 - c) To request the Supervisory Board to examine specific matters relating to the management and operation of the Company when deemed necessary. Such request must be made in writing and include the following information: full name, contact address, nationality and legal identification number of an individual shareholder; or name, enterprise identification number or legal identification number, and head office address of an organizational shareholder; number of shares and the time of share registration of each shareholder, the total number of shares of the shareholder group and the ownership ratio in the total number of shares of the Company; matters to be examined and purposes of the examination;
 - d) To propose matters to be included in the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Such proposal must be made in writing and sent to the Company at least three (03) working days prior to the opening date of the meeting. The proposal must clearly state the name of the shareholder, the number of each class of shares held by the shareholder, and the matters proposed to be included in the meeting agenda;
 - e) Other rights as prescribed by law and this Charter.
 3. Shareholders or groups of shareholders owning ten percent (10%) or more of the total number of ordinary shares shall have the right to nominate candidates to the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board.

The nomination of candidates to the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board shall be carried out as follows:

- a) Ordinary shareholders forming a group to nominate candidates to the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board must notify shareholders attending the meeting of such grouping prior to the opening of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
- b) Based on the number of members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board, shareholders or shareholder groups specified in this Clause shall have the right to nominate one or more candidates as decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders to stand for election to the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board. In case the number of candidates nominated by shareholders or shareholder groups is lower than the number they are entitled to nominate pursuant to the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the remaining candidates shall be nominated by the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board. The nomination of additional candidates must be clearly disclosed prior to the General Meeting of Shareholders voting for election in accordance with the provisions of law.

Article 12. Obligations of Shareholders

Ordinary shareholders shall have the following obligations:

1. To fully pay and pay on time the number of shares committed to purchase.
2. Not to withdraw the capital contributed in the form of ordinary shares from the Company in any manner, except where the shares are repurchased by the Company or purchased by other persons. In the event that a shareholder withdraws part or all of the contributed share capital in violation of this Clause, such shareholder and any related persons in the Company shall be jointly and severally liable for the debts and other property obligations of the Company within the value of the withdrawn shares and for any damages incurred.
3. To comply with the Company's Charter and the Company's Internal Management Regulations.
4. To comply with resolutions and decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Board of Directors.
5. To maintain confidentiality of information provided by the Company in accordance with the Company's Charter and applicable laws; to use such information solely for the purpose of exercising and protecting their lawful rights and interests; and to strictly refrain from disseminating, copying or transmitting information provided by the Company to other organizations or individuals.

6. To attend meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders and exercise voting rights through the following forms:
 - a) Attending and voting directly at the meeting;
 - b) Authorizing another individual or organization to attend and vote at the meeting;
 - c) Attending and voting via online conferences, electronic voting or other electronic means;

 - c) At the request of a shareholder or a group of shareholders as prescribed in Clause 2 Article 115 of the Law on Enterprises; such request for convening a General Meeting of Shareholders must be made in writing, clearly stating the reasons and purposes of the meeting, and bearing sufficient signatures of the relevant shareholders, or be made

- in multiple documents collectively containing sufficient signatures of the relevant shareholders;
- d) At the request of the Supervisory Board;
 - e) Other cases as prescribed by law and this Charter.
5. Convening an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders:
- a) The Board of Directors must convene a General Meeting of Shareholders within thirty (30) days from the date on which the remaining number of members of the Board of Directors, independent members of the Board of Directors or members of the Supervisory Board falls under the circumstance prescribed in Point b Clause 4 of this Article, or from the date of receipt of a request as prescribed in Points c and d Clause 4 of this Article;
 - b) In case the Board of Directors fails to convene a General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with Point a Clause 5 of this Article, the Supervisory Board shall, within the next thirty (30) days, replace the Board of Directors in convening the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with Clause 3 Article 140 of the Law on Enterprises;
 - c) In case the Supervisory Board fails to convene a General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with Point b Clause 5 of this Article, the shareholder or group of shareholders prescribed in Point c Clause 4 of this Article shall have the right to request a representative of the Company to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with the Law on Enterprises. In this case, the shareholder or group of shareholders convening the General Meeting of Shareholders may request the business registration authority to supervise the procedures for convening, conducting the meeting and adopting resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders. All costs for convening and conducting the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be reimbursed by the Company. Such costs shall not include expenses incurred by shareholders when attending the General Meeting of Shareholders, including accommodation and travel expenses;
 - d) Procedures for organizing meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be carried out in accordance with Article 18 of this Charter.
6. Forms of adoption of resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders:

7. All matters, decisions and resolutions within the decision-making authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed by the Company's Charter and applicable laws may be adopted by the General Meeting of Shareholders either through voting at meetings or by collecting written opinions.

Article 14. Rights and obligations of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall have the following rights and obligations:
 - a) To approve the development orientation of the Company;
 - b) To decide on the classes of shares and the total number of shares of each class authorized for offering; and to decide on the annual dividend rate for each class of shares;

 - m) Division, separation, consolidation, merger or conversion of the Company;
 - n) Reorganization and dissolution (liquidation) of the Company and appointment of liquidators;
 - o) o) Decisions on investments in, or disposal of, assets with a value of thirty-five percent (35%) or more of the total asset value as recorded in the most recent financial statements of the Company;
 - p) Decisions on the repurchase of more than ten percent (10%) of the total number of issued shares of each class;

- q) Approval of the Company entering into contracts or transactions with persons specified in Clause 1 Article 167 of the Law on Enterprises with a value equal to or greater than thirty-five percent (35%) of the total asset value of the Company as recorded in the most recent consolidated financial statements;
- r) Approval of transactions specified in Clause 4 Article 293 of Decree No. 155/2020/ND-CP dated December 31, 2020 of the Government detailing the implementation of certain articles of the Law on Securities;
- s) Approval of the Internal Corporate Governance Regulations, the Operating Regulations of the Board of Directors, and the Operating Regulations of the Supervisory Board;
- t) Other matters as prescribed by law and this Charter;
- u) All resolutions and matters included in the meeting agenda must be discussed and voted on at the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 15. Authorization to attend meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. A shareholder or an authorized representative of an organizational shareholder may attend the meeting in person or authorize one or more other individuals or organizations to attend the meeting, or attend the meeting through one of the following forms:
 - a) Attending and voting directly at the meeting;
 - b) Authorizing another individual or organization to attend and vote at the meeting;
 - c) Attending and voting via online conferences, electronic voting or other electronic means;
 - d) Sending voting ballots to the meeting by mail, fax or electronic mail;
 - e) Sending voting ballots by other means as prescribed by the Company.
2. The authorization for an individual or organization to represent a shareholder to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with Clause 1 of this Article must be made in writing.

The authorization document shall be made in accordance with civil law regulations and must clearly state the name of the authorizing shareholder, the name of the authorized individual or organization, the number of shares authorized, the contents of the authorization, the scope of authorization, the term of authorization, and the signatures of both the authorizing party and the authorized party.

3. The authorized person attending the General Meeting of Shareholders must submit the authorization document upon registration for attendance, or such authorization document must be sent to the Company no later than twenty-four (24) hours before the General Meeting of Shareholders is convened.
4. The voting ballots of an authorized person attending the meeting within the scope of authorization shall remain valid in any of the following cases, except where:
 - a) The authorizing party has died, has limited civil act capacity or has lost civil act capacity;
 - b) The authorizing party has revoked the authorization;
 - c) The authorizing party has revoked the authority of the authorized person.
5. This Clause shall not apply in cases where the Company receives notice of any of the above events before the opening time of the General Meeting of Shareholders or before the meeting is reconvened.

Article 16. Variation of Rights

1. Any variation or cancellation of special rights attached to a class of preference shares shall take effect when approved by shareholders representing at least sixty-five percent (65%) of the total voting rights of all shareholders attending the meeting. A resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders on matters that adversely affect the rights and obligations of holders of preference shares shall only be adopted if it is approved by preference shareholders of the same class attending the meeting and holding at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the total number of preference shares of that class, or by preference shareholders of the same class holding at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the total number of preference shares of that class in the case where the resolution is adopted by collecting written opinions.
2. A meeting of shareholders holding a class of preference shares to approve the variation of rights as mentioned above shall be valid only if there are at least two (02) shareholders (or their authorized representatives) holding at least one-third (1/3) of the total par value of the issued shares of that class.

In case such quorum is not met, the meeting shall be reconvened within the following thirty (30) days, and shareholders holding shares of that class who are present in person or through authorized representatives, regardless of the number of persons and number of shares held, shall be deemed to constitute a valid quorum.

At such meetings of holders of preference shares, shareholders holding shares of that class who are present in person or through representatives may request voting by secret ballot.

Each share of the same class shall carry equal voting rights at such meetings.

3. The procedures for conducting such separate meetings shall be carried out in a manner similar to those prescribed in Articles 18, 19 and 20 of this Charter.
4. Unless otherwise provided in the terms of issuance of shares, the special rights attached to classes of shares with preferential rights in respect of some or all matters relating to the distribution of profits or assets of the Company shall not be varied when the Company issues additional shares of the same class.

Article 17. Convening meetings, meeting agenda and notice of invitation to the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The Board of Directors shall convene annual and extraordinary meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The Board of Directors shall convene extraordinary meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders in the cases prescribed in Article 13 of this Charter.
2. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall perform the following tasks:
 - a) To prepare the list of shareholders eligible to attend and vote at the General Meeting of Shareholders. The list of shareholders entitled to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be prepared no more than ten (10) days prior to the date of sending the notice of invitation to the General Meeting of Shareholders. The Company shall disclose information on the preparation of the list of shareholders entitled to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders at least twenty (20) days prior to the record date;
 - b) To prepare the agenda and contents of the meeting;
 - c) To prepare documents for the meeting;
 - d) To draft resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with the proposed contents of the meeting;

- e) To determine the time and venue of the meeting;
 - f) To notify and send notices of invitation to the General Meeting of Shareholders to all shareholders entitled to attend the meeting;
 - g) Other tasks in service of the meeting.
3. Notices of invitation to the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be sent to all shareholders by post, electronic mail (email), text message, fax and/or other means of communication to ensure delivery to the shareholders' contact addresses. The notice of invitation shall also be disclosed on the Company's website and on the websites of the State Securities Commission and the Stock Exchange where the Company's shares are listed or registered for trading.

The notice of invitation to the General Meeting of Shareholders must be sent at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the meeting date, calculated from the date on which the notice is duly sent or dispatched.

The agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders and documents relating to matters to be voted on at the meeting shall be sent to shareholders and/or posted on the Company's website.

In case such documents are not enclosed with the notice of invitation, the notice must clearly state the link to the full set of meeting documents so that shareholders may access them, including:

- a) The meeting agenda and documents to be used at the meeting;
 - b) The list and detailed information of candidates in the case of election of members of the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board;
 - c) Voting ballots;
 - d) Draft resolutions for each matter included in the meeting agenda.
4. Shareholders or groups of shareholders as prescribed in Clause 2 Article 11 of this Charter shall have the right to propose matters to be included in the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Such proposals must be made in writing and sent to the Company no later than five (05) working days prior to the opening date of the meeting. The proposal must clearly state the name of the shareholder, the number of shares of each class held by the shareholder, and the matters proposed to be included in the meeting agenda.

5. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall have the right to refuse proposals prescribed in Clause 4 of this Article in any of the following cases:
 - a) The proposal is not submitted in accordance with Clause 4 of this Article;
 - b) At the time of submission of the proposal, the shareholder or group of shareholders does not hold at least five percent (5%) of the total number of ordinary shares as prescribed in Clause 2 Article 11 of this Charter;
 - c) The proposed matter does not fall within the decision-making authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - d) Other cases as prescribed by law and this Charter.
6. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders must accept and include proposals prescribed in Clause 4 of this Article in the proposed agenda and contents of the meeting, except for the cases prescribed in Clause 5 of this Article. Such proposals shall be officially added to the agenda and contents of the meeting if approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 18. Conditions for conducting meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. A meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be conducted when the attending shareholders represent more than fifty percent (50%) of the total voting rights.
2. In case the first meeting does not meet the conditions for conduct as prescribed in Clause 1 of this Article, the notice of invitation to the second meeting shall be sent within thirty (30) days from the scheduled date of the first meeting.

The second meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be conducted when the attending shareholders represent at least thirty-three percent (33%) of the total voting rights.

3. In case the second meeting does not meet the conditions for conduct as prescribed in Clause 2 of this Article, the notice of invitation to the third meeting must be sent within thirty (30) days from the scheduled date of the second meeting.

The third meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be conducted regardless of the total number of voting rights represented by the attending shareholders.

Article 19. Procedures for conducting meetings and voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Prior to the opening of the meeting, the Company shall carry out shareholder registration procedures and shall continue such registration until all shareholders entitled to attend the meeting have completed registration, in accordance with the following order:

- a) Upon shareholder registration, the Company shall issue to each shareholder or authorized representative with voting rights a voting card indicating the registration number, full name of the shareholder, full name of the authorized representative (if any), and the number of voting rights of such shareholder.

The General Meeting of Shareholders shall discuss and vote on each matter included in the meeting agenda. Voting shall be conducted in the form of votes in favor, votes against, or abstentions.

At the meeting, voting cards in favor of resolutions shall be collected first, followed by voting cards against resolutions; thereafter, the total number of votes in favor or against shall be counted to determine the result.

Shareholders who do not participate in voting shall be deemed to have abstained. The vote-counting results shall be announced by the Chairperson immediately before the closing of the meeting.

The General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect persons responsible for vote counting or supervision of vote counting upon the proposal of the Chairperson. The number of members of the vote-counting committee shall be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders based on the proposal of the Chairperson of the meeting;

- b) Shareholders, authorized representatives of organizational shareholders, or authorized persons who arrive after the meeting has commenced shall have the right to register immediately and thereafter to participate in and vote at the General Meeting of Shareholders immediately after registration.

The Chairperson shall not be responsible for suspending the meeting to allow late-arriving shareholders to register, and the validity of matters already voted on prior thereto shall remain unchanged.

2. The election of the Chairperson, Secretary and vote-counting committee shall be conducted as follows:

a) The Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall act as the Chairperson of the meeting or may authorize another member of the Board of Directors to act as the Chairperson of the General Meeting of Shareholders convened by the Board of Directors. In case the Chairperson is absent or temporarily incapable of performing his/her duties, the remaining members of the Board of Directors shall elect one among themselves to act as the Chairperson of the meeting by majority vote.

In case no Chairperson can be elected, the Head of the Supervisory Board shall preside over the election by the General Meeting of Shareholders of a Chairperson from among the attendees, and the person receiving the highest number of votes shall act as the Chairperson of the meeting;

b) Except for the case prescribed in Point a of this Clause, the person signing the notice convening the General Meeting of Shareholders shall preside over the election by the General Meeting of Shareholders of a Chairperson of the meeting, and the person receiving the highest number of votes shall act as the Chairperson of the meeting;

c) The Chairperson shall appoint one or more persons to act as the Secretary(ies) of the meeting;

d) The General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect one or more persons to the vote-counting committee upon the proposal of the Chairperson of the meeting.

3. The agenda and contents of the meeting must be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders at the opening session. The agenda must clearly and specifically determine the time allocated to each matter included therein.

4. The Chairperson of the meeting shall have the right to take necessary and reasonable measures to conduct the General Meeting of Shareholders in an orderly manner, in accordance with the approved agenda, and reflecting the will of the majority of attendees, including:

a) Arranging seating at the venue of the General Meeting of Shareholders;

b) Ensuring safety for all persons present at the meeting venue;

c) Facilitating shareholders' participation (or continued participation) in the meeting. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall have full authority to change the above measures and apply all necessary measures, which may include issuing entry passes or using other selection methods.

5. Shareholders or authorized persons who arrive after the meeting has commenced shall still be entitled to register and to participate in voting immediately after registration; in such case, the validity of matters already voted on prior thereto shall remain unchanged.
6. The convener or the Chairperson of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall have the following rights:
 - a) To require all attendees to be subject to inspection or other lawful and reasonable security measures;
 - b) To request competent authorities to maintain order at the meeting; and to expel from the General Meeting of Shareholders those who fail to comply with the Chairperson's authority, deliberately disrupt order, obstruct the normal conduct of the meeting, or fail to comply with security inspection requirements.
7. The Chairperson shall have the right to adjourn a duly convened General Meeting of Shareholders for a maximum period not exceeding three (03) working days from the scheduled opening date of the meeting, and may only adjourn the meeting or change the meeting venue in the following cases:
 - a) The meeting venue does not have sufficient convenient seating for all attendees;
 - b) The information and communication facilities at the meeting venue do not ensure shareholders' ability to attend, discuss and vote at the meeting;
 - c) There are attendees obstructing or disrupting order, posing a risk that the meeting cannot be conducted in a fair and lawful manner.
8. In case the Chairperson adjourns or suspends the General Meeting of Shareholders in violation of the provisions of Clause 7 of this Article, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect another person from among the attendees to replace the Chairperson and preside over the meeting until its conclusion; all resolutions adopted at such meeting shall remain valid and effective.
9. Where the Company applies modern technology to organize the General Meeting of Shareholders through online meetings, the Company shall be responsible for ensuring that shareholders may attend and vote by electronic voting or other electronic means in accordance with Article 144 of the Law on Enterprises. Specifically:

- a) The Board of Directors shall decide to organize the General Meeting of Shareholders in an online format, another electronic format, or a combination of online and in-person formats, in accordance with the Company's technological capabilities at the time of the meeting, instead of holding an in-person General Meeting of Shareholders, in circumstances such as war, terrorism, riots, national emergencies, public disorder, strikes, epidemics, fires, floods, earthquakes, natural disasters, social distancing measures, travel restrictions, similar events, and/or other cases as decided by the Board of Directors;
- b) The application of modern information technology for organizing the General Meeting of Shareholders must ensure that shareholders are able to attend, express opinions and vote at the General Meeting of Shareholders through online meetings, electronic voting or other electronic means in accordance with Article 144 of the Law on Enterprises and the Company's Charter. The order, procedures and other regulations relating to online General Meetings of Shareholders shall be stipulated in the Internal Corporate Governance Regulations and/or other internal regulations of the Company.

Article 20. Conditions for adoption of resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Resolutions on the following matters shall be adopted if approved by shareholders representing at least sixty-five percent (65%) of the total voting rights of all shareholders attending and voting at the meeting, except for the cases prescribed in Clauses 3, 4 and 6 Article 148 of the Law on Enterprises:
 - a) Classes of shares and the total number of shares of each class;
 - b) Changes to business lines and business sectors;
 - c) Changes to the organizational and management structure of the Company;
 - d) Investment projects or disposal of assets with a value of thirty-five percent (35%) or more of the total asset value as recorded in the most recent consolidated financial statements of the Company;
 - e) Reorganization or dissolution of the Company.
2. Other resolutions shall be adopted if approved by shareholders owning more than fifty percent (50%) of the total voting rights of all shareholders attending and voting at the meeting, except for the cases prescribed in Clause 1 and Clause 3 of this Article and Clauses 3, 4 and 6 Article 148 of the Law on Enterprises.

3. Voting for the election of members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board shall be conducted by cumulative voting, whereby each shareholder shall have a total number of votes equal to the number of shares owned multiplied by the number of members to be elected to the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board, and shareholders shall have the right to allocate all or part of their total votes to one or more candidates.

Elected members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board shall be determined based on the number of votes received, counted from highest to lowest, starting with the candidate receiving the highest number of votes until the required number of members as prescribed in the Company's Charter is met.

In case two (02) or more candidates receive an equal number of votes for the final position of the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board, a re-election shall be conducted among such candidates, or selection shall be made in accordance with the criteria prescribed in the election regulations or the Company's Charter.

4. Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders adopted with one hundred percent (100%) of the total voting shares shall be lawful and effective even if the procedures and formalities for convening the meeting and adopting such resolutions violate the provisions of the Law on Enterprises and the Company's Charter.

Article 21. Authority and procedures for collecting written opinions of shareholders to adopt resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

The authority and procedures for collecting written opinions of shareholders to adopt resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be carried out in accordance with the following provisions:

1. All matters, decisions and resolutions falling within the decision-making authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed by the Company's Charter and applicable laws may be adopted by the General Meeting of Shareholders either through voting at a meeting or by collecting written opinions. The Board of Directors shall decide on the form of adoption based on actual conditions, the matters concerned and the interests of the Company.

2. The Board of Directors shall prepare voting ballots, draft resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders, explanatory documents for the draft resolutions, and send them to all shareholders with voting rights no later than ten (10) days prior to the deadline for returning the voting ballots. The requirements and methods for sending voting ballots and accompanying documents shall be carried out in accordance with Clause 3 Article 17 of this Charter.
3. The voting ballot must contain the following principal contents:
 - a) Name, address of the head office and enterprise identification number;
 - b) Purpose of collecting opinions;
 - c) Full name, contact address, nationality and legal identification number of an individual shareholder; or name, enterprise identification number or legal identification number, and address of the head office of an organizational shareholder; or full name, contact address, nationality and legal identification number of the representative of an organizational shareholder; number of shares of each class and the number of voting rights of the shareholder;
 - d) Matters on which opinions are to be collected for adoption of decisions;
 - e) Voting options including votes in favor, votes against, and abstentions for each matter subject to opinion collection;
 - f) Deadline for returning the completed voting ballot to the Company;
 - g) Full name and signature of the Chairperson of the Board of Directors.
4. Shareholders may return completed voting ballots to the Company by mail, fax or electronic mail in accordance with the following provisions:
 - a) In case of return by mail, the completed voting ballot must bear the signature of the individual shareholder, or of the authorized representative or legal representative of an organizational shareholder. Voting ballots returned to the Company must be enclosed in sealed envelopes and shall not be opened by any person prior to vote counting;
 - b) In case of return by fax or electronic mail, voting ballots returned to the Company must be kept confidential until the time of vote counting;

- c) Voting ballots returned to the Company after the deadline specified in the voting ballot, or opened prematurely in the case of return by mail, or disclosed prematurely in the case of return by fax or electronic mail, shall be invalid. Voting ballots not returned shall be deemed ballots not participating in voting.
5. The Board of Directors shall conduct vote counting and prepare vote-counting minutes in the presence of the Supervisory Board or shareholders who do not hold managerial positions in the Company.

The vote-counting minutes must contain the following principal contents:

- a) Name, address of the head office and enterprise identification number;
- b) Purpose and matters subject to opinion collection for adoption of resolutions;
- c) Number of shareholders and total voting rights participating in voting, clearly distinguishing valid votes and invalid votes and the methods of ballot submission, together with an appendix listing shareholders participating in voting;
- d) Total number of votes in favor, votes against and abstentions for each matter;
- e) Matters adopted and the corresponding approval ratios;
- f) Full names and signatures of the Chairperson of the Board of Directors, the vote counters and the vote-counting supervisors.

Members of the Board of Directors, vote counters and vote-counting supervisors shall be jointly and severally liable for the truthfulness and accuracy of the vote-counting minutes, and jointly and severally liable for any damages arising from resolutions adopted due to untruthful or inaccurate vote counting.

6. The vote-counting minutes and resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders must be posted on the Company's website within twenty-four (24) hours from the completion of vote counting.
7. Completed voting ballots, vote-counting minutes, adopted resolutions and relevant documents enclosed with the voting ballots shall be retained at the Company's head office.
8. A resolution adopted by collecting written opinions of shareholders shall be valid if approved by shareholders owning more than fifty percent (50%) of the total voting rights of all shareholders with voting rights, and shall have the same validity as a resolution adopted at a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 22. Resolutions and Minutes of Meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders must be recorded in minutes and may be audio-recorded or recorded and stored in other electronic forms. The minutes shall be prepared in Vietnamese and may additionally be prepared in a foreign language, and shall contain the following principal contents:
 - a) Name, address of the head office and enterprise identification number;
 - b) Time and venue of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - c) Agenda and contents of the meeting;
 - d) Full names of the Chairperson and the Secretary;
 - e) Summary of the developments of the meeting and opinions expressed at the General Meeting of Shareholders on each matter included in the meeting agenda;
 - f) Number of shareholders and total voting rights of shareholders attending the meeting, together with an appendix listing registered shareholders and their representatives attending the meeting, indicating the corresponding number of shares and voting rights;
 - g) Total number of votes on each matter put to a vote, clearly stating the voting method, total number of valid votes, invalid votes, votes in favor, votes against and abstentions, and the corresponding ratios over the total voting rights of shareholders attending the meeting;
 - h) Matters approved and the corresponding approval ratios;
 - i) Full names and signatures of the Chairperson and the Secretary. In case the Chairperson or the Secretary refuses to sign the meeting minutes, such minutes shall remain valid if signed by all other members of the Board of Directors attending the meeting and containing all contents prescribed in this Clause. The minutes must clearly state the refusal of the Chairperson or the Secretary to sign the minutes.
2. The minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders must be completed and approved before the conclusion of the meeting. The Chairperson and the Secretary of the meeting, or other persons signing the minutes, shall be jointly and severally liable for the truthfulness and accuracy of the contents of the minutes.

3. The minutes shall be prepared in Vietnamese and may be prepared in a foreign language.

In case the minutes are additionally prepared in a foreign language, both the Vietnamese version and the foreign language version shall have equal legal validity. In case of any discrepancy between the Vietnamese version and the foreign language version, the Vietnamese version shall prevail.

4. Resolutions and minutes of meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders, appendices of the list of shareholders registered to attend the meeting bearing shareholders' signatures, powers of attorney for meeting attendance, all documents attached to the minutes (if any), and documents enclosed with the notice of invitation to the meeting must be disclosed in accordance with laws on information disclosure in the securities market and shall be retained at the Company's head office.

Article 23. Request for annulment of resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

Within ninety (90) days from the date of receipt of the Resolution or the Minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders, or the Minutes of vote-counting results for collecting opinions of the General Meeting of Shareholders, a shareholder or a group of shareholders as prescribed in Clause 2 Article 11 of this Charter shall have the right to request a Court or Arbitration to review and annul a resolution or part of a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders in the following cases:

1. The order and procedures for convening the meeting and adopting resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders seriously violate the provisions of the Law on Enterprises and the Company's Charter, except for the case prescribed in Clause 4 Article 20 of this Charter.
2. The contents of the resolution violate the law or this Charter.

VII. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 24. Nomination and candidacy for members of the Board of Directors

1. Where candidates for the Board of Directors have been identified, the Company shall disclose information relating to such candidates at least ten (10) days prior to the opening date of the General Meeting of Shareholders on the Company's website so that shareholders may review information on the candidates before voting.

Candidates for the Board of Directors must provide written commitments on the truthfulness and accuracy of the personal information disclosed and must commit to performing their duties honestly, prudently and in the best interests of the Company if elected as members of the Board of Directors.

Information relating to candidates for the Board of Directors to be disclosed shall include:

- a) Full name and date of birth;
 - b) Professional qualifications;
 - c) Working experience;
 - d) Other managerial positions held (including positions as members of the boards of directors of other companies);
 - e) Interests related to the Company and the Company's related parties;
 - f) Other information (if any) as prescribed in the Company's Charter;
 - g) The Company shall be responsible for disclosing information on companies in which the candidate holds positions as a member of the board of directors or other managerial positions, and interests related to such companies of the candidate for the Board of Directors (if any).
2. Ordinary shareholders shall have the right to form a group to nominate persons to the Board of Directors.

A shareholder or group of shareholders owning from ten percent (10%) to less than twenty percent (20%) of the total voting shares shall have the right to nominate one (01) candidate to the Board of Directors; owning from twenty percent (20%) to less than forty percent (40%) shall have the right to nominate two (02) candidates; owning from forty percent (40%) to less than fifty percent (50%) shall have the right to nominate three (03) candidates; owning from fifty percent (50%) to sixty percent (60%) shall have the right to nominate four (04) candidates; and owning sixty percent (60%) or more shall have the right to nominate up to five (05) candidates.

3. In case the number of candidates for the Board of Directors proposed through nomination and self-nomination remains insufficient as required under Clause 5

Article 115 of the Law on Enterprises, the incumbent Board of Directors shall introduce additional candidates or organize nominations in accordance with the Company's Charter, the Internal Corporate Governance Regulations and the Regulations on operation of the Board of Directors. The introduction of additional candidates by the incumbent Board of Directors must be clearly disclosed prior to the General Meeting of Shareholders voting to elect members of the Board of Directors in accordance with law.

4. Members of the Board of Directors must satisfy the following standards and conditions:
 - a) Not falling under the cases prescribed in Clause 2 Article 17 of the Law on Enterprises;
 - b) Having professional qualifications and experience in corporate governance or in the Company's business lines and sectors, and not necessarily being shareholders of the Company;
 - c) A member of the Board of Directors of the Company may only concurrently serve as a member of the Board of Directors or Members' Council of no more than five (05) other companies;
 - d) Other standards and conditions as prescribed by law (if any).
5. Except where otherwise provided by securities laws, independent members of the Board of Directors of the Company must satisfy the following standards and conditions:
 - a) Not being a person currently working for the Company, the parent company or a subsidiary of the Company; and not having worked for the Company, the parent company or a subsidiary of the Company for at least three (03) consecutive years immediately preceding;
 - b) Not being a person receiving salary or remuneration from the Company, except for allowances to which members of the Board of Directors are entitled in accordance with regulations;
 - c) Not being a person whose spouse, biological father, adoptive father, biological mother, adoptive mother, biological child, adopted child, full sibling is a major shareholder of the Company; or a manager of the Company or a subsidiary of the Company;

- d) Not being a person who directly or indirectly owns at least one percent (1%) of the total voting shares of the Company;
 - e) Not having served as a member of the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board of the Company for at least five (05) consecutive years immediately preceding, except in the case of continuous appointment for two (02) consecutive terms.
6. An independent member of the Board of Directors must notify the Board of Directors when he/she no longer satisfies the standards and conditions prescribed in Clause 5 of this Article and shall automatically cease to be an independent member of the Board of Directors from the date such standards and conditions are no longer satisfied. The Board of Directors must notify the case where an independent member of the Board of Directors no longer satisfies the standards and conditions at the nearest meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders or convene a General Meeting of Shareholders to elect an additional or replacement independent member of the Board of Directors within six (06) months from the date of receipt of the notice from the relevant independent member of the Board of Directors.

Article 25. Composition and term of office of members of the Board of Directors

1. The Board of Directors shall consist of three (03) members.
2. The term of office of a member of the Board of Directors shall not exceed five (05) years and members may be re-elected for an unlimited number of terms. An individual may be elected as an independent member of the Board of Directors of the Company for no more than two (02) consecutive terms. In the event that all members of the Board of Directors simultaneously complete their terms of office, such members shall continue to serve as members of the Board of Directors until new members are elected to replace them and assume their duties.
3. Structure of the Board of Directors: The number of non-executive members must meet the following requirement: at least one (01) non-executive member where the Board has from three (03) to five (05) members. The number of independent members must meet the following requirement: at least one (01) independent member where the Board has from three (03) to five (05) members.
4. A member of the Board of Directors shall cease to hold office as a member of the Board of Directors in the event of being removed, dismissed or replaced by the General Meeting of Shareholders in the following cases:

- a) The General Meeting of Shareholders shall remove a member of the Board of Directors in the following cases:
 - (i) Failing to satisfy the standards and conditions prescribed in Clauses 4 and 5 Article 24 of this Charter;
 - (ii) Submitting a resignation letter which is accepted;
 - (iii) Other cases as prescribed by the Company's Charter and applicable laws.
- b) The General Meeting of Shareholders shall dismiss a member of the Board of Directors in the following cases:
 - (i) Failing to participate in the activities of the Board of Directors for six (06) consecutive months, except in cases of force majeure;
 - (ii) Other cases as prescribed by the Company's Charter and applicable laws.
- c) Where deemed necessary, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall decide to replace a member of the Board of Directors; and may remove or dismiss a member of the Board of Directors outside the cases prescribed in Points a and b of Clause 4 of this Article.
- d) The Board of Directors shall convene a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders to elect additional members of the Board of Directors in the following cases:
 - (i) The number of members of the Board of Directors is reduced by more than one-third ($1/3$) compared to the number prescribed in the Company's Charter. In this case, the Board of Directors must convene a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders within sixty (60) days from the date on which the number of members is reduced by more than one-third;
 - (ii) The number of independent members of the Board of Directors decreases and no longer ensures the ratio prescribed in Point b Clause 1 Article 137 of the Law on Enterprises;
 - (iii) Other cases as prescribed by the Company's Charter and applicable laws;

- (iv) Except for the cases prescribed in Items (i) and (ii) of Point d of this Clause, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect new members to replace members of the Board of Directors who have been removed or dismissed at the nearest meeting.
5. The appointment of members of the Board of Directors must be disclosed in accordance with the laws on information disclosure in the securities market.
 6. Members of the Board of Directors are not necessarily required to be shareholders of the Company.

Article 26. Rights and obligations of the Board of Directors

1. The Board of Directors is the management body of the Company and shall have full authority, on behalf of the Company, to decide on and exercise the rights and obligations of the Company, except for those rights and obligations falling under the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

 - b) Summary of meetings of the Board of Directors and resolutions adopted by the Board of Directors;
 - c) Report on transactions between the Company, its subsidiaries and companies in which the Company holds more than fifty percent (50%) of the charter capital, with members of the Board of Directors and their related persons; and transactions between the Company and companies in which a member of the Board of Directors is a founding shareholder or an enterprise manager within the three (03) years immediately preceding the transaction;
 - d) Activities of independent members and reports on the evaluation results of each independent member regarding the performance of the Board of Directors;
 - e) Activities of other committees under the Board of Directors (if any);
 - f) Results of supervision over the General Director;
 - g) Results of supervision over other executives;
 - h) Future plans.

Article 27. Remuneration, bonuses and other benefits of members of the Board of Directors

1. The Company shall have the right to pay remuneration and bonuses to members of the Board of Directors based on business results and operational efficiency.

2. Members of the Board of Directors shall be entitled to work remuneration and bonuses.

The total amount of remuneration and bonuses of the Board of Directors shall be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders at the annual meeting.

3. Remuneration of each member of the Board of Directors shall be accounted for as a business expense of the Company in accordance with the law on corporate income tax, shall be presented as a separate item in the Company's annual financial statements, and shall be reported to the General Meeting of Shareholders at the annual meeting.

4. Members of the Board of Directors holding executive positions, or members of the Board of Directors working in committees of the Board of Directors, or performing other tasks beyond the normal scope of duties of a member of the Board of Directors, may be paid additional remuneration in the form of a lump-sum fee per assignment, salary, commission, profit percentage, or other forms as decided by the Board of Directors.

5. Members of the Board of Directors shall be entitled to reimbursement of all travel, accommodation, meals and other reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of their duties as members of the Board of Directors, including expenses incurred in attending meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Board of Directors or committees of the Board of Directors.

6. Members of the Board of Directors may be covered by directors' liability insurance purchased by the Company upon approval of the General Meeting of Shareholders. Such insurance shall not cover liabilities of members of the Board of Directors arising from violations of law or the Company's Charter.

Article 28. Chairperson of the Board of Directors

1. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall be elected, removed or dismissed by the Board of Directors from among its members.

2. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall not concurrently hold the position of General Director.

3. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall have the following powers and duties:
 - a) To formulate programs and operational plans of the Board of Directors;
 - b) To prepare the agenda, contents and documents for meetings; to convene, preside over and act as the Chairperson of meetings of the Board of Directors;
 - c) To organize the adoption of resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors;
 - d) To supervise the implementation of resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors;
 - e) To act as the Chairperson of meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - f) Other powers and duties as prescribed by the Law on Enterprises, the Company's Charter and authorizations/assignments of the Board of Directors.
4. In case the Chairperson of the Board of Directors submits a resignation letter or is removed or dismissed, the Board of Directors must elect a replacement within ten (10) days from the date of receipt of the resignation letter or from the date of removal or dismissal.
5. In case the Chairperson of the Board of Directors is absent or unable to perform his/her duties, he/she must authorize another member in writing to perform the rights and duties of the Chairperson of the Board of Directors.

In case there is no authorized person, or the Chairperson of the Board of Directors dies, is missing, is detained, is serving a prison sentence, is subject to administrative handling measures at a compulsory rehabilitation center or compulsory education institution, absconds from place of residence, is restricted or deprived of civil act capacity, has difficulties in cognition or control of behavior, or is prohibited by a Court from holding positions, practicing professions or performing certain jobs, the remaining members shall elect one among themselves to hold the position of Chairperson of the Board of Directors by majority approval of the remaining members until a new decision of the Board of Directors is issued.

Article 29. Meetings of the Board of Directors

1. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall be elected at the first meeting of the Board of Directors within seven (07) working days from the date of completion of the election of such Board of Directors. This meeting shall be convened and chaired by the member receiving the highest number of votes or the highest voting ratio. In case more than one member has the same highest number of votes or voting ratio, the members shall vote by majority to select one among them to convene the meeting of the Board of Directors.

2. The Board of Directors shall meet at least once every quarter and may convene extraordinary meetings.
3. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall convene a meeting of the Board of Directors in the following cases:
 - a) Upon request of the Supervisory Board or an independent member of the Board of Directors;
 - b) Upon request of the General Director or at least five (05) other managers;
 - c) Upon request of at least two (02) members of the Board of Directors;
 - d) In other cases deemed necessary by the Chairperson of the Board of Directors.
4. A request as prescribed in Clause 3 of this Article must be made in writing, clearly stating the purpose and matters to be discussed and decided within the authority of the Board of Directors.
5. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors must convene a meeting of the Board of Directors within seven (07) working days from the date of receipt of a request as prescribed in Clause 3 of this Article. In case the Chairperson of the Board of Directors fails to convene the meeting as requested, he/she shall be liable for any damages incurred by the Company; the requesting person shall have the right to replace the Chairperson of the Board of Directors in convening the meeting.
6. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors or the person convening the meeting must send the notice of invitation to the meeting no later than three (03) working days prior to the meeting date. The notice of invitation must specify the time and venue of the meeting, the agenda, and matters for discussion and decision. The notice of invitation must be enclosed with documents to be used at the meeting and voting ballots of members.

In case the Chairperson of the Board of Directors / the person convening the meeting deems it necessary to convene an urgent meeting or upon request of one-half (1/2) of the members of the Board of Directors, the meeting may be convened immediately after sending the notice of invitation, and meeting documents may be provided to members of the Board of Directors directly at the meeting. The notice of invitation to a meeting of the Board of Directors may be sent by written invitation, telephone, fax, electronic means or other methods as decided by the Board of Directors, provided that it is ensured to reach the registered contact address of each member of the Board of Directors.

7. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors or the person convening the meeting shall send the notice of invitation and enclosed documents to members of the Supervisory Board in the same manner as to members of the Board of Directors. Members of the Supervisory Board shall have the right to attend meetings of the Board of Directors and to participate in discussions but shall not have voting rights.
8. A meeting of the Board of Directors shall be conducted when at least three-quarters (3/4) of the total number of members attend the meeting. If a meeting convened under this Clause does not have sufficient attending members as prescribed, a second meeting shall be convened within seven (07) days from the scheduled date of the first meeting. In such case, the meeting shall be conducted if more than one-half (1/2) of the members of the Board of Directors attend.
9. A member of the Board of Directors shall be deemed to have attended and voted at the meeting in the following cases:
 - a) Attending and voting in person at the meeting;
 - b) Authorizing another person to attend and vote in accordance with Clause 11 of this Article;
 - c) Attending and voting via online conferencing, electronic voting or other electronic means;
 - d) Sending voting ballots to the meeting by mail, fax or electronic mail;
 - e) Sending voting ballots by other means as decided by the Board of Directors.
10. In case voting ballots are sent to the meeting by mail, such ballots must be enclosed in sealed envelopes and delivered to the Chairperson of the Board of Directors no later than one (01) hour prior to the opening of the meeting. Voting ballots shall only be opened in the presence of all attendees.
11. Members must attend all meetings of the Board of Directors. A member may authorize another person to attend and vote at a meeting if approved by the majority of members of the Board of Directors.

12. Voting

- a) Each member of the Board of Directors or authorized person attending the meeting in person shall have one (01) voting right;
- b) A member of the Board of Directors shall not vote on contracts, transactions or proposals in which such member or his/her related persons have interests that conflict or may conflict with the interests of the Company. Such member shall not be counted toward the minimum number of attending members required to convene a meeting of the Board of Directors for decisions on which such member has no voting rights.

13. The Board of Directors shall decide to organize meetings of the Board of Directors in an online format, another electronic format, or a combination of online and in-person formats, in accordance with the Company's technological capabilities at the time of the meeting, instead of holding meetings solely in person. The procedures, conditions and matters relating to the application of modern information technology for meetings of the Board of Directors as prescribed in this Clause, and/or electronic voting at meetings of the Board of Directors, and/or sending voting ballots by mail, fax or electronic mail shall be decided by the Board of Directors in compliance with applicable laws.

14. Resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors shall be adopted if approved by the majority of attending members; in case of an equal number of votes, the final decision shall follow the opinion of the Chairperson of the Board of Directors. Matters approved by the Board of Directors shall be issued in the form of resolutions/decisions.

15. Resolutions adopted by collecting written opinions shall be approved based on the affirmative votes of the majority of members of the Board of Directors having voting rights.

Such resolutions shall have the same validity and effect as resolutions adopted at a meeting.

16. The procedure for collecting written opinions of the Board of Directors shall be carried out as follows:

- a) Sending opinion-collection ballots together with relevant documents to members of the Board of Directors;
 - b) Members of the Board of Directors shall vote as requested and return completed opinion-collection ballots within the time limit specified therein;
 - c) The Secretary / minute-taker of the meeting of the Board of Directors shall consolidate voting results in the minutes of the meeting and retain all written opinions of members of the Board of Directors;
 - d) The Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall sign and issue the resolutions of the Board of Directors on matters approved by the members.
17. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors or the person convening the meeting shall be responsible for sending the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors to all members, and such minutes shall serve as conclusive evidence of the work conducted at the meeting unless objections to the contents of the minutes are raised within ten (10) days from the date of sending. The minutes of meetings of the Board of Directors shall be prepared in Vietnamese and may be prepared in English. The minutes must bear the signatures of the Chairperson and the minute-taker.

Article 30. Committees under the Board of Directors

1. The Board of Directors may establish subordinate committees to take charge of development policies, human resources, remuneration and benefits, internal audit, and risk management. The number of members of each committee shall be decided by the Board of Directors and shall be at least three (03) members, including at least one (01) member who is a member of the Board of Directors. The operations of such committees must comply with the regulations of the Board of Directors. Resolutions of a committee shall only be valid if approved by a majority of the members attending and voting at the committee meeting.
2. The implementation of decisions of the Board of Directors or of committees under the Board of Directors must comply with applicable laws and the provisions of the Company's Charter and the Internal Corporate Governance Regulations.

Article 31. Person in charge of Corporate Governance

1. The Board of Directors of the Company must appoint at least one (01) person in charge of corporate governance to support corporate governance activities at the enterprise.

The person in charge of corporate governance may concurrently serve as the Company Secretary in accordance with Clause 4 of this Article.

2. The person in charge of corporate governance shall not concurrently work for an approved auditing organization that is conducting the audit of the Company's financial statements.
3. The person in charge of corporate governance shall have the following rights and obligations:
 - a) To advise the Board of Directors on the organization of meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with regulations and on matters relating to the relationship between the Company and its shareholders;
 - b) To prepare meetings of the Board of Directors, the Supervisory Board and the General Meeting of Shareholders at the request of the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board;
 - c) To advise on procedures of meetings;
 - d) To attend meetings;
 - e) To advise on procedures for formulating resolutions of the Board of Directors in compliance with legal regulations;
 - f) To provide financial information, copies of minutes of meetings of the Board of Directors and other information to members of the Board of Directors and members of the Supervisory Board;
 - g) To supervise and report to the Board of Directors on the Company's information disclosure activities;
 - h) To act as a focal point for communication with stakeholders;
 - i) To maintain confidentiality of information in accordance with provisions of law and the Company's Charter;
 - j) Other rights and obligations as prescribed by law and the Company's Charter.
4. Where deemed necessary, the Board of Directors shall decide on the appointment of a Company Secretary.

The Company Secretary shall have the following rights and obligations:

- a) To assist in organizing the convening of meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Board of Directors, and to record minutes of meetings;
- b) To assist members of the Board of Directors in performing their assigned rights and obligations;
- c) To assist the Board of Directors in applying and implementing corporate governance principles;
- d) To assist the Company in building shareholder relations and protecting the lawful rights and interests of shareholders; ensuring compliance with information disclosure obligations, information transparency and administrative procedures;
- e) Other rights and obligations as prescribed by the Company's Charter.

VIII. GENERAL DIRECTOR AND OTHER EXECUTIVES

 - c) Enterprises in which a member of the Board of Directors, a member of the Supervisory Board, the General Director, or other managers of the Company acts as owner or holds contributed capital or shares;

- d) Enterprises in which related persons of members of the Board of Directors, the General Director, or other managers of the Company act as owners, co-owners, or independently hold more than ten percent (10%) of the charter capital.
- 2. The Board of Directors shall approve contracts and transactions specified in Clause 1 of this Article where the value is less than thirty-five percent (35%) of the total asset value of the Company as recorded in the most recent consolidated financial statements. In this case, the Company's authorized representative signing the contract or transaction must notify the members of the Board of Directors and the members of the Supervisory Board of the related persons involved and submit the draft contract or the main contents of the transaction.

The Board of Directors shall decide on the approval of such contract or transaction within fifteen (15) working days from the date of receipt of the notice. Members of the Board of Directors who have related interests in the contract or transaction shall not have voting rights.

- 3. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall approve the following contracts and transactions:
 - a) Contracts and transactions specified in Clause 1 of this Article with a value equal to or greater than thirty-five percent (35%) of the total asset value of the Company as recorded in the most recent financial statements;
 - b) Contracts and transactions involving loans or sales of assets with a value exceeding ten percent (10%) of the total asset value of the Company as recorded in the most recent financial statements between the Company and a shareholder owning fifty-one percent (51%) or more of the total voting shares, or their related persons;
 - c) Contracts and transactions between the Company and the entities specified in Point b, Clause 1 of this Article, with a value equal to or greater than thirty-five percent (35%) of the total asset value as recorded in the most recent financial statements, or transactions that result in the aggregate transaction value within twelve (12) months from the first transaction reaching fifty percent (50%) or more of the total asset value recorded in the most recent financial statements.

In this case, the material contents of the transaction, as well as the relationships and interests of members of the Board of Directors, the General Director, and other executives, must be fully disclosed to shareholders and approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders through votes of shareholders without related interests.

Where approval is required under this Clause, the Company's authorized representative signing the contract or transaction must notify the Board of Directors of the related persons involved and submit the draft contract or a summary of the main contents of the transaction.

The Board of Directors shall submit the draft contract or transaction, or an explanation of its main contents, and concurrently disclose the relationships and interests of members of the Board of Directors, the General Director, and other executives to the General Meeting of Shareholders at the meeting or through written consultation of shareholders. In this case, shareholders with related interests shall not have voting rights.

4. Any contract or transaction shall be invalidated by a court decision and handled in accordance with law if it is entered into in violation of this Article. The signatory of the contract or transaction, the shareholder, the member of the Board of Directors, or the General Director involved shall jointly and severally compensate for damages and return to the Company any benefits obtained from the performance of such contract or transaction.
5. The Company shall publicly disclose related-party contracts and transactions in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations.

Article 43. Liability for Damages and Indemnification

1. Members of the Board of Directors, members of the Supervisory Board, the General Director, and other executives who breach their duties, including the duties of loyalty, honesty, and due care, or fail to properly perform their obligations, shall be liable for damages arising from their violations.
2. The Company shall indemnify any person who has been, is, or may become a party to any complaint, claim, lawsuit, or prosecution (including civil or administrative proceedings, but excluding cases in which the Company is the plaintiff), provided that such person is or was a member of the Board of Directors, a member of the Supervisory Board, the General Director, another executive, an employee, or an authorized representative of the Company, and has acted or is acting within the scope of authorization, honestly, prudently, and in the best interests of the Company, in compliance with applicable laws, and there is no evidence that such person breached his or her duties.

3. Indemnification expenses shall include judgment costs, fines, and actual payments incurred, including legal fees, in connection with the resolution of such matters to the extent permitted by law. The Company may purchase liability insurance for such persons to cover the indemnification obligations specified herein.
