principles of accounting of payables and accruals

Payables and accruals are recognised for the amounts to be paid in the future for goods and services received. Accrued expenses are recognised based on reasonable estimates of the amounts to be paid.

The amounts receivable shall be classified following rules below:

- Trade payables include commercial amounts payable arisen from purchase of goods, services or asset and amounts payable include amounts payable when importing through the trustee;
- Accrued expenses reflect payables to goods or services received from the seller or provided for the seller during a reporting period, but payments of such goods or services have not been made due to lack of invoices or documents on accounting, which are recorded to operating expenses of the accounting period;
- Other payables include non-commercial amounts payable, or amounts payable relating to trading in goods or services.

The amounts receivable shall be classified following rules below:

- Payables with a remaining payment term of no more than 12 months or within one business cycle are classified as short-term;
- Payables with a remaining payment term of 12 months or more, or exceeding one business cycle, are classified as long-term.

10. Principles for recognizing loans and capitalizing borrowing costs

Borrowings and finance lease liabilities include amounts borrowed and finance lease obligations from banks, financial companies, and other parties.

The borrowings and finance lease liabilities shall be classified when preparing the financial statements following rules below:

- Borrowings and finance lease liabilities with payment period not more than 12 months are classified as short-term;
- Borrowings and finance lease liabilities with payment period of more than 12 months are classified as long-term.

Borrowing costs directly related to loans are recognized as financial expenses in the period, except for borrowing costs that are directly associated with the construction or production of qualifying assets, which are capitalized as part of the value of those assets when the conditions stipulated in the Accounting Standard on "Borrowing Costs".

11. Principles of accounting of common bonds

Common bonds are recorded and tracked as a loan of the enterprise from the time the funds are actually received from the issuance until the payment to bondholders is fully completed.

When making financial statement, in the liabilities of the balance sheet, the item of bond released shall be recorded on net basis (determining by bond value at par minus (-) bond discount are plus (+) Bond premium).

Cost of issuing bonds is gradually allocated in accordance with bond life under the straight line method or real interest rate method and recorded in the financial expense or capitalized. At the time of initial record, the cost of issuing bonds is recorded a decrease in par value of the bond. Periodically, accountants allocate cost for bond issuance by recording an increase in the par value and recording in financial expense or capitalization in accordance with the recording accrued interest of the bond.

12. Principles for recognizing owner's capital

a. Principles for recognizing owner's capital

The owner's equity is recognized at the actual capital contributions made by the owners and is tracked in detail for each organization and individual participating in the capital contribution.

For joint-stock companies, the share capital contributed by the shareholders is recorded at the actual price of the issue of shares, but is reflected in detail according to two separate criteria:

- The owner's equity is recognized at the par value of the shares;
- Share premium reflects the difference between par value and issuance price of shares.

In addition, share premium reflects the difference between par value and issuance price of shares when reissuing the treasury shares.

b. Principles for recognizing undistributed post-tax profits

Undistributed post-tax profits reflects business results of the Company after enterprise income tax at the reporting date.

Undistributed post-tax profit is distributed to shareholders after allocating funds according to the Company's Charter as well as legal regulations, and has been approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

13. Principles of revenues and income

a. Revenue from sales of goods

Total	661,943,314,908	537,536,195,974

Reason for non-payment: The overall economic difficulties have severely impacted the Company's business operations. Additionally, banks have tightened their credit appraisal and lending policies. As a result, when banks stop extending or issuing new credit limits for borrowing businesses, the Company's working capital experiences a significant shortfall, leading to low payment cash flow. These factors have caused the Company to struggle with meeting its due debt obligations to the bank.

5. GOING CONCERN ASSUMPTIONS

As at 30 June 2025, the Company's short-term liabilities exceeded its short-term assets by VND 360,579,019,502 (as at 31 December 2024: VND 199,030,492,539), and the item "Short-term borrowings and short-term finance lease liabilities" included overdue amounts that remained unpaid totaling VND 661,943,314,908 (as at 31 December 2024: VND 537,536,195,974). These conditions and events may give rise to significant doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The Company may not successfully implement one or more of its plans which, together with other future events and conditions, could result in the Company being unable to continue as a going concern. In such circumstances, the Company may not be able to realize its assets and settle its liabilities in the normal course of business for at least the next 12 months from the date of this interim separate financial statements.

The Company has prepared the interim separate financial statements on a going concern basis. This assumption is primarily dependent on the Company's ability to (1) negotiate with lenders and bondholders to restructure principal and interest obligations as they fall due, (2) collect cash from goods and services sold, and (3) obtain financial support from major shareholders who have committed to provide such support when necessary.

The key assumptions and material uncertainties relating to the going concern include:

- (i) Successful negotiation with lenders and bondholders to restructure principal and interest obligations upon maturity.

As at 30 June 2025, the Company's total outstanding borrowings, finance lease liabilities and bond liabilities amounted to VND 663,082,684,343 (as at 31 December 2024: VND 679,063,996,460). Up to the date of preparation of these separate interim financial statements, the Company has been in the process of negotiating the settlement of the remaining balances as follows:

- Bond liabilities: The Company convened a Bondholders' Meeting on 6 June 2025, at which the bondholders approved the plan for handling the collateral assets to fulfil the Company's payment obligations. Under the approved plan, the bond package is secured by seven (07) assets will be revalued and fully disposed of. As at the reporting date, the Company has been actively implementing the necessary procedures and working with relevant parties to seek potential investors/customers and to accelerate the sale of the collateral assets in accordance with the plan scheduled for implementation in 2026, thereby generating cash flows to settle bond obligations and support the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

- Borrowings and finance lease liabilities: The Company is concurrently implementing several remedial plans, including: (i) negotiating and reaching agreements on the voluntary disposal of collateral assets and the handover of such assets to creditors for auction in order to settle outstanding borrowings; and (ii) working with creditors to restructure existing loans, under which the Company has reached certain preliminary agreements and is currently in the process of completing the required conditions precedent for the restructuring plans to become effective. The creditors remain willing to negotiate extensions and provide the Company with additional time to implement remedial measures. The Board of Management assesses that the completion of the above-mentioned conditions precedent is feasible, thereby supporting the Company in maintaining its ability to continue as a going concern.

- (ii) Successful collection of cash from goods and services sold

The Company has been actively implementing measures to recover receivables from customers, and the current progress is assessed as relatively favorable. Based on the agreements in place and management's assessment as at the reporting date, the Company will be used the proceeds to finance ongoing projects and to support the Company's working capital requirements for maintaining its normal business operations over the subsequent 12

(iii) The major shareholders will provide financial support to the Company as necessary, in accordance with the signed letters of financial support, to assist the Company in settling its obligations as they fall due and to enable the Company to continue as a going concern for at least 12 months from the date on which these separate interim financial statements are approved. The Board of Management believes that such financial support commitments will be fulfilled in a timely manner when the Company requires financial assistance from its major shareholders.

Based on the aforementioned factors, the Board of Directors and Management believe that the Company will have sufficient working capital for its business operations and will be able to meet its due obligations for the next 12 months from the approval date of these interim separate financial statements. Accordingly, the Management considers that the interim separate financial statements for the six-month fiscal period ended 30 June 2025 have been prepared on an appropriate going concern basis.

6. COMPARATIVE FIGURES

The separate financial statements for the financial year ended 31 December 2024 presented a qualified audit opinion in relation to the Company's temporary suspension of depreciation for certain factories, machinery and equipment of projects that had not yet generated, or did not generate, revenue during 2024, with an amount of VND 17,107,112,648. In these interim separate financial statements, the Company's Management has decided to make a retrospective adjustment by recognising additional depreciation expense for the above-mentioned assets in the amount of VND 17,107,112,648 in the figures of the separate financial statements for the fiscal year 2024. Accordingly, the items presented in the interim separate financial statements have been adjusted as follows:
